Women don't come here to buy roasts steaks, and all other kinds of meat simply because it's Christensen & Co.'s. Of course there are a few, a very few, who buy out of compliment, or from ignorance, but the great mass of housekeepers buy where they can get the best and for that reason we supply the majority of the families in Asto-ria for they know by experience that we have only the best.

Our so long looked for railroad is an assured fact, and the building thereof means a large increase in the population of Astoria. Now what we are in need of is a publis park, such as every city has, and everyone ought to take a hand in this, as it benefits all. Now is the time-we must not wait and postpone it, the sooner acted upon the better, for obvious reasons. The mian one of these is the cost. At present a tract of from 50 acres and more learn to be bought reasonably low, while in a few years the value of such a tract of land will be too high; besides this a second reason is that in a few years it will be very difficult to find such a tract with a sufficient quantity of timper the proper to make a natural park.
