THE FREE SILVER OUTLOOK.

The free silver politicians who have been luxuriating in the soothing dream that their particular form of neurosis was to spread till the earth was filled with lunatics must be by this time pretty weil disgusted with the outlook. All the roads in order to secure just and fair en at all have declared against free silver, and have made that declaration unanimous by the concurrent voice of Mr. Debs calls this being controlled and debauched by the familiar specter, the money power; but to people who do not taken to go to jail on account of their tucky, at least, on its Democratic side, point of view, it has another and a much more reasonable meaning. It signifies to the white idol of the Rocky mountain miners. But Kentucky has renounced the them a decent regard for recognized the fetish, the Republican party even more emphatically than the Democratic. It is true that Hardin, the Democratic the interests of public sympathy and cambidate, has renounced the sound parties that they can not be used for the the stump. But the probability is that his heresy will cost him the support of thousands of Democrats, and it has made antagonize the institutions of society and possible the election of a Republican
