PRESS

TELEGRAPHIC

Three Important Things!

Is the Fit, Quality and Style in Men's or Boy's CORPORAL PUNISHMENT Astoria Boys Devise a Method of Solder- STRUGGLING Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats. Caps, Boots, Shoes, and all kinds of wearing apparel for the male sex. These three essentials I guarantee, as well as the lowest prices.

I. L. OSGOOD,

The One Price Clothier, Hatter and Furnisher. 506 and 508 COMMERCIAL STREET, ASTORIA, OR.

ASTORIA PUBLIC LIBRARY! They Lack Life

READING ROOM FREE TO ALL.

Open every day from 3 o'clock to 5:30 and 6:30 to 9:30 p. m. Subscription rates $3 per annum

There are twines sold to fishermen on the Columbia river that stand in Twine as a wooden image does to the more School Books! School Supplies!

At Greatly Reduced Prices.

-A FULL LINE OF-

Oregon Books Pencils

Pens

Slates Tablets

Erasers

Sponges Everything Necessary for School Use.

Griffin & Reed.

THREE LOTS.

In a desirable location, 2 blocks from High School, A BARGAIN.

CHOICE LOTS IN HILLS FIRST ADDITION. On the new Pipe Line Boulevard - Just the place for a cheap home.

A Block IN ALDERBROOK

STREET CAR LINE will be extended this summer to within 5 minutes walk of this property-Will sell at decided bargam.

ACREAGE.

In 5 or 10 acre tracts inside the city limits, also adjoining Flavel. GEORGE HILL. 471 Bond St., Occident Block, HILL'S REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE

AUCTION SALE

DRY GOODS

Friday Afternoon, Nov. 22, at 2 p. m.

SPECIAL + SALE + FOR + LADIES.

Any and all lines of Dry Goods will be sold, including DRESS GOODS, SILKS, LACES AND EMBROIDERIES, MACKINTOSCHES, CLOAKS AND JACKETS, RIBBONS, SKIRTS, SHAWLS, etc., etc.

OREGON TRADING CO.

600 Commercial Street.

EVERY ONE NEEDS A BUSINES S EDUCATION. Many nen can spend but one or two years at school-why not take a course that usa eted in that time? The college includes a short ENGLISH COURSE be-614 YAMHILL St. - - HOLMES BUSINESS COLLEGE, - - PORTLAND, OR.

Rogers' Silverware given away free to every customer. Just the thing for holiday presents. SHANAHAN BROS.

EXCLUSIVE

Expressions of the Junto Club on the Subject.

dience at Home by Parents as of Old.

there were only three members present— the others having gone to an evening party. The three present were a lawyer, professor and real estate agent—not nec-essarily mentioned in the order of their

Adams, of Portland, was arrested for over-punishing a 3-year-old boy, and Prof. Briggs, of Stayton, has just been human being—they lack strength—life would justify—amounting to almost cru-elty in the former case—and yet both de-fendants were acquitted. Of course, fool yourself into the belief that other that is good for school teachers and will twines besides Marshall's will do "just contribute to the good management of the public schools, but I suppose the law would be too rigid to take such things into consideration. It would have been not only would it have made ill-disposed pupils bolder, but would have made teachers so careful that they would lose a small boy unmercifully. Why doesn't he take some one of his size. It is just a cowardly advantage a teacher takes, on account of his size and position. He whire the boy just because he can."

'Nonsense! Do you suppose a teacher takes pleasure in whipping a boy? He whips him because he has done wrong and make the best to do not be and not because he has done wrong

"But you might use moral suasion."

"You never taught school. I observe.

You can't find a successful teacher who gine Company No. 2.

opposes corporal punishment, and I doubt whether you can find a parent be summed up in a few words. If there is a cause of punishment the law will be just as absurd as to lay a judge of the control of the highest order, and there was not a moment while he was much the pentientiary longer than his offense merited. In efficer case you would defeat the intention of the law. Cases involving corporal punishment have been decided in the supreme courts of nearly all of the states, and there are only a very few instances in which the reacher was defeated. In those cases the evit dence went to show that there should have been no punishment at all."

"If any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him with a shotgun, if not by law,"

I'll any teacher ever whips my boy I'll to him the call of the bar and attention of his bar was defeated.

or expable person will accept such a po-sition, for setsool teaching is disagreeable enough as it is. I got that idea in read-ing Cooley's admirable treatise on Torts several years ago. He was writing of unexceptionable, and far better than anyseveral years ago. He was writing of the liability of a judge, but his remarks apply well here."

