TERRIBLE MASSACRE

Missionaries in China Murdered in Cold Blood.

REPORT OF AN EYE WITNESS

Heart Rending Scene—Justice Jackson of Supreme Court Dead— Railroad Collision.

New York, August 8.—The World will print tomorrow a special telegram from Shanghai, China, giving an account of the massacre of the missionaries at Hwasang written by Miss Mabel C. Hartford, one of the survivors of the massacre, and the only one who witnessed it. Miss Hartford's statement is as follows: "August 1st at 7:30 a. m. I heard shouts; they were the yells of the servants, who rushed in shouting to me to get up, for vegetarians were coming, tearing down the house on the hill belonging to the English mission. A few minutes later a teacher came to my door and told me to run. I got on my clothes and rushed to the door. I was met by a man with a spear, who yelled, 'Here is a foreign woman.' He pointed the weapon at my chest, but I twisted to one side and it just grazed my ear and head. He threw me to the ground and beat me with the wooden end of the spear. A servant came and wrenched it away from him and told me to run. I jumped down the embankment and ran along the road. A servant followed me along until I got on the side of the hill. I then laid down there to get my breath and after resting twice I reached a secluded spot. All this time the yells went on and two houses were burned to the ground. After a while the yells ceased. I supposed the vegetarians had gone away. A servant went to see how matters were. He returned telling me to come home, that five ladies of the English mission had been killed and some had been wounded, but that my house, a rented native house, had not been troubled. In all nine persons were massacred."

FROM FOO CHOW. New York, August 8.—The World tomorrow will print the Cannon Ball Express south bound, and a freight train north bound, just south of here this morning, three trainmen were killed. The dead are: Frank Stevens, of Lake Port, engineer of the express; George Merrill, Lake Port, fireman of the express; Henry Glines, Northfield, fireman of the freight.

JUSTICE JACKSON DEAD. Special to the Astorian. Nashville, Tenn., August 8.—Justice Howell Edmund Jackson, of the United States supreme court, died today.

HIS RECORD. Incidents of Justice Jackson's Last Years. Washington, August 8.—When Justice Jackson was so seriously ill this spring that he was not expected to recover the name of his successor was considerably speculated upon. It was suggested by some that the president would name either Peckham or Hornblower, of New York, while the selection of a man from the west fell to Don M. Dickinson. Postmaster General Wilson was strongly spoken of as among the possibilities, while the majority were of the opinion that Secretary Carlisle would have the place if he wanted it. Carlisle would be especially eligible as he would be appointed from the same district that the death of Justice Jackson makes vacant.

The last time that Justice Jackson was in Washington was on the occasion of the hearing of the income tax case, last May. He had been absent from the bench since the preceding fall, when, soon after the convening of the October term of court, he had been compelled to go South on account of his rapidly declining health. When Justice Jackson was here on this occasion it was evident to all who came in contact with him that life was slowly but surely ebbing away, and that the effort he made in performing his duties in that emergency was made at the expense of his vitality.

As senator and justice of the supreme court, Mr. Jackson had resided in Washington about eight years. By his associates he was universally esteemed as a man of high moral worth and rich in intellectual attainments, as was evidenced in nothing so much as in his appointment to the supreme bench by President Harrison and his confirmation by a Republican senate, notwithstanding that he was a Democrat.

BRICE'S POSITION. Columbus, Ohio, August 8.—A close friend of Senator Brice today said to a reporter of the Associated Press, in regard to the position which the senator occupies in the contest now pending amongst the Democrats of Ohio, that his sole object is to obtain in the coming state convention an expression for good money. Out of 50 delegates elected to the state convention 40 are said by this gentleman to be for sound money.

INDIANS CIVILIZED. Washington, August 8.—Statistics received at the Indian bureau show that 20,000 Indians are now engaged in farming, stock raising, and other civilized pursuits. During the year they raised over 1,377,000 bushels of corn and other grain, and vegetables in proportion. They own 206,000 head of cattle and 1,284,000 sheep. About 25,000 Indians voted at the last election. It is estimated that 30,000 out of the total Indian population of 37,000 are church members. Out of the 247,000, 190,000 are self-supporting and 57,000 pay taxes.

