

TODAY'S WEATHER.

Forecast for Washington and Oregon.
rain, slightly cooler; gales in coast.

The Astorian

EXCLUSIVE TELEGRAPHIC PRESS REPORT.

VOL. XLV.

ASTORIA, OREGON, THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 9, 1896.

NO. 7.

Well Pleased With the War

lises, Umbrellas, Etc.

Men's Imported Clay
Worsted Wool Suits,
now at $9.50. Men's Cheviot and California Cassimere Suits, at $7.50.
Men's Wool Suits and Wool Mackintosh Coats,
at $5.00.

The cheapest place and best value in the city for Men's Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Trunks, Va-

I. L. OSGOOD,

The One Price Clothier, Hatter and Furnisher.

506 and 508 COMMERCIAL STREET, ASTORIA, OR.

Souvenir of Astoria!

Have you seen it? A beautiful and artistic booklet, containing twenty pages and about fifty views of Astoria and vicinity. Price, 50 cents.

Diaries for 1896.

New Year Cards.

Would you like a nice set of books by standard authors?
We will sell them to you from now until January 1st at 25 per cent discount.

Griffin & Reed.

THREE LOTS.

In a desirable location, 2 blocks from High School.
A BARGAIN.

CHOICE LOTS IN HILLS FIRST ADDITION.

On the new Pipe Line Boulevard—Just the place for a cheap home.

A Block IN ALDERBROOK.

STREET CAR LINE will be extended this summer to within 5 minutes walk of this property—Will sell at decided bargain.

ACREAGE.

In 5 or 10 acre tracts inside the city limits, also adjoining Flavel.

GEORGE HILL, 471 Bond St., Occident Block, HILL'S REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

Big Dry Goods
and Clothing Sale!

Commencing January 1, 1896, and for 30 days only.

Great Reductions in All Lines!
Prices Smashed to Atoms!

All wool ladies' cloth 52 inches wide	formerly $1.00	now 50c	yard
All-wool scarlet flannel	25c	10 2-3c	"
Ladies' fleeced lined gloves	50c	20c	pair
Ladies' wool hose	25c	10 2-3c	"
Ladies' wool hose	15c	10c	"
Ladies' wool socks	40c	25c	"
Men's natural wool underwear	25c	10c	"
Men's ribbed underwear	$1.00	40c	each Men's Jersey undershirts	85c	45c	"
Men's Jersey undershirts, extra heavy	$1.00	50c	" Men's fine Fedora hats	formerly $1.25 to $3.00	$1.45	"

$1.25 - - Men's Shoes - - $1.25

Space forbids the mentioning of only a few articles.
But every piece of goods in our large and well-assorted stock has been reduced in price from 25 to 40 per cent during this sale. Do not forget to make your purchases now.

—AT THE—

OREGON TRADING CO.,

600-Commercial Street.

NICARAGUAN CANAL

The President Will Soon Make a Message on the Subject.

MUST BE THE UNITED STATES

No Other Government or Private Interest Can Further the Scheme, Says an English Engineer.

Washington, Jan. 8.—President Cleveland is expected to transmit to congress soon a special message on the Nicaraguan canal project, with the report of the commission which examined the route.

The leading consideration which the chief executive has given to this matter is regarded as an indication by many that he is carefully weighing the conclusions made by the Ludlow commission in its report, which were announced several weeks ago.

In his special message the president, it is thought, may touch upon the question whether or not it would be wise for the government to take hold of the project.
In any event, those in the city who are interested in the commission's report believe that he will make some suggestions over information which has reached Washington from Nicaragua to the effect that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is considering the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal Company, of the United States, and turning the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

The officials are somewhat disturbed
over information which has reached
Washington from Nicaragua to the effect
that a Mr. Morgan, an Englishman who
has control of the railways of Nicaragua,
is attempting to secure control of the
canal project.

It is also stated on good authority that
the Nicaraguan government is consider-
ing the advisability of revoking the charter granted to the Nicaraguan Canal
Company, of the United States, and turn-
ing the enterprise over to the English
engineer, who is now in Nicaragua.

ators. The Universal Can Roldering Machine Company, of Astoria, with a capital of $20,000, organized over a year ago, signed by W. E. McDermott, James T.
Ashby and B. H. Maddock.

The executive office has been fairly overrun during the holidays, says the Statesman, by odd applications addressed to the governor, asking his aid, counsel, suggestion, or help. In a hundred and one different ways and for as many good and charitable ends, to all of which he has invariably responded in a complacent and friendly way, but the siege took on a new phase yesterday, when a letter reached him from a Des Moines amusement bureau, beseeching the governor to buy, dress and forward a "doll," which would form one of a phalanx of other dolls dressed by Governors Morton, McKintley and others, but at this species of new phase yesterday, the governor very palpably lino, and he declined pointedly.

Saturday's Packer City Democrat gives the following account of the wholesale killing that occurred at Pine Valley, in Union county, forty miles east of Baker.
On New Year's morning: An unmarried man, Porter, by name, who is a characteristic of the place, was shot by a man named Justice Compton, of Pine Valley, and stated that he had been the agent in killing old man Mache, his wife and their son, the latter of whom had but recently returned from the penitentiary, where he had served a term for cattle stealing. It appears that Porter had expected some time between the Maches and Porter, and on this particular occasion the Maches were driving through the place. Porter had forbidden them to do this, claiming that the range stock by leaving down the bars.
Upon his remonstrating with young Mache, the latter drew his revolver and fired three shots at Porter. Porter, who was armed with a Winchester rifle, at once opened fire and killed father, mother and son, also the horse, young Mache was riding. After the killing Porter surrendered to the authorities. Just a week previous to the tragedy Porter's life was in jeopardy. The Maches were in the place, and the latter was in the place.
From their neighbors it is learned that the Maches bore an unsavory reputation, and very little sorrow is expressed over the awful event. The sympathy of the community seems to be with Porter.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republican anti-silver men are now making efforts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

THE MONEY QUESTION

Anti-Silver Democrats and Free Silver Republicans' Caucus.

EACH FACTION MAKES PLANS

Senator Mitchell the First to Respond to the Question of What Will Be Done With Silver.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The anti-silver Democrats of the senate held a meeting for conference today, while the Republican senators were in caucus. The object of the conference was to count how many men could be mustered against the free coinage amendment of the senate finance committee to the bond bill.
It was found that there are fourteen votes on the Democratic side, against the silver proposition, and the Democrats are assured there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are
assured that there were twenty-six
Republicans who could be counted
against Jones' amendment. This would
make a majority of the vote. Both Democratic and Republi-
can anti-silver men are now making ef-
forts to see if these four votes can be
obtained.

Among the Republicans who are not
counted in the silver list, and upon whom
an effort may be made, are Senators
McBride, of Oregon, and Wilson, of
Washington. On the Democratic side
are Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia. It is not
known with what hope the anti-silver
men are working, but they say the vote
will be very close. The Democrats are