THE CUBAN JUNTA

Reports That the United States Has Made Proposals to Spain.

TO DECLARE CUBA FREE

Cubans Say That the Promises of the Revolutionists Are to Be Guaranteed by the Administration.

New York, Jan. 27.—The Herald says information of a very startling character has reached the Cuban sympathizers in this city who are in closest touch with the revolutionists. A communication, which accompanied the note, and which contained a proposition upon the Cuban question...

APPEAL FROM TRANSVAAL

Washington, Jan. 27.—Secretary Olney has received by cable an appeal from American residents at Johannesburg, praying that a diplomatic mission be sent to the Transvaal to look after their interests.

A STORMY PASSAGE

San Francisco, Jan. 27.—The Pacific Coast Steamship Co.'s steamer Umattila arrived from Victoria and Puget Sound ports this afternoon, nearly thirty hours late.

THREATS CONDITION.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The sub-treasury at New York today received a deposit of $100,000 in gold in exchange for currency, and $122,000 by wire transfer.

GOOD FOR THE HOUSE

Upholds the Senate Resolution as Regards the Armenian Atrocities.

Mr. Hepburn Wanted to Sever Diplomatic Relations With the Arch Fiend's Government—Wiser Counsel Prevailed.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The house today, after an interesting four-hour debate, adopted the resolution passed by the senate last week, calling the powers ignominious to the treaty of Berlin to enforce the reforms in Turkey guaranteed to Christian Armenians, and pledging the support of congress to the president in the most vigorous action he might take for the protection and security of American citizens in Turkey.

MURDERER STILL AT LARGE

Rosburg, Or., Jan. 27.—News comes tonight from Myrtle Point that the murderer, Sam Brown, has again eluded his pursuers. Friday night he stayed at a ranch near Gravel Ford, twenty-five miles east of Myrtle Point. Much exhausted, he left there early Saturday morning. Sheriff Gray, who was a short distance behind, tracked him to the junction of the east and north forks of the Coquille river, and found where he had pulled a five-foot log into the river and evidently embarked. A log, supposed to be the same, was found lodged a short distance below, but no trace of his having gotten ashore, and it is believed he has been drowned.

FOR COAST DEFENSES.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, offered an amendment to the pending bond silver bill, providing for the issue of $100,000,000 for coast defense purposes. The issue to be 5-per-cent 20-year bonds. Lodge said the amendment had no bearing upon the main financial issue involved, but was merely a practical plan to build necessary coast defenses.

ANOTHER EVENT ADD'D.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 27.—Dan Stuart added another event to his list of carnivals today by offering a purse of $1000 for the Smith-Burns fight. Billy Smith is the protégé of Jimmie Carroll, and Peter Burns is Peter Maher's trainer. All of the fights will be held off in the day time. General admission to all of the fights will cost $30.

TEN PER CENT DIVIDEND.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a dividend of ten per cent in favor of the Insular Oregon National Bank of Portland, Or.

JEM SMITH DEFEATED.

London, Jan. 27.—Dan Creedon, middleweight, tonight defeated Jim Smith, heavy weight. In two rounds, Creedon weighed 182 pounds, and Smith 184. Creedon showed himself the more clever of the two, besides having a longer reach. Creedon had the best of the first round. In the second round there were a number of smart exchanges, and finally Creedon swung his right with great force on the neck. Smith fell like a log and failed to rise, the round lasting only one minute and twenty seconds.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.

On February 18 the event of the season will take place, the performance of "The Fairies' Escapade." The vim and enthusiasm with which the juvenile actors have taken hold of their roles augurs a most successful season, and every one is eagerly looking forward to the evening. The play, though simple enough for the young folks to do it full justice, is very pretty. The following is a synopsis:

Act I (Introductory)—The fairies at home; the intruders; the trial.

Act II—The casting of the spell; flight of Star Eyes; Beowulf's plan of rescue; grand fairy dance; the revelries.

Act III—Plan carried into effect; the rescue; Spillertree's wooing; Berrytree's dilemma; the wedding ceremony; grand finale.

The ladies are taking much pains to make the play successful in every way, as it is given for the benefit of the Rescue Club.

"Were there any new features in your exhibition of impressionist painting?"

"Yes; we hung half the pictures upside down, and everyone was delighted with the effects."—Chicago Record.
