SENATOR LODGE'S COAST DEFENSE BONDS

Senator Lodge has offered a coast defense bond bill which will recommend itself to the American people, however it may be viewed by this dilatory, procrastinating and indifferent senate. The bill provides for the issue of bonds to the amount of $10,000,000, payable in twenty years at 5 percent interest.

They are to be offered to the people in denominations ranging from $5 to $10,000, and the subscription for the loan, or such portion of it as may be desired, shall be opened July 1, 1906, and at such subsequent dates as the secretary of the treasury may determine. "At all subscribers of the United States and at all national banks, and the subscribers shall have the right to pay for the bonds in lawful money of the United States."

Senator Lodge's bill, in a word, provides for a great popular loan for a purpose in which the people of the United States are vitally interested. That purpose is thus stated in the body of the bill:

"The bonds authorized by this act shall constitute a loan to be known as the 'coast defense loan,' and the proceeds of said bonds shall be kept in the treasury as a fund apart, and shall be used only for providing for the defense of the seacoasts and lakes of the United States, and for the manufacture of guns, the purchase of sites, and the erection of forts and batteries for that purpose in accordance with plans prepared by the war department as authorized by law now or hereafter passed by congress to provide for coast defenses."

Senator Lodge's bill meets the most urgent necessity which now confronts the government, and it should be passed without any delay. Until such a bill has been passed congress only stultifies itself when it talks of enforcing the Monroe doctrine with arms or of making any demands upon foreign powers when the necessity arises. The government has no fleet to coerce, even a second-rate power. It has no sufficient defense against the vessels of any foreign power. It has not the means of resisting assault from the sea, and there is where the danger lies. On land the country is safe. We could easily take Canada and hold it, but our great stretch of coast on two oceans, the Gulf of Mexico and the Great Lakes is at present insecure, and would invite prompt attack in case of war with England or any other power. Again the Astorian reiterates what this country needs is more battleships, and monitors, and torpedo boats (we have cruisers enough, modern forts with high-power, long-range guns, capable of standing off an enemy's fleet, no matter how powerful. On the entire Atlantic coast, from Eastport, Me., to Key West, there are but two guns that are fit for defensive purposes. We have one monitor that is effective, and two or three battleships. We have two torpedo boats. Thus our coast is practically defenseless and invites assault from an enemy. Senator Lodge's bill would provide the money necessary to strengthen our defenses. It would be a popular loan, and the people would promptly and patriotically furnish the money. Let the bill pass and let the money be spent without unnecessary delay.

THE SENATE AND CUBA.

The Cuban resolutions reported favorably by a majority of the senate committee on foreign relations are a long distance behind American public feeling on the question. That the Spaniards shall deal with their enemies according to the cruelest usage of civilized war is little enough to ask when this country is aflame with friendship for the revolutionists and when only the most rigorous restraint prevents an outbreak against the oppressors that might carry us into serious difficulties.

Perhaps the senate could ask no more; certainly it could ask no less than that the horrors of medieval war be not repeated on a brave people battling for freedom within 90 miles of our coast. We have the right to interfere at least to this extent—a right arising from sympathy and from the commonest principles of humanity. Very few Americans would hesitate to declare that the right is even broader, and that if needs be we should deliberately intervene to end a war which promises now to be drawn out till every drop of patriotic Cuban blood has been spilled.

The city council cannot afford to ignore the two complaints filed at last Saturday's meeting against the Casino barroom and theater. These complaints are not after the style of the usual fanfaroonades on the general moral tone and corrupting tendencies of such places, but they made specific charges of violation of law, which, if substantiated, should deprive the present management of all right to a renewal of the present license, moreover, should be prevented without delay in the proper court of law. It is to be hoped the committee and others who have united in these complaints will not stop with their mere formal presentation to the council, but that they will come forward with the proof required to sustain them, and that they will demand and be afforded by the council an opportunity to tender the proof before the application for a new license is finally acted upon.

The mishap to the Columbia is another illustration of the necessity for a shipyard and dry dock at Astoria. We can never become a port of any magnitude without this important adjunct, and it does not tend to advertise our export advantages in the right way to have such vessels, after meeting with the most ordinary casualties at our very doors, go elsewhere to make their repairs. Even the little Columbia must go to Portland to be tinkered up before she will be fit for duty again, while the expense of towing the Columbia to some port having the facilities to make the kind of repairs the requires will amount to more than the annual interest on the sum of money necessary to erect and maintain a first-class dry dock of the largest kind.

There is a hen in Brooklyn with a face like that of a monkey. Its portrait has appeared in the papers. So far as we are able to judge, it has no political significance, but it may turn out to be an argument either for or against annexation to New York city.

The noticeable tendency to indulge in quips and jokes at the expense of Senator-elect Moore, of Mississippi, is a species of depravity that cannot be too severely condemned.
