One of the officers of the Victoria said to a Ledger r porter Tuesday. "We left young Smith at Yokohama and went or to the China cast. Not very good cyclers some of these Eastern whellmen; they understanding more about holding a linrick-shaw than a wheel, and I understand that some of his brave wheelmen rode back into fown on a railroad car. Considerable wheeling is now being done in Japan. In fact, the ingenious and progressive Japs are making a wheel which they sell for 135. It is inferior to the wheels manufactured in this country, but is nevertheless hurring the linrickshaw is nevertheless hurting the linrickshaw business." Mr. Smith was a prominent member of the Tacoma Athletic Club before leaving here.

The news brought by 12. M. Sullivan, who arrived Monday on the steamer Williapa from the Yukon country, is interesting as showing the hardships endured in going into or leaving the interior of Alaska, and also the status of affairs at present prevailing at Forty-Mile creek and other points. Mr. Sullivan managed to reach the coast out in time to con-nect with the Willapa, the trip from Forty-Mile creek to Juneau being made 29 days. Two parties arrived recently Juneau from the Yukon portage, via se steamer Rustler. One party consistof ten persons, among whom were sers Joseph Cooper and W. E. The trip was made in the shortest time recorded. There were 20 dogs in the outfit, and it was necessary to make mocassins for them to keep the sharp ice from cutting their feet. The second party met passed Jimmie Jackson, the Indian mail carrier, one day's travel above Trapper's bar. He was living on dog meat, which he threw away when the party gave him some flour and rice. They came over the White pass and were delayed several days by losing the trail. Jackson, the Indian mail carrier, reported that the two white men who started with him, L. 8. Hodge and McNeillis, became exhausted and he was compolled to leave them, and it is quite probable they perished. They and he was composite to teave them, and it is quite probable they perished. They had only a half sack of flour and some beans. Messers. Healty, Gasch 'sad Stewart, who left Juneau December 12, with mails for the interior, are at Dyea. Their mail sacks were lost in the snow, and will not be recovered for at least and will not be recovered for at least six weeks. Provisions are scarce in the interior, but no danger of starvation is reported. There has been but little sickness in the basin this winter. Captain liaker, of the steamer Beaver, commit-ted suicide, George Lamsey died of heart disease and Anthony Day was carried off disease and Anthony Jay was carried on by paralysis. Montgomery and Fox, two rival lovers of Birch creek, fought a duel with pistols. Fox received two wounds, but neither was fatal. The steamer P. B.
