THE OREGON REFUGE HOME.

Mrs. Hoxter, of Portland, Speaks of Its Excellent Work.

At the special meeting of the W. C. T. U. held yesterday, Mrs. M. E. Hoxter, of Portland, one of the board of managers of the Refuge Home for unfortunate and friendless women, gave a talk on the excellent work of that institution.

The home has for six years been supported by the blennial appropriation of $5,000. At the last session of the legislature the appropriation was given on condition that the home be moved to a condition that the home has been received from the time and place. The king of the Reigh his agrents are looking to sell his property to the Ardennes, and his agents are looking out for a purchaser. The reason for this step is said to be the large expenses to which he has been put by the Congo.

The number of members of the saw purportion of the next trienniti conclave has been made a condition that the home has for six purportions. The home has a condition that the next trienn ture the appropriation was given on condition that the home be moved to a tract-outside the city limits donated by Mrs. Ladd, thus necessitating the erection of new buildings, before the appro-

AN INHUMAN BRUTE.

Spokane, Wn., August 28.—Peter Ashley, a farmer from Peone Prairie, was roughly handled today by a dozen indignant citizens of Hillyard, a suburb of this city. He came in to haul sway some straw. While waiting for the wagon he began talking with a four-year-old daughter of a baker named Schuttee. Two women say they saw him entire the child women say they saw him entice the child up to him and take indecent liberties with her. They informed the calid's father. He and a dozen neighbors attacked Ashley with clubs, and stones, beating him almost into insensibility. Ashley was arrested. He has a wife and several children.
