San Francisco, Aug. 5.—The first attempt to do violence to Theodore Durrant, on trial for the murder of Leland Lamont, since his incarceration was made today, as the defendant was leaving the court room. The prisoner was in the custody of the chief jailer, when a wild looking young man rushed from the crowd towards Durrant with the evident intention of assaulting him. The jailer threw him off before he could reach Durrant and the assailant then tried to draw his pistol. He was seized by two deputy sheriffs before he could aim his weapon. It is believed that the assailant is insane. The seventh juror to try Durrant was secured today.

A BIMETALLIST'S RUSE

Pensioners in Kansas Requested to Demand Gold.

STATE OFFICIALS TO GET PAID

Supreme Court Decides That They Must Have Salaries—Man Attempts to Shoot Durrant.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 5.—The following circular was distributed among the old soldiers of Topeka and Shawnee county, who today visited the United States pension office to draw their quarterly allowance from the government: "Comrades, here you are entitled to gold in payment of your checks. Demand it. Do not accept depreciated currency."

The pensioners are paid by checks, which are cashed at the Topeka banks. This circular was evidently prepared by the bimetallicists who want to show that there is not enough gold in the banks to pay the pensions alone, aside from doing the other business of the country. Over 500 pension checks were paid by the Bank of Topeka today, only two men waiting for gold. One was a customer and was given the yellow metal. The other was somewhat violent and was told to get out of the bank.

President J. E. Mulvane, of the Bank of Topeka, when asked about the matter said: "We do not charge these veterans anything for collecting their money. The government does not keep any money deposited with us; so you see how foolish it is that this circular should be sent out telling them to demand gold."

A MURDERER'S STORY.

Symes Tells How He Shot Sheriff Coulee.

Missoula, Aug. 5.—Late tonight Symes, who was arrested today, admitted that he was the man wanted for the murder of Constable Coulee, near Riverville, Wash., about one month ago.

He is a tall and slender man, about 25 years old, with a short sandy beard. He was lying on his couch and was too weak to talk at great length. He does not deny the killing Coulee, but says he did it in self-defense. His story is that he took up some stray dogs which came to his ranch in June. The owner claimed them, but he refused to surrender them and paid for taking them up. He states that a conspiracy was formed by Constable Coulee and several others with whom Symes had trouble at that time. He had him arrested for larceny. Coulee made the arrest and took a 4-caliber gun from Symes, but overlooked a .38 which was concealed in his shirt pocket.

"Going down the road," said Symes, "Coulee abused me, called me hard names and said now I've got you, at the same time sticking a gun in my hand. I had my gun and said pull if you want to, why don't you pull, causing my horse to start. He then fired and I pulled and said: 'Now, old man, it's my turn to pump,' and I began to pump and kept pumping into him until he fell." A gleam of satisfaction shone on his face as he told the story, his eyes fairly glimmering as he related how he had "pulled" into the constable. "I would have been murdered if it were not for me," he added, in a reverent tone, "and had the license in my pocket when I killed him."

SPRAGUE REBUILDING.

Business Houses Will Reopen at Once.

Sprague, Aug. 5.—Today has been the busiest in the history of Sprague, in many years. Temporary buildings and shacks of all descriptions are going up on every hand. A spirit of hopefulness is manifested by every business man in the city. There is no suffering, as supplies have reached the city on every train. All are hustling under cover and tomorrow most of the burned out firms will reopen. The Northern Pacific station is nearly erected and a gang of men is working tonight to finish it. Station Agent Meeks will move in tomorrow.

The total amount of insurance is $72,000, excepting the railroad's insurance, which is not known. Adjudgers are arriving and the losses will be paid as soon as possible.

No answer has yet been received to the telegram sent to General Manager Kendrick by the business men, asking if the tracks have been repaired through the city and the wires stretched both east and west.

The relief station is in charge of J. S. Jordan and C. M. Tuttle and the needy are receiving prompt attention.

THEY MUST DIE.

Hansen and St. Claire Sentenced to Be Hanged October 18.

San Francisco, Aug. 5.—Hans Hansen was sentenced to be executed by United States Judge McKenna this morning. The date of the execution is October 18. Thomas St. Clair, Hansen's companion in the crime is also sentenced to die on the same day. THIS YEAR'S FASHION IN DOGS.

Fashion in dogs changes persistently. In London the Irish and fox terrier have been superseded by the Scotch terrier. This new "smart" dog hails from Aberdeen, and his color should be steel gray, yellow, and black to be popular. This year, says an English paper, they are fashionable and dear. Next year they will be making his appearance, and they will be going on. The eminent dog expert says that the Scotch terrier is a demand for him; he is bred largely and is becoming popular and the streets are full of mongrels.—New York Times.

SMALL POX IN TEXAS.

Action by the Government to Prevent Spread of Disease.

Washington, Aug. 5.—The surgeon-general of the marine hospital service has ordered a number of tents sent from Detention camp at Gainesville, Ga., to Eagle Pass, Texas, for use by the colored small pox patients in the refugee camps. The tents are to be used for quarantining purposes and the federal authorities are also to supply guards throughout the customs service to keep negroes from scattering and spreading the disease.

SITUATION IN OMAHA.

