Spending a portion of his time at the beach he has returned in time to fill the pulpit.

The steamer Dwyer leaves here for Smith's Point creek grounds at 12:30 and 1:30 Monday afternoon with barges. Tickets, including transportation both ways, and admission, only 25 cents. M. A. C. vs. A. F. C. Tickets for sale on the boat.

The O. R. & N. Co. have arranged for the cancellation of the 35 extra charges on the tickets of the fourteen Finnish people who left for the old country ten days ago and who experienced so much difficulty with the steamship company at New York.

Dr. O. R. Estes returned home last week from a week's visit to Elk Creek and Cannon Beach, where he has been staying with his family. While at the beach he made several excellent pencil sketches of prominent scenes in the vicinity, including Haystack Rock, "Old Man"

Old Woman," Sentinel Rocks, Ocean House, Arch Cape Rock, Arch Cape, Seal Rocks, Cataract Cave, Hug Point, and a view from the doctor's ranch showing all the prominent rocks and Tillamook rock lighthouse. The Estes cottage will be closed up on Wednesday for the winter.

The case of Rasmussen and Norris, charged with larceny, was concluded in the justice court yesterday. Rasmussen was bound over to await the action of the grand jury, and the case against Norris was dismissed. Rasmussen was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

Judge Shattuck, who has been visiting with Captain Eben Parker, returns to Portland tomorrow night and will open court in that city Tuesday morning. During the judge's short vacation in Astoria he has been shown many points of interest, among them the new waterworks which he pronounced one of the finest plants he has ever seen.

A party of Astorians will leave this city tomorrow for a ride through the Nehalem Valley. The party intend crossing the divide through the big trees down into Tillamook, returning by the route, either by the seashore route or by steamer from Tillamook. Those who will make the trip are Mr. Herman Prad, Mr. Phil Stokes, and Mr. George W. Sanborn and son, Frank.

Yesterday a large centipede was taken out of a box of South Sea Island cigars by Fred Johnson, a clerk in Ford & Stokes' store. Not realizing the poisonous nature of the insect, Mr. Johnson picked it up with his bare hand and laid it on the sidewalk. Fortunately he was not bitten but the next time a box of centipedes is opened by him he will be more careful.

The O. R. and N. Co. will give another of their popular excursions to Clifton Beach and Gearhart Park, Sunday, September 2nd. The R. R. Thompson will leave the O. These tickets will be good for return on the R. R. Thompson leaving Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Everybody should take advantage of this cheap rate as it will be the last Sunday trip of the North Pacific.

The Astorian has been favored with an inspection of several handsome samples of clothing from the pen of Mr. A. Hartman, of Cape Disappointment lighthouse. The drawings are all excellent specimens of fine penmanship and disclose both originality and a taste for style. Mr. Hartman's excellent talent in this direction has earned him considerable merit comment in many eastern cities.

There now only remains 100 feet of solid rock between the two gorges which are being excavated each other from the opposite ends of the waterworks tunnel. The drills working on each side can be heard by the men at the other end and about day being excavated. One half the brickwork on the reservoir is laid, and the stone foundation for the power house is almost complete. The gate will be ready for use in a few days, and it now seems almost certain that the plant will be completed before the winter sets in. The contractors, Messrs. Egan & Harnham, are entitled to credit for the manner in which they have pushed the work to its present stage.

Bids for the improvement of Duane street, from 6th to 12th, were opened in the office of Auditor Osburn yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The contract was given to Clinton & Sons, their bid of $1,265.50 being the lowest. Two hundred and sixty cubic yards of excavation have to be effected, and an embankment of 115 cubic yards is to be thrown up. Sixteen hundred lineal feet of covering will be put on, including sidewalks, gutters, bulkheads, and rails, where necessary and 1500 lineal feet of trestle will be built as well as two crossings, one on 8th and 10th streets. The work will be commenced immediately. The bidders were Ross & Wirt, $5,227.50; L. Lebeck, $5,600; J. A. Fastabend, $5,225; Carruth & Olson, $4,313.50; Clinton & Sons, $4,236.00.

Last evening about 7 o'clock while the driver of a four-horse wagon loaded with steel pipe for the waterworks was inside the office of the O. R. and N. dock, the horses, which were left standing outside, took fright and ran away. Turning into Commercial street the runaway race started. A horse attached to a milk wagon, which was passing, became frightened by the noise of the runaway and also started off just ahead of the double team. Down the street they came, but broke back with the first of milk wagon load of steel pipe only a few feet behind the milk wagon. They turned into 7th street and on rounding the corner going east on each side. One was thrown overboard the milk wagon, capsizing it and bringing the wild chase to a stop. Aside from a few bruises to the horses no material damage resulted.

Two men sat in the smoking room of the Occident hotel yesterday afternoon and smoked on each other. One was from Portland and his name is Sullivan. The second man is from Seattle. He accused the first of being a thief and said a good many mean things which Sullivan returned in kind. And Sullivan was on a return. "Way," he said, "Seattle is a poor town.