The Professor-"I what every parent could teach school for just one day at

The Real Estate Agent-"I wish every tearfier could sell city love all his life." The Lawyer-"I'm satisfied."

All patriotic citizens will be glad to learn that in their midst are some people of ideas. The new style of oval salmon cans, in which are packed the higher grade goods, have been difficult and expensive to solder, as the old machines can only bandle round cans. It remained for Messes, Jos. L. Ashley and W. E. McDerunott to invent a solder-ing machine which will effectively do the ing machine which will effectively do the work on any shaped can that is not square. The invention has been named the universal soldering machine, and was yesterday placed on exhibition in the shop on 15th street at the rear of August Danielson's place. Nearly all of the cannerymen of the city inspected the working of the machine and pronounced it a success. It is somewhat similar in appearance to the present machine, except that there are carriera or cust from fingers, fastened to the endless chain, which take hold of the can and push it along through the solder pot. Of these carriers there are thirty-five on each chain.

A company has been formed to handle

A company has been formed to handle the machine and place it on the market, composed of Messrs. S. Maddock, J. L. Ashley and W. E. McDermott. It is the intention to place it on sale in the near BANK PRESIDENT IN TROUBLE. Charged With Embezzling $6,500 of Columbia National's Funds.

Tacoma, Nov. 22.—Henry Oliver, president of the lately closed Columbia National Bank, was arrested today charged with embezzling 18500 of the bank's funds. He is also charged with having paid George Boggs, the ex-treasurer, $500 to deposit city money with bis bank.

FIRE IN CHICAGO

Another Great Loss in the Windy City.

Deaths Occur and Many People are Injured-Property Loss $375,000.

and must be taught to do right, and not because he is small. Usually the whole trouble lies in the home training. If a boy is taught to obey his parents and others in sufficiently he will see the corner of VanBuren and others in sufficiently he will see a like the corner of VanBuren and others in sufficiently he will see the corner of VanBuren and others in sufficiently he will see the corner of VanBuren and others in sufficiently he will see the corner of VanBuren and others in sufficiently he will see the corner of VanBuren and others in sufficiently he will see the corner of VanBuren and others in the corner of VanBuren and other and others in authority he will give no Franklin streets, burned today entailing trouble. If a boy can't be taught ob- a loss of $375,000 and causing the loss of dience in any other way he must be five lives, the fatal injury of two others, and the injury of six other people. The and the injury of six other people. The

Patrick J. O'Connell, fleutenant of En-Martin Sherrick.

John Downs, pipeman. John Prendergast, pipeman. willdren who has not resorted to the ase of the rod."

"Well, let that go, but how about the sw of the matter?"

"The haw," said the leval member, "can be summed up in a few words. It is a sound that it is a summed up in a few words. It is a sound that is a summed up in a few words. It is a summed to the county has in the county has i

A SPLENDID PERFORMANCE.

introduce the first purpose to witness the presentation by the sense to witness the presentation by the sense that the presentation is a more company of a touch of the sense that the presentation is a more continuous in the company of the sense that the presentation is a company of the sense that the presentation is a first proposal to the control of the sense to the sense that the proposal is accounted the surrender of the sense that the proposal is accounted to the sense that the proposal is account desided in the supreme courts of nearly tail of the states, and there are only a very few instances in which the reacher was defeated. In these cames the evidence went to show that there should have been no punishment at all."

"If any teacher ever whose my boy I'll fix him with a shotgun, if not by law," each the agent.

"There, that is just the trouble; parents talk that way before their chi'dron, and that leads them to do many things they, would not otherwise. Now, when I was a boy my father gave me to understand that if I received punishment in the whole performance, and that if I received punishment in the same and again last night he was whipped at sethool," add the lawyer.

"But it seems to me that in these days of enlightenment and progress doesn't it seem that these days of enlightenment and progress doesn't it seem that many of the progress doesn't it seem that many progress' doesn't it seem that many progress' doesn't it seem that there days of enlighten without the unit of the progress doesn't it seem that many progress doesn't it seem that many progress' doesn't it seem that the characters of the united by the progress of the progress of thing of the kind that has been h ard

It's in town. It's the best; Won't burn nor roughen the skin; Won't "yellow your clothes." You will be agreeably surprised, Sorry you didn't know it soon Tomson's Soap Foam, large pa

REPORT.

Greet Eugene V. Debs on His Release From Prison.

