With the completion of the Nicaragua canal the United States will be from twelve to fifteen hundred miles nearer to the northern ports of China, Korea and Japan than Great Britain. An average of 5,700 miles nearer the western port of South America, 1,500 miles nearer Melbourne, and over 1,200 miles nearer New Zealand. In the new trade of which it will be the channel, New Orleans and the Gulf ports will have an advantage over New York in point of distance of about 3,000 miles.

The information telegraphed from Portland yesterday that the O. R. and N. Co. had signed a ten years' contract, continuing their present line of Oriental steamers, will be good news to all Oregonians, and especially to Astorians. It is well known that James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railway, is behind the O. R. and N. in this line of steamers, and that the bulk of the Oriental freight brought over by these steamers goes east via the O. R. and N. and Great Northern route.

The people who say that the world is coming to an end before January 1 have selected a suspicious date. It looks as if they were trying to sneak out of buying Christmas presents. The president doesn't seem to care who makes the laws of the people, so long as he can shoot the ducks. Let nobody imagine that ex-President Harrison is going to do any unnecessary merrilying just now.

Modern genius has provided against every discomfort of climate and weather. From the most casual of flees it would appear that no one with a few dollars to spend on luxury has any excuse for a shiver or a teeth chatter in these procreative days. What would you think of the proposition to line your clothes with steam pipes and carry a boiler around in your pocket? An ingenious Yankee has recently procured a patent for such a system.

Electric removal of snow. When one goes carriage driving or sleigh riding with his wife he still baffles the elements. His equipages are furnished with electric coils are now made for motor, which heat open air stoves or gas stoves in street cars, ferry boats, railroad trains and other public conveyances. These are simply connected with the ordinary electric light wires, and the expense of the electric fan in summer may thus be spent for keeping warm in winter.

Electric light wire. By using a switch at the side of this couch one may at any time regulate the temperature of his mattress and pillows. Lost a cold draught should penetrate under his covers during the night, he takes to bed with him an electric hot water bag. A wire enters at the neck and connects with a metal comb within which, when electrified, becomes hot, and imparts its heat to the water.

A GOOD REASON. (Texas Shiffling). "What makes you look so solemn?" inquired a fashionable Austin lady of another in good luck, just before the sardines began. "I've got good reasons to be mad," was the response. "What is it?" "I dressed myself up in this new suit I ordered from New York, and went to church to show it off."

The Lord is in His Holy Temple, let all the earth keep silence before Him. "The opening remark of the preacher, and the rest of the conversation was lost to the reporter."

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others. DECIDEDLY COOL. (Portland, Me., Press). A cool and collected person is Thomas Bragg, of the steamer Emira, who lost his balance and fell into the water while handling a cake of ice the other day.

THE DISCOVERY SAVED HIS LIFE. Mr. G. Calloway, druggist, Beaver-ville, Mo., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians in Astoria and each one will be interested in working for and maintaining the supremacy of this traffic with the Orient.

TOMMY SUGGESTS A REMEDY. "I can say of my neighbor Harlan," said Mr. Tucker, "that he gives away a great deal in charity, and his left hand never knows what his right hand is doing."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. John D. Rockefeller has given 100 barrels of apples to the various charity institutions of New York. The fruit was all raised on his own farm at Tarrytown.

PROVEN A BOON. Gentlemen—I have always recommended Krause's Headache Capsules wherever I have had a chance. They have proven a veritable boon in my cloth-covered head and shoulders.

How to use Cololene. The new shortening, like all other things must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never, in any recipe, use more than two-thirds as much Cololene as you used to use of lard.