TO PROTECT INDIANS. Walla Walla, August 8.—Troop A, 4th Cavalry, Captain Allen Smith, and Lieut. Voorhees, received orders this morning to proceed at once to the Nes Perce reservation.

Preparations were made at once and at 10 o'clock the troops marched to the W. and C. R. R. depot, where horses and men were loaded on a special train. They intend going by rail to Dayton, and march the remainder of the distance. The other troops at the post are under orders to be held in readiness. The troops were rationed for 30 days and going ostensibly to guard the $25,000 which is to be distributed among the Indians for land, also to protect them from thieves and gamblers who are congregating there in great numbers.

SCANDAL IN HIGH LIFE. London, August 8.—A society scandal case, which is attracting a great deal of notice, was commenced today in the Queen's Bench division of the high court of justice. Mrs. Jacoby, sister-in-law of James A. Jacoby, a member of parliament, for the middle division of Derbyshire, a Liberal, and president of the Nottingham Chamber of Commerce, has brought suit for damages against the Dowager Countess Cowley, who it is alleged has charged the plaintiff with writing anonymous and obscene letters.

BASE BALL SCORES. Pittsburg, August 8.—Pittsburg, 9; Louisville, 6. Cincinnati, August 8.—Cincinnati, 10; St. Louis, 2. Philadelphia, August 8.—Baltimore, 6; Philadelphia, 2.

New York, August 8.—New York, 11; Washington, 0. Boston, August 8.—Boston, 6; Brooklyn, 2. Second game—Boston 10; Brooklyn 5. Chicago, August 8.—Chicago, 11; Cleveland, 9.

RAILROAD COLLISION. Plymouth, N. H., August 8.—In a head on collision between the Cannon Ball Express south bound, and a freight train north bound, just south of here this morning, three trainmen were killed. The dead are: Frank Stevens, of Lake Port, engineer of the express; George Merrill, Lake Port, fireman of the express; Henry Glines, Northfield, fireman of the freight.

HOTEL BURNED. Special to the Astorian. Pendleton, August 8.—The Transfer Hotel burned last night and five people perished in the flames. The dead are: J. D. Taylor, Wm. Strunness, G. Clackling, Frank Breding, and Old Chief, an Indian policeman on the Umatilla reservation. It is supposed the fire was started by a drunken man.

NINE LOTAL MEN. San Francisco, August 8.—The eighth juror was obtained to try Theodore Durant for murder at the forenoon session of the upper court. He is F. P. Hooper, a lumber merchant, and like his fellow jurors, stands high in the community. H. C. Gray, a restaurant keeper, was accepted, making the ninth juror.

LOST AT SEA. Philadelphia, August 8.—The British ship Capao reached here tonight with 17 of the crew of the British ship Prince Oscar. The latter was in a collision July 18 with an unknown ship. Both vessels sank and forty lives were lost.

THE CABLE IS LAID. The Steamer Manzanita Accomplishes Its Feat. Captain Gregory, of the Manzanita, who returned yesterday from Tillamook Rock, reports that the laying of the cable between the lighthouse on Tillamook Rock to Lewis and Flanders' place at North Elk Creek was most successfully accomplished.

The life boat from Point Adams took one end of the cable on board their prow, to which was attached a line, while the cable staff was on the reels on board the Manzanita. The life boat pulled to the shore, when the line was attached to a team of horses, and the cable thus pulled in. As the end of the cable reached the shore, the assembled throngs of people, campers and guests of the hotel, joined in a hearty demonstration of pleasure. Photographs were taken and a full moon reflected that at last communication would be had by wire between Astoria and Tillamook Rock. The work was carried on under the supervision of Mr. Brownie, superintendent of construction, and Capt. Gregory, of the Manzanita. The crew of the Point Adams life saving station are entitled to much credit for their efficient work.

Astoria will now be enabled to receive by telephone the earliest and latest reports of vessels approaching this coast and passing in and out of the river and such valuable work by the department will be accomplished in an accurate manner.
