THE TREASURY DEFICIT.

While private business of all kinds is steadily improving, the fiscal affairs of the government are still in bad condition, and even the most sanguine government officials must admit that some other expedient than the present mongrel tariff must be adopted to supply an income adequate to the ordinary expenses of the administration.

Harrison says he believes that "the American flag should be hoisted on every public building, and planted in the heart of every American citizen." That kind of talk, says the Globe-Democrat, has never yet done harm to a candidate for the presidency.

The treasury gold reserve is beginning to decline again, but it is to be hoped that the administration will not be obliged to hire another syndicate of bankers to protect it by selling bonds to them at their own price.

It is estimated that one of the counties of Illinois will produce 12,000,000 bushels of corn this year. The general prevalence of such facts is rapidly suppressing the free silver craze and other forms of political foolishness.

PECULIAR FISH.

They Are Blind and Inhabit a Bottomless Pond With no Visible Outlet.

The queer fish that for a short time every season inhabit the Bottomless pond, near Milford, Ct., made their first appearance for this year last Sunday morning.

An attempt to catch the fish is to be made this morning by a Yale professor and his friends. Their plan is to set a net horizontally across the pond at a depth of about three feet.

METHOD TO RAISE WATER.

"One of the most interesting and ingenious methods of raising water from a river I saw recently on a visit to Green River," said Assistant Engineer Gilchrist.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press says: Last year many a farmer in Nebraska sold his farm for enough money to leave the state, while if reports are to be believed, others, disheartened by the total failure of the crops, abandoned their farms and left the scene of their troubles empty-handed.

WHERE I THE SUN.

I'd always shine on holidays, Where I the sun; On deep-sea leads I'd never gaze, But focus all my morning rays.

I would not melt a shedding snow.

Where I the sun; Nor spill the ice where skaters go, Nor melt the snow where children play, But hurry melts on you, Where I the sun.

I'd warm the swimming pool just right.

Where I the sun; On school days I would hide my light, The Fourth I'd always give you bright, Nor melt the snow on Christmas night, Where I the sun.

I would not head such paltry toys.

Where I the sun; Such work as grown-up men employ; But I would favor old boys, In shorts, I'd run the world for boys.
