DEMOCRATIC THEORIES TESTED.

It is profitable just now for the voters of the United States to compare the predictions of the Democrats made just after their victory at the polls in 1892, with the actual facts developed by putting their theories into practice, in 1894 and 1895. They declared that a low tariff would increase our foreign trade, because "the manufacturer was protected while the farmer was shut out from profitable markets."

In 1894 the value of exports of wheat was $39,181,297; in 1895, it was $43,656,841, a decrease of $4,475,544.

Total value of breadstuffs, oats and barley included, exported during the year ending June 30, 1895, $10,677,730. Total value of same exported during the year ending June 30, 1894, $10,108,648. Decrease, $569,082.

Total value of provisions, including cattle, hogs and dairy products, exported during the year 1894, $174,151,614. Value of same exported during the year 1895, $169,148,448. Decrease, $5,003,166.

Total decrease of farm products: Breadstuffs, $5,003,166. Provisions, $1,578,697.

Total, $6,581,863.

Meanwhile the predictions of the Republicans are proving true, that lowering the duties would increase our imports, cut down the demand for home manufactures, and furnish less work or lower wages to our own working people. More than this, and despite the increasing imports, the schedule of duties has been cut so low that the receipts are not enough to pay the government's legitimate expenses, and the administration has resorted to issuing bonds—piling up a debt which we will have to pay later.

"THE PACIFIC EMPIRE."

We have received the first issue of "The Pacific Empire," a journalistic venture which is the outcome of the genius of Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, a lady who has all her life, with a persistency worthy of a better cause, been attempting to make herself a newspaper man. She says in her "Salutation":

"As I found the editorial tripod of Miss Goshaw's title craft and turn the field-glass of my vision handward, I can see the beacon lights of freedom resting on the crests of the Rocky mountains."

How this mother of the modern Gracchi could mount a tripod beyond our imagination, but if her physical powers are on a plane with her ability as a journalist, even without bloomers, the connection, too, between a tripod and a "title craft" strikes us as being rather vague, but then Ruskin and Stevenson and Huxley are all vague to a certain extent, too. If the farts in the composing room of the Pacific Empire can keep up the strain on the editorial "fa," the paper will probably live, for Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway has a shrewd business head. But we would suggest that the lady be merciful and restrict a circulation that will no doubt increase "by leaps and bounds" down to the circle of a few antiquated ladies who can appreciate and chuckle over the astounding wisdom of such an enlightened brain. Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway and her intimate friend, Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, are no doubt shaking hands with each other over the birth of this new and infant. We wish the whole family joy.

Judge Smith, of Ogden, has decided that the women of legal age and qualifications in Utah are entitled to vote on the matter of the adoption of the new state constitution. As we understand it, however, this is not necessarily a finality, as the judgment can be taken up on appeal. The question raised is an interesting one. Women formerly voted in Utah, but the Edmunds act deprived them of the privileges, presumably to reduce the Mormon power at the polls at that time. The act of congress enabling Utah to take the necessary steps to statehood provides for the framing of a constitution which is to be adopted or rejected by the "qualified voters of said proposed state," which language is ambiguous in not declaring whether women are voters or not. Under this act a state constitution has been framed which provides for woman suffrage. Of course this instrument is not yet operative, but the women claim they have the right to vote on its adoption. This contention has been upheld by Judge Smith. The matter may lead to considerable delay in the admission of Utah; for if the election should result in a Republican victory, which all the indications favor, the master of women voting on the adoption of the state constitution will be brought up in congress by the Democrats to delay the admission of the state and the seating of two additional Republican senators, thus giving the control of the United States senate to that party.

The publication of the only letter written to any one in Astoria by ex-Sheriff Smith since his sudden departure some months ago, will carry consternation into the ranks of the legion or more of men who have made loud complaints about the way "Harry Smith left me in the hole." The statement made by Mr. Smith as to the condition of his affairs is probably correct, and however much the rookeries of his conduct may be condemned, he has plenty of friends who would be glad to see his name cleared of the charge of intentional dishonesty toward any one.

Oregon Packer—"What is the horse good for?" "Well, 'tis honest with ye, he's a little too tony for mountain trout and not quite tough enough for corned beef, but he'd can up like a daisy for spring chicken."—Cleveland Plaindealer.

The salmon packers of the Columbia river should know whether this is deserved or not.

The Brazilian legation in London announces that England will recognize Brazil's rights of sovereignty over Trinidad if Brazil will permit the use of a part of the island as a cable station. This is exactly parallel to the case of a squatter on a man's farm, who coolly says: "I will recognize your ownership of this land if you will recognize my right as a squatter on it."

The good roads movement is spreading. A special committee of the New York legislature is to make an inspection of the highways over the state and prepare a scheme of general improvement. This is a matter which should be brought up in the Oregon general assembly at its next session. Oregon needs a new road law.

The silver conference of leading Democrats at Washington was called entirely too late to do anything. The wave of free silver at 16 to 1 sentiment has reached its highest mark, and is now retreating. It will slosh around for some time, but it will never be as strong as it was last spring.

A revolution is imminent in Guatemala on account of dissatisfaction caused by the depreciated currency. This fact is respectfully referred to the free silver at 16 to 1 sentiment, as Guatemala is a silver-standard country.

The big crops throughout the West mean plenty of money for the farmers, and no work for the political demagogues.

PARTINOTIONS.

Portland, Or., August 28, 1895.

Gentlemen: During my ride from Astoria to the pleasure of reading the Astorian of Jan. 1st, and the little pamphlet which you kindly gave me. The ride was long and I read them carefully, studiously and thoughtfully. You can journey over your majestic river or note the exuberance of the verdure in the depths of your forests, as I have done without feeling that there is latent wealth and latent commerce lying ready to be developed by a due co-operation. The people of the East are, however, slow to take the lead in any street or public way, at the office of the Auditor and Police Judge, until Saturday, Aug. 31, 1895, at the hour of 7:30 p. m., at the City Hall the said common council will consider any objections to said improvement being made and if a remonstrance against such improvement signed by persons owning more than one-half of the property in such district herein described and upon which shall be filed with the Auditor and Police Judge before the said time of meeting of the common council no such improvement shall be made and if within said time a written remonstrance against the same shall be made and filed with the Auditor and Police Judge by the owners of three-fourths of the property adjacent to said portion of said street, such proposed alteration of grade shall not be made in any event.

By order of the common council, K. OSBURN, Auditor and Police Judge, Astoria, Ore., Aug. 28, 1895.

A GOOD WORD.

Mr. J. J. Keil, Shamburg, Pa. Dear Sir: I am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules. After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent insomnia (which seemed to baffle the efforts of some of our best physicians) you suggested this remedy which gave almost instant relief. Words fail to express the praise I should like to bestow on Krause's Headache Capsules.

Gratefully, MRS. E. T. HOLMES, Montrose, Pa.
