Eighty-six Californians bound for the gold fields of the Yukon basin will come north on the steamer City of Puebla, due here next Monday. They have en-gaged passage on the steamer Al-Ki for Juneau. The Al-Ki will leave for Alas-Juneau. The Al-Ki will leave for Ams-ka Sunday and the miners will transfer ka Sunday and the miners will transfer from one steamer to the other at Port Townsend. As far as can be ascertained the Californians do not constitute any particular body of men, but are simply individuals who have decided to seek their fortunes in the placer mines of the vast northern territory. They have joined the rush to the Eldorado of the midnight sun and are said to be the precursers of the wholesale exodus of miners from all parts of the United States to the north. California was once the gold seekers' Meeca, but now they are leaving there and gains to newer they are leaving there and going to newer and greener fields. The News is in re-cept of a letter from a miner, Mr. C. A.