SPEECH AGAINST CORPORATIONS

Says He Was Incarcerated Through Violation of the Constitution and Abrogation of Law.

Chicago, Nov. 22 - Eugene V. Debs spoke in Central Music Hall tonight to an audience that taxed the scatting capacity of the half. Most of the leading organizaway Union was enthusiastic in the ex-treme. Eight carloads of Debs' friends went down to Woodstock to greet him on his release from fall and several thousand men were at the station of the Northwestern road when the train bear-ing Debs and his friends arrived. The reception given Debs as he stepped from the train bordered on fruntle. Hun-dreds of men pushed and struggled to get a grasp of his thand. Many of them huge-a grasp of his hand. Many of them hugged him and some went to the length of klasing him. Finally he was to the dupon the shoulders of four men and follow d by a dense throng which never for an instant stopped its cheers, he was escorted to the hall about one mile distant.

The warmth of the reception at the depot was repeated when he entered the hall with the exception that the crowd was unable to get close to him and contented themselves with cheering and waving their hats. The speech delivered by Debs was received with great applause. Debs said in part:

Debs said in part:
"Manifestly the spirit of '76 still survives. The fires of liberty and noble ampirations are not yet extinguished. I greet you tonight as lovers of liberty and despisers of despotism. Speaking for ceasion for rejoicing or lamentation. I confess to serious doubt as to whether this day marks my deliverance from bonds to freedom, or deliverance from bonds to freedom, or from freedom to bondage, and certain it is in the light of recent judicial proceed-ings, their I stand in your presence stripp-ed of my constitutional right as a free min and shorn of the most sacred pre-rogatives of American citizenship, and what is true of myself is true of every other citizen who has thetemerity to profest against corporation rule or nuesprotest aganist corporation rule or ques-tion the absolute sway of the money power. It is not the law or admin's rathon of the law of which I compain. It is the flagrant violation of the constitu-tion, total abrogation of the law and the usurpation of the judicial and despote power by virtue of which my colleagues and myself were committed to jail, against which I enter my solemn protest and any honest analysis of the proceedings must sustain the truth of the indict-

A CONGRESSMAN'S BILL.

Wants $27,000,000 for Confederate Soldiers.

penitentiary, and severely, too."

The great trouble with teachers is that they whip—not too hard, but too often."

There is another consideration, and battery, and battery, and battery, and battery, and battery. The per whip—not too hard, but too often."

There is another consideration, and battery, very the lawyer. "If teachers are made liable to a fine for assault and battery, very soon you will find that no responsible or capable person will accept such a possible enough as it is a finished and tal-tal-treasurer of the United States, in his annual report on the operations and condition of the treasury, cays the net ordinary revenues for the government for head visited Rutz at his house and were fiscal year ending June 30 were $13.

Washington, Nov. 22.—D. N. Morgan, treasurer of the United States, in his annual report on the operations and condition of the treasury, cays the net ordinary revenues for the government for head visited Rutz at his house and were fiscal year ending June 30 were $13.

They should be greated with a house fiscal year ending June 30 were $13.

They should be greated with a house fiscal year ending June 30 were $13.

They should be greated with a house fiscal year ending June 30 were $13.

They should be greated with a house fiscal year ending June 30 were $13.

They should be greated with a house fiscal year ending June 30 were $13.

They should be greated with a house fiscal year ending June 30 were $13.

They should be greated with a house for which the condition of the treasurer of the United States, in his annual report on the operations and condition of the treasurer, easy the net ordinary revenues for the government for head visited Rutz at his house for which he year before. The net ordinary revenues for the government for head visited Rutz at his house for which he greated with the year before. The net ordinary revenues for the government for head visited Rutz at his house for which he greated with the year before.

They should be greated with a house of kin, 68,05 as combin

New York, Nov. 23.-Bradstreet's review New York, Nov. 22.—Bradstreet's review of this stock musket will sky tomorrow:

The gold shipments and foreign political and financial complications have kept up the bearish tone in the speculative stock reariset this week. Withdrawals of specie from the treasury for export to Europe have amounted to $7,20,000 during the week and set treasury gold reserve is reduced to about $55,000,000.

The strength of the exchange market in-

SENATOR SQUIRE.

Scattle, Nov. 22.—Senator Squire being interviewed this evening in reference to remarks attributed to him in a dispatch from Tacoma concerning the improvement of the Columbia river, said:

"Such erroneous statements should be promptly corrected. I never made any such statements concerning the Columbia river, either in a speech in Tacoma of anywhere else. I have always advocated improvements on the Columbia commencing with my report as governor in 1855. I have invariably spoken and voted in the senate in behalf of all the Columbia river appropriations. I propose in the future as in the past to unite my efforts with those of the Oregon delegation in earnestly advocating the completion of earnestly advocating the completion of the improvements on the Columbia river.

