The May importations of sugar, while heavier than in any month since the new law went into effect, showed clearly that the expectation of $40,000,000 of revenue yearly from sugar is not going to be realized. Instead, it now looks as though it would not be over $25,000,000. The May importations were 500,697,599 pounds, valned at a trifle over $9,000,000, and paying a duty of about $3,600,600.
