

Have you seen the night lamps in our show windows? And more a coming, but we'll not talk of them. Look at these on hand, do. We haven't got so very many. What does that matter to you? You want but one. But do you? If you do, others do, and there are only so many. The prices on them are moving ones.

AROUND TOWN.

Try our fine blotter machines, Foard & Stokes. P. B. Brown, of Portland, is at the Occident. Jerome Dillon, of Seaside, was in town yesterday. P. J. Carney is spending a day or two at Seaside. How do you like the rain? Oregon has come home. Jas. Tomson, of La Grande, is a guest of the Parkers. R. A. Hawkins and wife, of Ilwaco, were in the city yesterday. A. Maxim, of Warrenton, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Wm. P. French, of New York, is registered at the Occident. F. C. Kelly and wife, of Portland, are registered at the Parkers. Miss Gertrude Rockwell, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. C. S. Wright. The Salvation Army don't stop, it's work on account of the weather. A. G. Long, the fire apparatus man of Portland, was in the city yesterday. W. A. Radbone and wife, of Ilwaco, were among Astoria's visitors yesterday. Sole agents of the Cougher's Maple Syrup, Foard & Stokes Co. Pate De Potes Gran, Anderson, in coll. Bloater Paste. Foard & Stokes Co. W. C. T. U. meets today at Reuene hall at 2 o'clock. Everybody welcome. The Ladies' Sewing Society of Grace church held a meeting yesterday afternoon. County Clerk Dunbar yesterday issued a marriage license to Jno. Lund and Anne Christofferson. The ladies were out in the storm yesterday, and do not seem to be afraid of Oregon weather. Wanted—a good girl for general housework by Mrs. J. T. Lighter, corner of 10th and Franklin avenues. Pearl comb, with silver teeth, the latest, the pearls being set in cut silver, producing a shimmering effect. F. M. Cox and E. A. Palmer, U. S. A., passed through Astoria yesterday on the regular trip to Port Canby. County Treasurer Ward yesterday advised Judge Gray that he would make another call for county warrants December 1st. Mr. H. C. Campbell of the Pacific Bridge Co., returned to Portland, last night to see if he could find any better weather. The abandonment of a waist may be increased by placing a ribbon bow at either end of the front and the long loops make the appearance taller. Thos. Williams, the well known representative of the cigar department of Messrs. Eberman & Co., of Portland, is visiting his Astoria friends. Mr. Horroth, of the O. R. and N., yesterday sold a ticket for a passenger from Uleaborg, Finland, to Astoria. Another addition to the city's population. The A. F. C. yesterday held for a new kind of punching bag which stands up like a man but comes much lighter than a man. It will be here ready for sale Friday night. Just as the business men were going to dinner last night the street lights went out and all had to climb the hills in the darkness. The lights came on again later in the evening. The bad weather has materially interfered with the work on the Uppertown sewer. Contractor Pasterback says that one or two more good days will see the work completed. Robert and Andrew J. Sherry came in from the Nehalem through the storm yesterday with a large bunch of cattle. The Wherry boys are well known in Astoria, and through their energy and push have made a mark for themselves. About 10 o'clock yesterday morning a great shouting was heard by passers by in the vicinity of the Arcade store. Inquiry brought the noise to have come from Nelson's place, across the street, and the occasion was a wrestling match which caused much amusement. The summer girl, with many Barcelona trunks and 40 dresses, seems to have had her day. The "one dress girl" is the latest. It is an expensive dress, of course, and one removed but in Paris and London, to wear the same gown as often as possible is quite the fashionable fad. In gathering up the outfit and took along the fine of the old Nehalem roll, Cory Bros. have found that many hundreds of dollars' worth have been stolen. It would seem that everybody considered the store places as common poaching ground and helped themselves to harness and tools. Capt. Jack, the post scout, who will appear in Astoria Monday night, belongs to a large number of secret societies, and is evidently a great good rider. He is a member of the G. O. P., Red Men, Elk G. A. R., and Sons of Veterans. In the G. A. R. he is a special aid de camp on the staff of the commander in chief. Miss Grant's school room was so dark yesterday that it is thought it may be necessary to use oil lamps during the winter. This might prove an objection to many pupils with weak eyes, but it is hard to see what else can be done with a poorly lighted room. A business man yesterday afternoon in discussing the matter. These are the days of the lantern fad. Nearly every secret society, college class, cycling club, sporting club, or political organization in fact, almost every large body consisting wholly of and controlled exclusively by men, has a lantern fad. Some buttons are very cheap affairs, while some cost considerably more than their weight in gold. Some have only a few dollars' worth of material, while others are elaborate and intricate design. A great deal of art and labor is bestowed on these small things, and they are gradually replacing the old-fashioned buttons. The great pin and watch chain emblem of the veterans are equally by great far up to within the past few seasons.