Omaha, Aug. 5.—The answer of the A. P. A. police commissioners to the petition of the regular board of fire and police commissioners was filed in the district court today. The hearing comes up in the morning and will be in the nature of a test of the constitutionality of the new law under which the A. P. A. board is acting.

The commission claims that a premeditated plan was arranged by certain individuals to render the law void also that the injunction procured by Mayor Bemis restraining the city council from appointing the defendants' bond was procured by the same individuals and designs. No excitement was noted in the city today.

Special to Astorian. Salem, Ore., Aug. 5.—In the case of J. B. Eddy, state railroad commissioner, against H. R. SUMMER PLEASURES

Crowds Are Flocking to the Seashore.

CAMP GEARHART ABANDONED

The Soldiers Bid Farewell to Manager Barmore—Incidents of the Week at Seaside Resorts.

The season at the seaside may now be said to be at its height. Every cottage is occupied and the hotels are keeping their guests on foot. It is the vacation time of the business men and with their families they have sought the beautiful resorts along Oregon's seashore, where the cool ocean breeze, natural parks and hills afford every means of recuperating man's worn out forces.

Everybody seemed to be in the best of spirits and thoroughly enjoying their summer outing. Surf bathing is naturally the chief attraction with the majority of the visitors, and hundreds are on the beach at every turn of the tide. There are many handsome costumes this season, particularly among the ladies. The most notable ones, but handsome, materials and costly styles enliven the hour for those who are content to be lookers-on. The little ones thoroughly enjoy, in addition to their liberty on the sands, and in bare feet with clothes tucked up they paddle in the water's edge or build sand houses to see them washed away by the incoming tides. The more sober parents and chaperons doubtless recall their own childish frolics and present pleasures are not unmixed with a regretful sigh that the stormy hours of life only permit a few days of freedom from care. But all are happy, jolly and content to let the bright summer months glide by, with like another, only fraught with the pleasures of the moment.

Sports of all kinds are devised for the hours not occupied in rest, or of the beach and many pleasant hours are thus filled with recreation and amusement. The soldiers at Camp Gearhart held the annual picnic on Thursday the 4th inst. and a little to the structure of the seaside. At the tennis courts they were lacerated spectators until they determined to enter the field themselves, where they carried everything before them. Thursday the match game of baseball between the Grimes club and the soldiers was played before an interested crowd of spectators. It is needless to say that the soldiers won the day by a large score. Friday night, while all were in the arms of sleep, the camp was awakened by a yell and a shout. The soldiers were roused and charged upon the intruders and in five minutes the match game of baseball between the Grimes club and the soldiers was played before an interested crowd of spectators. It is needless to say that the soldiers won the day by a large score. Friday night, while all were in the arms of sleep, the camp was awakened by a yell and a shout. The soldiers were roused and charged upon the intruders and in five minutes the match game of baseball between the Grimes club and the soldiers was played before an interested crowd of spectators. It is needless to say that the soldiers won the day by a large score.

Major Jackson, U. S. Army, and Captain Greed of Battery A, O. N. G., were the champion trout fishers of the week and had many beauties to show as the results of their prowess.

A mandolin and guitar club was organized, composed of Mrs. Cohen, Misses Elna and Estelle, Rummel, Miss C. Young and Mr. Trevors. The club furnishes delightful music during the evenings, which is much appreciated by the guests.

The camp bake Friday night was a great success. Mr. A. Eddy arranged the bake and started the fire before retiring to bed. The camp was awakened by a yell and a shout. The soldiers were roused and charged upon the intruders and in five minutes the match game of baseball between the Grimes club and the soldiers was played before an interested crowd of spectators. It is needless to say that the soldiers won the day by a large score.

An enjoyable concert was given Saturday night by the "Summer School" in the Auditorium in Gearhart park. A large audience was present and heartily enjoyed the excellent numbers. Mr. Doney and his phonograph, Doctors Barmore and Harhart on the violin, the Misses Albright and Dahl of Portland, Mrs. J. Ross of Astoria, Mr. Drovers of Gearhart, and Miss Gladys Jones of Forest Grove, were the principal musicians. Prof. Weirberg gave an interesting exhibition of physical culture with Indian clubs, and Mr. Breese recited a comical story.

Immense crowds thronged the resorts Sunday and lounged on the beaches or dipped in the surf. The day was perfect and everybody was bent on having a good time. As darkness fell the hotel was pushed to the limit so accommodations were scarce. The dining rooms were tastefully decorated with ferns and refreshing beverages were served to the hungry throngs.

Prof. Lewis, state superintendent, preached in the meeting at the Auditorium, the service being attended by large numbers of the guests and visitors.

In the afternoon Company A and Battery A broke camp and prepared to return home. Much regret was expressed on all sides to see the soldiers go, but all good times have an end, and while the best played and the colored quartet sang the boys folded up their tents and packed their belongings. The company passed a vote of thanks for the kindness and attention received from Manager Barmore, who made an appropriate reply and invited the boys to return in the future. Last words were said and finally the command to march was given, and while the band played "The Girl I Left Behind Me" the boys marched to the railway depot.

The following were the arrivals at Gearhart during the week: F. Mason White, L. Thorsheim, wife and niece, J. C. Friendly, J. P. Menzies and wife, F. A. Wain, E. G. White, L. Water, Wm. H. R.
