A COLLECTION OF OLD BOOTS. One of the most curious collections i the world is one upon which the queen of Italy has been engaged for years. It consists of old boots, shoes and slippers, to many of which a historical interest amaches. Queen Margaret is the happy possessor, for instance, of a pair of oarse, heavy shoes that are said to have belonged to Join of Arc. She has also a dainty pair of boots supposed to have been worn by Mary Stuart at her execution, as well as some slippers of Quaest Antionette and the famous beauty, Nino: de l'Enclos, of whom aradition says tha she had lovers after she had reached the age of fourscore. Somebody has suggested that it is possible the fact that the kingdom of Italy is shaped like a book that suggested to the queen her strange hobby.-Exchange.