At the first annual convention of the Epworth League, held Tuesday in Portland, the Rev. J. W. Bushong delivered a vigorous discourse, "The Era of Lay Activity." He undertook to demonstrate that the people have something to do as well as the preacher. It was a strong discourse, telling on the subject, and delivered with Dr. Bushong's usual force.

Recorder Anderson, in accordance with the order of the court to adopt the new system of indexing and being the work up of re-indexing the old records from 1883, has engaged additional force in his office, and will cause the work as rapidly as possible. It is important to rush it because new work is so rapidly increasing that the ordinary force cannot handle it.

In spite of the stormy weather a most delightful soiree was held last evening at the beautiful home of Mrs. I. Bergman. The ladies of Grace church, Mutual and reformers in the well known lavishly style of the ladies of the Guild, filled the rooms. Mrs. Bergman's spacious rooms were most artistically decorated in flowers, and no pains spared by that lady to give all a pleasant evening.

The steamer Mayflower yesterday brought down from Olney a large load of graders' outfit belonging to Cory Bros., which had been used on the Northern line. Much of the stuff was brought from the Saddle Mountain tunnel by four horse teams, and loaded on to the scow at Young's River. The outfit to the railroad camp above Tongue Point yesterday afternoon.

Until further notice, the steamer Lurline will take the run of the R. R. Thompson on the Astoria-Portland route, leaving Astoria from the O. R. and N. dock at 4:45 a. m., and returning to Portland from Ash street dock at 5 p. m. daily, except Saturday. The Lurline will carry freight and passengers both from Astoria to Portland and vice versa. Tickets issued by the O. R. and N. Co. or Vancouver Transfer Co. are good on boats of either company.

We have accepted the agency of the G. E. Electric Light and Power Co., and will offer these bulbs for a few days only, for $1.00 apiece. This is exactly one-half their regular price. The terms of purchase are as follows: You deposit one dollar with us and receive the best, which you are privileged to wear for three days, at the expiration of which time, if you are not satisfied, we will return the bulb and your money will be refunded. Remember that a trial of this best costs you nothing, as under the above liberal terms we assume all risks. Bates-Crain Drug Co.

The Society Minerva held its regular meeting at the hall in Uppertown last evening. The following program was well rendered: Reading, Krist Knutsen; address, L. O. Bellant; song, Peter Walde; reading, Laura Lovell; recitation, Annie Siverson. The society's paper, "Fremad," was then read by A. T. Burke, and received well merited applause. In the debate, "Should the women propose?" Borja Jensen spoke in the affirmative, and Paul Stangeland in the negative. After a lively discussion the question was decided in the affirmative. Hot bread, biscuits, hot cakes, muffins, crumpets, etc., are made by its use perfectly wholesome.

quately trotted round, stretched her huge form before the fire and, in an instant was smoking heavily, having us all staring into vacancy—emphatically!

Under the pleasant and attractive and kind Captain Crawford's entertainment, last night and of moving a vote of thanks to him. He had an audience in our guild hall of probably one or two hundred and held them without a break for upwards of two hours. Some reminiscences he has embodied in ballads and snatches of poetry not unworthy of Eric Harte, and he reads admirably. He is an earnest abstainer, and some of his experiences as he tells them are likely to be more effective than any platform speeches to which I have ever listened. He is an unusual raconteur, a real poet in his own line, full of art and pathos, with a sense of humor, and a ready and happy wit. I wrote this line to a mutual friend, in case Captain Crawford should ever wish to use it. My language is the simple and unadorned of a man of genius who has made himself what he is under every disadvantage. The Bishop himself is a poet of great ability. The Minister of Grace, published in London, has this to say of him: "The Bishop of Derry's poem, illustrated by Mr. Edwin Ellis, who has fully grasped the inspiration of the verses, will be read with real pleasure. Dr. Alexander is justly regarded as the most eloquent living preacher. He is eagerly awaited in Lombard whenever he preaches, and we only wish that he would not allow such long intervals between his visits."

