Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. KIRSCHLOFF,
Conway, Ark.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY,
ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres., Boston, Mass.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

A GOOD WORD.

Mr. J. J. Keil, Shareburg, Pa. Dear Sir: I am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules. After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent ailments (which seemed to baffle the efforts of some of our best physicians) you suggested this remedy which gave me almost instant relief. Words fail to express the praise I should like to bestow on Krause's Headache Capsules.
Gratefully Yours,
MRS. E. R. HOLMES,
Montrose, Pa.

"A TALENTED EDITOR."

Gentlemen—I had occasion to use several boxes of Krause's Headache Capsules while traveling to Chicago to attend the National Democratic Convention. They acted like a charm in preventing headaches and dizziness. Have had very little headache since my return, which is remarkable.
Yours, respectfully,
JOHN U. SHAFFER,

SHIPPING DAY BY DAY

Marine Matters, Here, There and Everywhere.

The Gaigate's anchor chaises were twisted some than ever again yesterday.

The Augusta tied up at her old mooring place inside Husted's dock yesterday.

The Bedfordshire has been ordered to remain in Astoria for further instructions.

The Andrita and Marathon were towed up the river to Portland yesterday morning.

The China steamer Astoria will arrive here from Portland at daylight this morning. It is not known when she will leave out.

The Irwaco has been unable to beat the ebb tide during the present week, and has been several hours late every night in arriving at this city.

The Harrison went around inside the O. R. and N. dock yesterday where she will stay till matters outside calm down a little. She did not try to get out yesterday.

The steamer Elmore is locked up in Tillamook bay, with a furiously raging bar between her and the open ocean. She will not be able to get out till the weather moderates.

The gang of engineers from the Astoria Iron Works assisted by the Lucero's men are still hard at work on her machinery. It is expected she will be completely repaired by Monday.

The Mowhan, it is supposed, stood off shore and got away into deep water as soon as the blow came on yesterday morning. If the weather moderates she should appear in sight some time today.

The work of unloading the tin from the Crown of Scotland began early yesterday morning and a considerable quantity was taken into the bonded warehouse before noon. The rain stopped the work for the balance of the day at that hour, and another start will be made this morning.

The Alice Blanchard went down to the mouth of the river again yesterday morning, but could not face the music and quickly returned to Finlayson's dock. Meanwhile, her crew, on full pay and little work, are jubilant, and the San Francisco people who are awaiting consignments, are correspondingly sad.

The storm increased in violence yesterday morning, and towards evening the wind was abating along from the south past the mouth of the river at nearly eighty miles an hour. Thick fog and continuous rain obscured everything and the observer at the Cape had to console himself for his inactivity with the knowledge that outside of his own snug quarters there was nothing to observe.

One of the most popular skippers that ever visited this city was Mr. Carrero, a government official in Tongkin, has returned to France on sick leave. He was seized near the Chinese frontier by a band of men armed with Winchester rifles and revolvers. For two months he was shut up in a cavern with chains on his feet. Afterwards the Black Flags took him to Nong by another route, and he had to march with them for nearly a month, both night and day.

Say, why don't you try DeWitt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small, but do the work. Chas. Rogers.

"Do you know Jay," asked Miss Daley modestly yesterday, "what there are a great many more single men than married men in the prisons? And do you know what that proves?" "Mebby it proves," answered Jay Green diplomatically, "that they rather go to prison than get married."—Puck.

"You know that, although a wealthy man, I never drink, smoke, gamble or swear—just as I am perfectly exemplary. Then why do you refuse me?" "You certainly couldn't ask me to become the manager of a freight"—Harper's Bazar.

There was only one Pacific coast vessel assigned an official number by the Bureau of Navigation for the week ended October 31st. It was the schooner Muriel of San Francisco; gross tonnage 52.84, net 48.17, official number 9283, signal letters K. M. L. Q.

It has been held in New York that the master of a vessel, detouring to all his authority in that capacity from his appointment by the owners, and that he represents them as to everything relating to the crew. Consequently, that the owners are responsible for the master's failure to give a seaman proper care and cure in the event of sickness, or for his maltreatment of a sailor while sick.

Harry Winn, the little 14-year-old stow-away aboard the Crown of Scotland, which is now lying at the bonded warehouse dock, is a remarkably bright and willing lad. He tells an interesting story of his adventures, and that he is thoroughly believed by everybody. His father, who is a Liverpool dock laborer, had a long talk with him about the advisability of starting out for himself, and instructed him how to stow himself aboard a vessel. He was discovered by the crew several days after he had been aboard. He was discovered about twenty-four hours after the Crown of Scotland left port, and soon became a favorite with all hands from his fatherly and kind treatment. He is the only one of his kind in the world, and the novelty of his surroundings made things seem very pleasant to him, while the captain, when, while at Liverpool, he learned a trade from one of the older sailors, kept him out of mischief. He has announced his intention of sending the first dollar he earns, above his board, home to his parents, whose act in enjoining him away to a foreign country was undoubtedly the kindest thing they could have done for their son and heir.