St. Louis, Nov. 22.—Hon. Sterling P. Moston, secretary of agriculture, spent today in St. Louis. In the course of an interview, Secretary Morton said:

"Why should President Cleveland be opposed to a third term any more than a bank president? This is not stating that the president is a candidate for a third term, for as to that, no one knows but himself. The talk of a third term has been confined only to the newspapers, and them is no one can say that he has ever theme is no one can say that he has ever-heard Mr. Cleveland give an expression on the subject. I aim not in a posit on to situte whether Mr. Cleveland will be a candidate or not.

Democrats of the U.S. Senate Hold Secret Meeting.

Will Not Take Action Until the Re publicans and Populists Show Their Hands.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The fact has transpired that the Democratic steering day hast. The members present are very reticent as to what occurred, but it is known that a thorough carvass was made of the sibulation with a view to de-ciding upon a line of policy in the next ciding upon a line of policy in the next section.

The question of organization of the senate was discussed at length. The committee did not reach a definite conclusion on this matter but when it adjourned there was a general understanding that unless future events should make a change desirable, the committee would recommend to the Democratic in the senate to make no move whatever until the Republicans and Populists shall develop their plans. It appeared from the discussion that the Democratic senators are divided as to the postey to be pursued, some advocating an active effort to maintain Democratic control of the senators while others altyocated the surrander to the Republicans without a struggle.

The steering committee finally concluded it would be wisse to wait until it was a structure to the surrander to the Republicans without a struggle.

The steering committee finally concluded it would be wisse to wait until it was a structure to the surrander to the results of the structure home.

It is not pleasant to see even a millional control to wait until it was a structure to the surrander to the steering committee finally concluded to wisse to wait until it was a structure to the surrander to the steering committee finally concluded to wisse to wait until it was a structure to the surrander to the steering committee structure home.

Nothing further was received over the wires last night in regard to the Bando-rille wreck, bu it is supposed that the connection was broken with the station nearest the point of the wreck.

SYMES MUST HANG.

Photaville, Nov. 22.—The jury in the Symma trial for the murder of Deputy Eneriff Coulee brought in a verdet at midnight of murder in the first degree. Coursel for the defense filed exceptions ne verdict. The prisoner took the ot quietly, making absolutely no nativation, but his face was deathly

RATZ WILL BE HELD.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Police Judge Campbell today held Thrap Ratz for trial beforethe superior court in bonds of $30,-000. Ratz is charged with the same orimes as those for which old Peter Lane has teen held for trial.

Julia Christianicon, is 14-respect, std.

The Little Yacht Will Leave for Home Today.

YESTERDAY'S TRIAL A SUCCESS

In a Thirty Mile Run the Gasoline Engines Worked Steadily and Without a Hitch of Any Kind.

then came up along the inside channel thome to the O. R. and N. dock. The course covered was fully thirty miles, and during the whole trip the engines worked without a hitch, showing to the satisfaction of the experts and everybody else aboard that the boat was in proper cumping order.

ing order. Only three of the four cylinders avail-able were brought into use. With all her present running order can easily cover from thirteen to fourteen knots. The only unfavorable comment that can possibly be made about her is that the is ridiculously cramped inside and her living quarters are far too small for competitions the competitions of the competition of the competition feature, which is more conspicuous south, where a decline in the price of cotion and consequent check to shipments are held to be partly responsible. But the demand for staples increased on the appearance of sensonably cold weather, the results being larger orders for wholens, shoes, rubbers, and toliday specialties. The business failures show ano her marked increase, numbering 35 throughout the United States as against 37 last week, and 25 in the wank of a year ago, and 35 in the third week of November, 1893. In the corresponding week of 1895 the total was only 185. The bulk of the increase is in the middle and western states.

DUN'S WEEKLY REPORT.

New York, Nov. 22.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade which issues tenforrow, will say: Reaction in business, there is none. Ef-Reaction in business, there is none. Sif-forts to explain it or attribute it to this or that influence are all was'el. In every business men now perceive the fact that purchases in allocate of current dis-tribution which were made when prices were booming, involves of necessity a season of haking when rises stopped, and until an actual demand for communion has been measured. Products are lower

Highest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U.S. Gov't Report