The severe weather interferes with operations at the Water Works. Contractor Burke was yesterday seen by an Astorian reporter on the premises in answer to questions he stated that the present storm was interfering considerably with the work of construction at the water works.

All are familiar with the vigorous and aggressive manner in which Mr. Burke, and his fellow bondsmen on the paper of the Pacific Express, Friday, November 11, at 5 p. m. A choice collection of photographs from the leading galleries of Philadelphia, Chicago, and other Eastern cities, will be disposed of on Sunday to the highest bidder. This collection comprises some choice things in marine views, and some choice figures and white and gold. Parties wishing to see them before date of sale can do so by calling at 42 Bond street. Nothing adds more to the attractiveness of a house than a few well selected pictures, and this is an opportunity not often accorded to Astoria.

There were eight horses taken up to Cory's camp Tuesday night from the city. The horses were taken up for a few days, and as the party who delivered them had returned to town and no one could tell an account of their arriving at the camp after nightfall whether they were black, white, yellow or bay horses, Mr. Cory had to call in the services of Mr. J. W. Reed, who lives in Uppertown, and who knows the identity of every animal within a radius of ten miles about the John Day country. Mr. Reed took the horses to the city, and they were about to go down the river when they met Mr. Wm. Ross, of Ross, Higgins & Co., who threw some light on the subject. Mr. Ross told them that the boys of Duane street, who notified a horse, without rider or driver, wandering down Commercial street, and that they were the boys of Duane street, who notified a horse, without rider or driver, wandering down Commercial street, and that they were the boys of Duane street, who notified a horse, without rider or driver, wandering down Commercial street.

A movement is on foot amongst the amusement lovers of the city to secure the engagement in this city of the well known opera company, the "Bostonians," justly celebrated for the magnificent productions of English opera.

In an interview with Manager Dege last night that gentleman stated he would be more than glad to do anything in his power to get the company here. "But," he said, "you know luxuries come with a price, and the more the better. The little used in the city, and with a rag here and there to relieve its plainness its effect is very pretty, and it probably costs less than any of the other styles. The Eureka Fuel Economizer has become firmly established. While a few years ago denim came only in two or three shades, it is now used principally for overalls. It is now not only made in many artistic shades of blue, red and yellow, but it is printed in startling all-over patterns which are very effectively outlined in white or some harmonizing shade. A delightful shade of pale blue may be obtained by boiling the ordinary blue denim, laying it over the grass and keeping it wet for several days, then washing and pressing it. This makes a pretty cover for a table cover or dusters of the same material in its shade—Philadelphia Press.

A dog's wuse. (Land and Water). The other day I witnessed an amusing instance of canine sagacity worthy of commendation in a pet. It was staying with friends who had a varied collection of dogs—a Bismarck spaniel and her five puppies, a fox terrier and two dachshunds. The happy family is allowed to spend part of the day in the dining room, provided they conform to certain rules as to boundary lines and an amicable agreement with themselves. The Bismarck was the favorite "soign of vanity" with them all. Zena, the dachshund, sauntered in one morning and proceeded to sniff the dachshund puppy by the slumbering form of her companions. She tried gently to scratch a passage for herself, but was repelled with a growl. Of no human and canine, followed in a few moments the Bismarck was let unscathed, and Zena aid society. For Boys and Girls to be Established in Astoria.

There is some talk among the ladies of the city of starting a Boys and Girls' Aid Society for Astoria. There are several such institutions in the State. The appropriation of the legislature for their support amounts to $2,000. Astoria pays a large share of the tax but gets no direct benefit from it, and if any of her boys or girls were found to be in need of the office of the society they must be sent to Portland to be taken care of.

If only a small society was established here for the care of this class of children, Astoria would get the benefit of the taxes, which she is now paying into the general fund on the same account. The appropriation of the legislature for their support amounts to $2,000. Astoria pays a large share of the tax but gets no direct benefit from it, and if any of her boys or girls were found to be in need of the office of the society they must be sent to Portland to be taken care of.

