Steady progress is being made on the tunnel. Repairs to the crusher will be completed today and work of concreting the reservoir will be resumed. A somewhat singular circumstance happened to Captain Hallock yesterday. About noon a drunken mun was creating a disturbance in front of the Crosby hardware store, when the officer placed him under arrest. The man grabbed the captain's watch chain, giving it a severe jerk and tearing the watch ring from off the watch. Afters locking his prisoner up, Mr. Hallock went to Seymour's jewelry store for the purpose of having a new ring put on the watch. The low-ler picked up a ring that was laying on his table and with the remark, "I wonder it it will fit?" snapped it on the watch. It surprised the captain wonderfully at tha time, but when Mr. Seymour told him that he had just found the watch ring in front of Crosby's, the officer easily understood why it happened to be such a
