The British ship Aartie is loading lum-ber in Portaind.

The steamer Alice Blanchard arrived yesterday afternoon from San Prancisco and way ports. She had considerable freight aboard. Later in the sternoon she left up river.

The ateamship Queen arrived yesterday afternoon from Ban Francisco. She had quite a large freight list and about 100 pasengers. The river lookes lively as the big steamer was making her wharf, the Alice litanehard being close behind and the Potter and Telephone arriving down from Partland. After discharging freight for Astoria merchants the Queen left up.

The promised rate war between the Pa-effic Coast Steamsbip Company steamers and the steamer Willapa, which marine and the steamer Willaga, which marine men have been expecting for some time, has been precipitated by the management of the former visual amounting a rate of 15 and 12:50 for cable and sternge respectively on the steamer Mexico, which will sail from the Sound March 15, the day scheduled for the Willaga, to go day scheduled for the Willapa to go morth, says the Tacuma News. The Mexico is now on the Sound and will carry some freight to British Columbia, needing the arrival of her opponent. The manager of the Willapa lives in Port Townsend, and when the News went to press today had made no announcement press today had made no announcement of a cut in response to that of the Pa-cific Coast Company as far as was known by the local agents. Walter Oak's, of Tacoma, is a stockholder in the Williams, but said today he knew nothing of the manager's intended action in regard to the war opened against his visual. The Pacific Coast Company will also seed Pacific Coast Company will also send the Mexico through to Dyea inlet on her next trip, and will charge $2 and $1 for fare from Joneau to Dyea. The usual fare between these points has seen $10. The Willaya began carrying massengers from Pacoma through to Dyea some time ago at a rate very little above the price to Juneau. The dis-tance to Dyea beyond the northern me-tropolis is 150 miles. Dyea is at the foot f the Chilkeot pass, leading over the oast range to the headwaters of the 'uken river. The Pacific Coast people ave surjuised some by announcing that the Mexico will go through to Dyea, as would; they have always maintained it would not do to carry passengers beyond Juneau, because it would be taking promean, because it would be taking prompactive outhit buyers past the doors of their patrons in the north.