Why is Dr. Howard the leading dentist? Because he makes a success of crown and bridge work and extracts and fills teeth without pain.

Of rare paintings, water colors, and pastels, at the Astoria Land and Investment Co.'s sale on Friday, November 11, at 5 p. m. A choice collection of photographs from the leading galleries of Philadelphia, Chicago, and other Eastern cities, will be disposed of on Sunday to the highest bidder.

We are positively going out of business and therefore will sell at. On Friday, November 11th, at 10 o'clock a. m., at 622 Commercial street, a lot of old and new bedroom sets, wardrobes, bed-rooms, crockery, glassware, etc., etc. This sale is positively without reserve.

The Astoria Land and Investment Co., owners of the incident Hotel, have some of the most desirable real estate property in the city. Buyers will find it to their advantage to consult with them before making a purchase.

All kinds of fish and poultry on hand, including a selected stock of cigars and tobacco, candies, fruit, etc. Give me a trial. MRS. FEAKES.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the committee on ways and means of the city council of the City of Astoria, Clatsop County, Oregon, until December 15th, 1895, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the sale of Astoria municipal bonds in the sum of $50,000 at six per cent for twenty years.

The following transfers of real estate were filed for record in the county records of the City of Astoria, Clatsop County, Oregon, on the 11th day of November, 1895: C. W. Stone and wife to W. T. Sutherland, T. S. Commercial Lot 2, Block 2, Holliday Park, Seaside, $150. A. R. Murray and Anna B. Murray to Bloch & Holliday, Park $100. M. J. Kimmy and wife et al to Mabel B. Kimmy, Lots 4 and 5, Block 2, New Astoria, $500.

A twister in twirling. Anax, a twister in twirling. For in twirling a twist Three twists make a twist; But if one of the twists Untwists from the twist, The twist untwisting Untwists the twist. That is, what it's twisted with any other twine than FARRISALL'S.

The Eureka Fuel Economizer is a scientific preparation which augments the intensity of coal and wood heat in the proportion of 33 per cent. If the direction printed on each package is carefully observed, the Eureka Fuel Economizer will give an ordinary or middling coal the same value as that of superior quality.

The Eureka Fuel Economizer prevents the soot, the cinders and the formation of a normal heat, and by its means, in an apartment, so many useful articles, such as curtains, paintings, etc., are protected from soot and cinders. The Eureka burns any kind of gas or wood, and is suitable for use in apartments and factories in which it is used are consequently more healthy and comfortable. In less than five minutes, the Eureka can be put in operation, and will last thirty hours without being stirred up and without any addition of fresh coal. Hence an economy of coal, wood and money.

The Eureka Economizer produces a heat more soft and more concentrated; when used to support stoves, radiators, etc., an economy in fuel is to be relied upon. We guarantee that our preparation produces no injurious effect on the health, and does not affect in any way stoves, ranges, grates, etc. Large consumers can obtain the product at a reduced price. It is a "miraculous" at such more reduced prices. Each package bears, with very explicit directions, our trade mark, representing four hands crossed together above a lion with this motto: "In union there is strength." Any counterfeiter shall be dealt according to law.

We receive too frequently applications for samples, and it is with regret that we are compelled to refuse the sending of "miraculous" at such more reduced prices. Each package bears, with very explicit directions, our trade mark, representing four hands crossed together above a lion with this motto: "In union there is strength." Any counterfeiter shall be dealt according to law.

A DOG'S WUSE.

The other day I witnessed an amusing instance of canine sagacity worthy of commendation in a pet. It was staying with friends who had a varied collection of dogs—a Bismarck spaniel and her five puppies, a fox terrier and two dachshunds. The happy family is allowed to spend part of the day in the dining room, provided they conform to certain rules as to boundary lines and an amicable agreement with themselves. The Bismarck was the favorite "soign of vanity" with them all. Zena, the dachshund, sauntered in one morning and proceeded to sniff the dachshund puppy by the slumbering form of her companions. She tried gently to scratch a passage for herself, but was repelled with a growl. Of no human and canine, followed in a few moments the Bismarck was let unscathed, and Zena
