It was stated on good authority yesterday evening that the Baker's bay trup men have come to an understanding with Seaborg's cannery, by which that estaboffice in furnishing the copy for the pro-ceedings of the recent session of the county court, the full report, which should have appeared in this morning's issue and today's weekly, will not be published until temorrow.

Seaborg camery, by which are take fish at four cents per pound. Under the protection of the militia sent down by Governor McGraw, of Washington, the trap men feel that published until temorrow. they can fish with perfect safety, and they are satisfied, so it is said, with the four cent price.

Just how the Scaborg cannery, which is a member of the Packers' Association, can justify its action in taking fish from transmen when other members of the combine cannot procure fish at less than five cents, is hard to understand. The gentleman who makes the report of affairs on that side of the bay, stated that there might possibly be some clause the agreement which would permit such a deal but he was not aware of it. For good recisions, the requested that his name be not used in connection ath the matter; but volunteered the information and stated that arrangements as above half been positively made. What action the dishermen will take in regard to the matter remains to be seen.

until the question of price had been satisfactorily arranged with the cannerymen.

isfactorily arranged with the canneryment.

Those who are best posted do not think that there will be any trouble over the Raker's Bay matter, and are inclined to think that the information received from Ifwars yesterday was based on rumars without foundation. Today will no doubt tell the story, and demonstrate whether either combination has the strength to stand out for the position taken by it. The concensus of uplaion seems to be one of general regret that the men and the packers could not have come together on common ground. All come together on common ground. All business in the city is suffering, and there is little hope of revival until the difficulty with the fishermen is settled.

THE SHIVELY SCHOOL ARBOR DAY EXERCISES.

Arbor Day was duly observed in Shive-ly school yesterday afternoon. Many pleasing numbers were rendered by the boys and girls. They take great delight in such work. Every one was at his post eager to discharge his duty. The decorations were especially appropriate, having been arranged in an artistic manner. They were entirely the work of the pupils—teachers had little to may. The exercises by three primary rooms held in conjunction, were of excellent merit. The woodsmen dressed in duck, and carrying their axes, performed their parts well. Singing and other pleasing numbers made up the lengthy program. Following is the program as rendered in the Grammar grade: in the Grammar grade:
