"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

SHIPPING DAY BY DAY

Marine Matters, Here, There and Everywhere.

The Oriental steamer Mount Lebanon is due here on March 25.

The steamer Chilkat, which has been tied up near the O. R. and N. wharf since last fall, is soon to be inspected and placed on the Alaska run.

The schooner Mary E. Russ arrived down from Portland yesterday. She has 275,000 feet of lumber for C. A. Hooper & Co., San Francisco. She left out in the afternoon.

The British ship Ballochmyle was towed in to the O. R. and N. Co.'s wharf yesterday, where she will discharge 600 tons of coal. The remainder of her cargo will be discharged in Portland.

The bark Vidette and schooner Annie Gee left up the river yesterday in tow of the steamer Fannie. While off the river the Vidette spoke the barkentine Gleaner, bound for Knappton, where she will load lumber.

Three injured sailors from the wrecked Glenmorag arrived in this city yesterday and were taken to the hospital. One of the men was exposed to the chilly coast breeze with hardly any clothing for several hours, and is very sick.

At several East Astoria canneries fishermen are already launching fishboats. As soon as the boats are put in the water they are swamped, for the purpose of swelling the seams. Several boats were launched yesterday at the Columbia cannery.

The State on her last trip for San Francisco, carried 7500 bundles of shooks from the Astoria Box Company. The Queen, which leaves out Tuesday, will carry another consignment of 7500 bundles from the same company. The mill is running full time. Last year it run for 321 days, which is probably a coast record.

The steamer Queen arrived from San Francisco yesterday morning. She had a very large and interesting passenger list. A large crowd collected at the wharf to see John L. Sullivan, who is on his way to Portland. The Queen brought up about 10,000 sacks of salt and a large quantity of vegetables and fruit, the latter for Astoria merchants. She left up at noon.

N. H. Webber's new gasoline launch is rapidly nearing completion at Skipanon. Oliver Graham is constructing the hull. She will probably be ready for service in about three weeks. Mr. Webber has returned the launch Star, which he has been using for some time, to her owners, Messrs. Langworthy and Moen. The new boat will be much larger and have greater power than the Star.

The British bark Donna Francisca, Captain John Simons, cleared at the Tacoma customs house yesterday for Falmouth for orders with a cargo of wheat. She has in her hold 130,279 bushels, valued at $80,000. This is one of the best cargoes that has left the Sound this season, and is among the last that will leave until the new crop begins moving. The vessel is lying at buoy No. 3, and will sail within a few days. Balfour, Guthrie & Co. are the charterers.

Wednesday evening, as the steamer City of Aberdeen was on her run from this city to Seattle, and when off Robinson's point, one of her crank pins broke, which resulted in breaking the cross head, knocking out the cylinder and smashing the machinery generally on that side of the boat. The steamer went on to Seattle with one engine. She returned to this city yesterday and tied up at the Commercial wharf for repairs. The broken machinery was taken to the Puget Sound Iron Works, where will be made a new cylinder and cylinder heads, cross heads and piston heads, rod and rings. Captain Willey says it will take eight or ten days to put her in order, and estimates the loss to the company at fully $1,000. The Puget Sound Iron Works made the engine for the steamer several years ago.—Ledger.

The Hawaiian bark Mauna Alva, Captain Smith, which left here November 9 with a cargo of lumber for Sydney, and concerning which much anxiety has been felt, arrived safely at her destination February 1. Her master failed to report to those on this side of the water interested in the bark. A month and a half has passed since she reached Sydney. The vessel was 83 days in making the passage, the ordinary time required. She carried 619,326 feet of lumber from Tacoma.

The German bark Bertha, Captain Rasch, which sailed from Tacoma November 28 for Adelaide, was to race across the Pacific to their respective ports, the craft making the quickest passage to be declared winner and the master of the losing vessel to furnish a royal treat to the other when they next met. It is now in order for Captain Smith to entertain the skipper of the Bertha, as the craft made the passage in 75 days.

Nothing has been heard of the four-masted steel British barkentine Xantippe, from San José de Guatemala for Tacoma, to load lumber for France, the barkentine Discovery from Puget sound for San Francisco and the schooner J. B. Leeds from Guaymus for Puget sound. It is generally believed all have been lost. The vessels have been out an unreasonably long time and were all traveling well known courses. The Xantippe was spoken in a disabled condition about December 31, and it is feared she foundered in a storm. A vessel believed to have been the Discovery was reported in a sinking condition several weeks ago off the Oregon coast.

The British bark Cadzow Forest was blown off the Columbia river bar 71 days ago, after having taken a pilot aboard, and is given up for lost. She was last seen January 22 off Cape Disappointment by the bark Gatherer. The Forest was last reinsured for 90 guineas. —Tacoma News.

AN ODD COLLECTION.

A man in Colorado has a quaint collection of bottles. It is divided into two sections. Section one is large. Section two is not. Section one contains hundreds of bottles, the contents of which his wife swallowed hoping to find relief from her physical sufferings. Section two contains a few bottles that once were filled with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It was this potent remedy that gave the suffering wife her health again. It cures all irregularities, internal inflammation and ulceration, displacements and kindred troubles. It has done more to relieve the sufferings of women than any other medicine known to science.

Mr. J. J. Kell, Sharpsburg, Pa.:

Dear Sir: I am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules. After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent insomnia (which seemed to baffle the efforts of some of our best physicians) you suggested this remedy which gave me almost instant relief. Words fail to express the praise I should like to bestow on Krause's Headache Capsules.

The mysterious preparations now going on in the clubrooms presage a performance replete with surprises. Even the date was intended to be sprung on an unsuspecting public just a week before the event. Until then the populace will be kept in the dark as to the exact nature of the show.
