The boys are after ducks and have promised to bring all of their friends a pair of ducks each. Mr. Ross says if Morton comes back without any game it will cost him his job.

Seaside Lodge, A. O. U. W., met last night in regular session and voted to donate 200 meals to the workmen on the water works who may be in need. A committee was appointed to attend to the matter. The action of the lodge is commendable and is in line with their usual generosity. No doubt this action will be followed by other societies who are equally interested in the cause of humanity. Today will be a more cheerful Sunday for the men than was anticipated.

While hunting near Knappton yesterday Arthur Wentworth scared up a young bear's cub in the brush and shot it with his repeating Spencer. Just then the old bear appeared and sprang upon the other cubs and after firing the other five shots of his gun, Wentworth found he had to run for his life. His escape was successfully accomplished, however, and he thinks he will go back and try to capture the old bear.

Mayor Kinney states that some time before the contracts for the construction of the waterworks was let he wrote to the commissioners, in which letter he stated that whoever the contractors were they should be compelled to pay their men once a week in money, as is the custom of the East, regardless of their board. Such a method not only vastly benefits the men, but is also a large benefit to the community in which the work is being done, and had this been done here on the water works contract, the present difficulties would for a large part have been avoided.

THE WATER WORKS MUDDLE.

No New Developments Yesterday. Save a Few Minor Details.

There were no proceedings relative to the water works muddle in court yesterday, excepting that, in the forenoon, Judge McBride signed and directed to be entered the order made by him on the preceding day directing the water commission to turn over to Receiver Hahn the money they held on account of the Pacific Paving Co. excepting the ten per cent reserve fund, which the court directed the commission to hold intact, subject to further orders.

Although it was thought that there would be some attempt made to rescind or modify the order made on the previous day, no such action was taken and the legal situation remains the same. The commissioners are expected to return from Portland today and it is believed will furnish satisfactory security to Receiver Hahn for material needed to continue work on the water works system which will go on without delay. Meanwhile Receiver Hahn has been busy engaged in receiving and filing sworn claims of laborers on the water works.

Notwithstanding the fact that the laborers now stand an excellent chance of being paid for their work in full, many of them are still in a state of apprehension, and in some cases sell, time checks with a face value all the way from $10 to $50, for the price of a few cents. In a few instances the Astorian is sorry to say, these checks were purchased, but most of the men who offered them for sale at this ridiculous figure, were generously supplied with food by citizens and told to put their checks in their pockets.

No pumping has been done at the tunnel for five days, and if the work is to be continued Monday, as many people believe, men will have to be put into the tunnel this morning to clear away the accumulated water to allow blasting to proceed.

There is still 135 feet of solid rock to be blasted away from the section of the work, and it will take fully two months more to run the tunnel through.

THE CONCERT.

Large Audience Attends for the Benefit of the Piano Fund.

Last night a large and appreciative audience gathered at the opera house to hear the concert given for the benefit of the Shively school fund. The program was carried out in a smooth and most satisfactory manner. Flowers were showered upon the stage actors, and it would be a difficult matter to pick out numbers more deserving of praise than others. The managers are to be congratulated upon the success of the affair.

THE RED MEN.

Judge Cleveland Says That the Council Was Very Successful.

Judge A. A. Cleveland, who has just returned from the great council of the United States of the Improved Order of Red Men, which recently met in Providence, R. I., has been in town for a few days and transacted a large amount of business. He reports that the order were found to be in a very flourishing condition, with a notable increase of membership during the past year.

The next great Red Men's session will be held the second Tuesday in September in Minneapolis, Minn. At this session it is expected that the order will be adopted. One of the most important matters which will then be considered is the proposed amendment to the constitution which would readjust the membership in the association.

After this convention all of the visiting members were most royally entertained and left for their homes with a lasting impression of her hospitality. The judge states that among the other entertainments was a monster cake bake given by the Red Men of Minneapolis, which was a drive on the famous ten-mile boulevard at Newport, where each carriage was provided with a guide who pointed out the places of interest and the mansions of the rich, there being no hotels of the poor to be seen.

Judge Cleveland the trip took five days over the Northern Pacific and is told in his praises of our transcontinental roads. Next year the K. of P.'s as well as the Red Men meet in Minneapolis and the Northern Pacific has arranged to take care of the crowds.
