BUSINESS LOCALS.

Job printing at all kinds at the Astorian job office.

Use Mayhew's. You take chances on the others.

C. H. Palmer, architect, Room Number 10, Kinnear's building.

Dr. G. E. Sain, dentist, with lady assistant, 215 Fifth street.

The blind tea is the best. Ask your Postman for it and take no other.

For the best of commercial job printing call at the Astorian job office.

Mayhew's the leading tailor, and pays the highest cash price for skins.

Marshall's saloon twins is without a competitor. Strongest, handsomest, best.

Just received, at the Snow Day Wood Yard, 15 cords of oak wood. The finest wood ever brought to Astoria.

Tradesman's Irish Wax Saloon (now, however, to say in the market). Fisher Brothers, agents for the Columbia River.

Parties desiring the best of job printing at the lowest prices should call at the Astorian job office before going elsewhere.

On the 16th street to have their money deposited or recovered. A fine line of safe deposit boxes is offered at a reasonable price.

Business men, if you want to do business with us for the coming year, call at our office for our terms. Business men, citizens, we will find the best of stock and material.

Our own Basmagulis is made of the best material that money can buy. It's a smooth, elastic, elastic, elastic. It wears, it stretches, it goes. Should you want an anatomical, B. F. Freeman makes his office at the Oregon Trading Co.

On to Elmer's Barber's office and see the new and handsome twin racing machine. Take along cans of the twines "as good as Marshall's." In your pocket, and test them. Then see how much more Marshall's will stand. It's money in your pocket and cash in your net to find out.

Marshall's twins—best by 12 cent of the difference on the Columbus river.

A prominent steamboat man says: "My family have nearly every brand of boat, from small boats and yachts, and are satisfied that the preparation made by the State-Craft Drug Co. is the most palatable and nutritious of any they have ever used." If you are run down and need a tonic, you should use it.

Most popular "salmon twins" are covered with scales. The scales rot the fish and render the material useless. In the office of Elmer, Barber & Co. is an old job lesson that shows all details of the process, and all kinds of the material used in the manufacture of Marshall's twins—from start to finish. Go there and examine the scales right through. You will see them in your pocket, and this is called the best in the world.

Boating, boating, Boats are the enemy to roses, wounds and puffs, which it never fails to cure. Stop biting and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold sores in two or three hours. Chas. R. Rogers.

FROM NOW UNTIL SPRING.

Overcoats and winter wraps will be in fashion. They can be discarded, temporarily while traveling to the steam heated rooms of the Columbia, Missoula, St. Paul Railway. For solid comfort, for speed and for safety, no other line can compare with this great railway of the West.

ARTISTIC PHRENOLOGY.

Sir V. Morrell, the well-known French artist who recently decorated the Blumauer-Frank drug store in Portland is in the city, and will remain until the 1st of March. He has engaged him for some work, and he has also been engaged in the new place of Dr. Dinsmore, while it is expected that he will have charge of the artistic work for the new theater in the city, under the leadership of Professor Bohmwe, the well known painter, given nightly. Call around and bring your friends with you.
