The collision between the steamer Queen and the British bark Strathfon cems to have been an unlucky affair for the latter. After the vessels were separated it was found that the sailing craft had her jibboom fractured. She was towed to the Union from Works and there her damages were repaired. In the meantime the Queen had been made as good as new and is now on her way to Portland (the steamer is in Portland), but the Straildon is still hard and fast at the iron works. When an attempt was made to dock her it was found that there was a bank of mud in the way. Extra steam was got on the Indian shawls are again coming into tug and the Strathdon was finally got alongside. Dear Sir: 1 am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules.
After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent insomnia (which seemed to baffle the efforts of some of our best physicians) you suggested this remedy which gave me almost instant relief. Words farl to express the praise I should like to best own Krause's Headache Capsules.
Gratefully yours.

I was a sufferer for eight years from that most distressing of all diseases, Eccema, but can now say tru fully that I am entirely cured. I tried some of the best physicians in the country, but they did me little good. The palms of my hands were covered, and would become inflamed; little white histers at first would appear, then they would peel off, leaving a rod, smooth surface which would burn like fire and litch; well, there is no name for it. On the inside of the upper part of both my limbs, great red biothes not milke hives would appear, and as soon as I became warm, the burning and litching would begin. Night after night I would lie awake all night and scratch, and almost go wild. I heard of CUTCORA remedies, got a box of CUTICORA (oinsment), a bottle of CUTCORA RESOLVENT (blood purifier), and gave them a thorough trial, and after a few applications I noticed the redness and inflammation disappear; before I had used one box there soon not a sign of Science left. I can truthfully assert that $2.00 worth of CUTTCORA REMEDIES cured me. Any one I meet who has Eczema, I do not besitate a moment in recommending your reliecties.
