WILL PROTECTION BE THE ISSUE?

The Republican party has done more for the benefit and advancement of the people in the same length of time than political or moral organization that thus regardless of sections or social condiwhich were enacted by congress in 1861, deals in generalities. The failure of se and have been continued down to the time of the Wilson-Gorman bill. No notion can be bruly great and really inlependerst unless it has within itself the means of support in war and in peace, uniters it cun clothe, feed and manufacture for its own people. We can only retain our proud position by continuing the same system of laws, which has made us so great. The greatest argument, however, in favor of protection and its proudest monument is the pres ent condition of the country, and the the progress it has made in thirty-five years of uninterrupted protection.
