REPARATION WANTED OF CHINA

France, America and England Want An Accounting for Ill-Treatment of Missionaries.

Tokio, Japan, July 2, per steamer Elek-ial, via V. otoria, B. C., July 19.—The to which more than twenty prominent leaders of the parties opposed to Count ito's ministry were expected to make speeches. From the beginning, however, it was evident that no expression of opinion adverse to the government would be tolerated. No speaker was allowed to touch upon the subject of the recent ne-got actions with Russia, Germany and were silenced by the police before the they had occupied the platform five minutes. DUN'S REPORT.

New York, July 19.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Veekly Review of Trade will say: The week's news is not entirely encour ness. Wheat prospects are not quite so good as last week, but prices are still lower, as corn and courof have been lowered. The exports of gold and less favorable treasury returns for July are not unexpected and mean methods. not unexpected and mean nothing as to the coming business. There is a percep-lible decrease in the demand for mfnufactured products and the distribution to consumers naturally lessens in midness was unusually large in the first survey half of July. The quiet tone meets rea-schable expectations. The heavy bank failure in Montreal does not affect finances here and is passing there with less disturbance than was feared. Gold exports for the middle of July when crops are beginning to move, if not meant to affect stocks can at all events have only a speculative signifi-

SLOOP WRECKED.

Santa Barbara, Cal., July 19.—The stoop Restless is reported lost off Santa Cruz Realizes a reported lost off Santa Cruz Island with s.xteen persons on board. Last Monday a party of young people left this port for a pleasure trip to the islands on the Resilicies. The sloop started down and made very slow progress as long as in sight? A reasonably brisk breeze was blowing and it is not known whether anything was the matter at the barse. The starty was expected back two days ago, and last night friends of the party commenced getting uneasy about her recurn. This morning Fred Forbush, port inspector, whose son is aboard the stoop, and Mr. Proit, started a search party. The searching party was expected back this evening if the Restless was found, but at $130 p. m. there was no sign of either bout. The latest reports from down the coast stated that the Restless is wrecked.

The names of the parties who left on the Restless are: Messars. Duncan, Mc-Duffy, Harmiton, F. Lamb, Ffirt, Fore-bush, and the Misses Metcaif, Harmon, Stall, G. Dieni, M. Johnson, Sayer, Mrs. Zhangs, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Poreus and George Sanders, an Ann Arbor law stu-dent. All the parties were from Santa Burtiara. The sloop is in charge of Capt. Burtis, assisted by Frank Cook. At 10 o'clock no further particulars were re-

BEADSTREET'S REPORT.

New York, July 19 .- Brudstreet's will say:

All presiously reported favorable industrial and commercial features are communicative week. The endurance of a revival in the demand for iron and steel, further advances in the price of the same, and additional increases in wages of industrial employes being most significant. Merchants at almost all larger offers are presented to seed out larger oxies are preparing to send out travellers and until they begin to exhibit the results no estimate of how the fall trade will open out be prefered. At this fine the outlook is required as eight ly favorable.

Pacific coast advices are that shi the wheat crop is threshing out poorly, but in the northwest the prospects for the crop are of the best. The total yield of corn in the country will exceed even the previous large crop views.

SCHOPPELD'S REPORT.

San Francisco, July 19.—While Gen. Schoffeld was in this city on his tour of suspection of the garrisons and fortifications of the army he received from President Geveland instructions to proceed to Ahaska and impact that coast and select. Seatitle, July 19.—Commander D. S. Mullina, of the United Statics ship Mohican, had a narrow escape Thursday afternoon as his ship came into port. A coil of rope fell from the main yard, eighty feet above, struck him on the head and glanced off his shoulder, knock-ing him senseloss. Had it struck him squarely it would have killed him. FOUND A CLEW.

Chicago, July 19.—The police found to-night in a stove in the house formerly occupied by H. H. riolmes, the alleged murderer of the Petress, a quantity of charred human bones and part of a watch chain formerly owned by Minnie Wil-liams. The chain was identified by the joweler who made it.

THE PITZEL CHILDREN MURDER.

Toronto, July 19.—The murder of the Pitzel children continues to be the absorbing topic of conversation here. Though the police think Howard Pitzel, the Etzle brother of the murdered girls, was made away with in Detroit, there are circumstances which will justify further investigation. ther investigation.

Near Ukish, says the East Oregonian correspondent at that place, the following notice can be seen posted upon a big pine tree: "For Sale—The United States of Amer.ca, the finest and best paying piece of property on earth, population 70,000,000—mostly fools. There are mortgages and bonds on the property for some five thousand untilion dollars, but it is worth double that sum to any ambittom sotewaste having enough money. It is worth double that sum to any ambitious potestate having enough morey and military power to carry on the business. Will be sold at a bargain to the right parties if applied for soon. The inhabitonis are kew-abiding, disarmed, and will stand any amount of taxatich when shrewdly adjusted. Reason for selling: Well, merely a little domestic trouble concerning the gold standard and a certain goddess, an idol of the people. No danger of a revolution, as the inhabitants are thoroughly hyponotized by a hullicination, known as liberty-on-thebrain. No guarantee, however, will be given, and the buyer must take all risks incident to the transfer of the plant. The property must be sold and payment made before March 4, 1897. Apply to the agents in charge at Washington, D. C."

George Peterquin, deputy assessor, re-turned yesterday evening from a trip to the Bohemia m.nes, says the Roseburg the Bohemia m.nes, says the Roseburg Plaindenler, and reports the Music mine, managed by the Bohemia Gold Mill and Mining company, working two shofts night and day, with fifteen hards, which turns out for their five stamp mill a large yield of rich ore. A large proportion of the yield is free milling ore. It is regarded as a regular bonanza for the owners. It is claimed by those with have good opportunities for knowing, that the monthly output is not less than $5,000 per month with their limited facilities. The Annie mine two miles northeast of the Music mine, now works five men, pushing a sunnel, and in a short time it will be in full blast. It is claimed that the Annie mine will equal the Music mine in richness. THE CHANGE IN INDIANA

New York Evening Post.

The change of financial sentiment is perhaps most marked among the Democrats of Indiana, a state which has always been peculiarly subject to financial delusions. Last year the Democratic governor was for free coinage at it to I without waiting for the accien of may other nation; now he declares against such a policy as too dangerous to be thought of. Two months ago a majority of the Democratic state committee favored a convention to declare for free coinage; today it is not believed tinto. cotrage; today it is not beneved that two members would sign such a call. Six weeks ago a majority of the Democratic editors were classified for free silver; just week they held a mosting and dodged the large.
