DIOCESAN CONVENTION. Meeting of Divines in Portland and Their

Proceedings. The Seventh Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal church in the Di-osce of Oregon, being the 42d of the church in this state, was held in St. Mark's church, Porpland, on Thursday Friday and Saturday last. A full choral service with a portion of the Bishop's address were the order for Thursday evening, and after the Hoty Communion and the delivery of the remainder of the Bishop's address the convention organized for business Friday morning. The reports in the address were encou aging for a dull year as the last has been. The confirmations with one excep-tion were larger than those of any other year. The missionary work in Oregon has grown in almost every direction, particu-larly in the neighborhood of the city of Portland, where two new churches have been built and two more are under way for completion this summer. The number of clergy is 16, with two only in the whole part of the state east of the Cas-cade mountains. The Woman's Auxiliary and the Junior Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, have done good work in offerings and boxes during the past twelve months, and the St. Andrews Brotherhood has widely ex-tended the usefulness of the church mong young men.

The schools, considering the duliness of the times are in prosperous condition, both as considering the number of pu-pis and the financial condition. The Good seg-which was then reported to have been one-half as many as were treated by St. Luke's, in New York City. Fully one-third of these were free patients, another third were part pay, only one-third being full pay. All of these represent nearly every nation and religious creed.

The bishop half great sives on the subject of much of the popular preaching of five day, and denounced as he should have done the preaching of anything in our charches excepting the Gospel of our ford Jerus Christ.

He also warned the members of the thurch to take best less they so one or more steps too far in the matter of entertainments for raising money for church purposes, and advised the conventor to draw up suitable resolutions thanking the House of Bishops for their

The church was admirably arranged for the work of the convention, and the vestrymen of St. Mark's greatly facilitated the work by their painstaking preparations. The ladies furnished a sumptuous lunch in the Sunday School room each day of the session. On Sunday the visiting clergymen occupied the various puipits in the city and neighboring towns. On Sunday afternoon a very interesting service for the children of the eight or ten Sunday schools in the vicinity was held with addresses and in the evening missionary services were held in all the churches with the offering for Diocesan Missions. AT GRACE CHURCH.

Morning Service an Elaboration of the Theme of Trinity Sunday.

At Grace church Sunday morning, by request, the Rev. Mr. Short again de livered his sermon of Trinity Sunday eve The text was taken from the 17th verse of the 23rd chapter of Isaiah, "The King in His Beauty." The first article of religion in the prayer book states that there are three persons in the God-head, the tringty of Father, Son and Holy Ghost—three persons in one substance. The speaker dwelt upon the beauties of the Trinity in One, stating that the identical words of the prayer Wm. Allen, of Chicago, is at the Parker book had been in use for over 1,500 years and that the mystery of the Trinity was one of the accepted doctrines of the Holy Catholic church, trusted and tried. In quoted that beautiful poem of John Keble's, which well expresses the central thought of the trinity:

Creator, Sawlor, strengthening Guide, Now on Thy mercy's ocean wide Far out of sight we seem to glide.

Help us, each bour, with steadier eye

The wonders of Thy sea and sky, To praise Thee with a worthier song, And yet our silence does Thee wro

Along the church's central space

The sacred weeks, with unfeit pace,

To search the despening mystery,

Have borne us from grace to grace. As travelers on some woodland height. When wintry suns are gleaming bright, Lose in arch'd glades their tangled

By glimpses such as dreamers love Through her gray veil the leafless grove Shows where the distant shadows rove Such trembling joy the soul o'erawes As nearer to Thy shrine she draws:— And now before the choir we pause.

The door is clos'd-but soft and deer

Around the awful arches sweep. Such airs as soothe a hermit's sleep. From each carv'd nook and fretted bend Cornice and gallery seem to send Tones that with scraph hymns might

Three solemn parts together twine In harmony's mysterious line; Three solemn a sles approach th Yet are One-together all, In thoughts that awe but not appall, Teach the adoring heart to fail.

Is gently lur'd to one safe nestout, 'tis moaning and unrest. The busy world a thousand ways Is hurrying by, nor never stays To catch a note of Thy dear praise.

Within these walls each fluttering

Why tarries not her charlot wheel That o'er her with no vain appeal One gust of heavenly song might steal Alas! for her Thy opening flowers Unheeded breathe to summers showers. Unheard the music of Thy bowers.

What echoes from the sacred dome The selfish spirit may o'ercome That will not hear of love or home! How can it rise in fillal prayer?

Or how shall envious brethren own A brother on th' eternal throne, Their Father's joy, their hope ulone? How shall Thy Spirit's gracious wile The suffen brow of gloom beguile, That frowns on sweet affection's smile?

Eternal One, Almighty Trine!

How an all-seeing Guardian bear?

(Since Thou art ours, and we are Thine) By all Thy love did once resign. By all the grace Thy heavens still hide, We pray Thee, keep us at Thy side, Creator, Savior, strengthening Guide!

AT THE CONGREGATIONAL. How do the Congregationsists differ from other Christian churches? The Episcopalian, Presbyterian, and Methodist churches are all highly organ-ized communions; they have archibishops and bishops, convocations and synods, conferences and assemblies. They have theological standards, nuthorized catechisms, confessions and creeds, to which appeals may be made in times of controversy. Nothing is left haphazard. Everything is in black and white. Now from all this Congregationalism takes a sharp and decisive departure. It is a democratic form of church govern-ment. It derives its name from the prominence which it gives to the congregation of Christian believers. It vests all ecclesiastical power (under Christ), in the associated brotherhood of each local church as an independent body.

Its fundamental principle is the follow-ing: The Bible, interpreted by sanctified both as considering the number of pu-pils and the financial condition. The Good Samaritan Hospital treated within one or two as many patients as last year— is the only, and sufficient, and authorita-tive guide in all matters of Christian necessary officers, of admitting, dismiss-ing and disciplining their own members, of a Christian church. (3) Every such church is independent of any outward jurisdiction or control, whether from popes, patriarchs, arch-bishops, bishops, or others assuming to speak in the name of the church; or from any other churches, being answerable directly and only to Christ, its Head; and every such church is on a level of inherent genuineness, dignity, and authority with every other church on earth.

(4) A fraternal fellowship should maintained by these equal and independent churches, with affectionate carefuless for sach other's soundness of doctrine, and general welfare, the strong ever eager to aid the weak, and member of Christ's great family. MERCURY REACHES 118 DEGREES.
