It doesn't take a trained observer to tell that Astoria is an overall town. The fact comes up and strikes a person in the face willy nilly. One way the fact is brought home to the stranger is by the numbers of little boys that wear overalls. From the time a boy passes his third birthday he wants pants. In other places he is put off with pitiable makeshifts which he wears with kills, but here in yesterday from his prother Sam, who is them and he has the additional advantoria, Ore., is in the city.
