THE REGATTA.

The United States Gunboat Mohican Expected Tomorrow.

Tomorrow will see the commencement of Astoria's second annual regatta. A number of entries already made for the different races would indicate that there will be an abundance of sport in store for all. Quite a number of strangers are already to be seen upon the streets and a few have secured quarters at the hotels for the regatta season. A number who were here last year are being present.

Yesterday was not a very good day for sailing boats, on account of the light winds, but still several different kinds of craft were out trying their skills. The schooner Columbia came in early yesterday morning from Showwater Bay, followed last evening by the sloops Pearl and Sailor Boy.

The committee has secured a number of flags for the winning boats, with which they have decorated the walls of the headquarters building, which is brightly lit at night presents a most cheerful appearance.

The Columbia arrived yesterday afternoon from up the coast, according to program. Each boat can be supplied with a program and map of the course by applying on Monday at the headquarters office, on Bond street, opposite the Occident hotel.

PIONEER MEETING. Yesterday's Meeting--William Monument Fund. Astoria, Or., August 17, 1895. At a meeting of the executive committee of the Pioneer and Historical Society, held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, the following business was transacted: Meeting called to order at 2:30 p. m. President J. H. D. Gray in the chair. The minutes reported verbally in regard to the books belonging to the library of the association, that many of them were missing and that nothing had as yet been done to locate them. It was decided that the same be boxed up and put in some place for safe keeping. Carried. A statement was read from Messrs. Lusk & Tilton, showing the amount of the William Monument Fund in their hands, June 15, 1895, to be $44.90, and that the same was loaned at 3 percent. The president and treasurer, to whom this matter was referred at the annual meeting, May 15th, recommended that the
