The little schoner Moonlight left San Francisco Monday afternoon ostensibly for the Mexican coast. There was a story aftent along the wharves that as soon as she got outside the heads her course would be changed and she would be headed directly across the Pacific for one of the remote South Sea islands. It was whispered by some of the men who assisted in making the vessel ready for assisted in making the vessel ready for her voyage that she was probably des-tined to engage in illicit traffic, either in the smuggling line or "blackbirding." Owing to the mysterious manner in which the vessel's crew acted while the stores were being put aboard, the cus-toms officials concluded that something wrong was on foot and they placed a special watch on the vessel. Nothing of a definite character developed, however, and no provocation was discovered for intercepting the schooner when she cast foose her lines and started to sea. Precautions have been taken for keep-ing a watch on the Moonlight's move-ments, and upon her reappearance at an American port she will be promptly over-

Actraders and missionaries to butcher. According to the stories told by some of the people who arrived on the Monowar Saturday from the South Seas, the Solomons recently massacred a boat load or seamen who went ashore from the brig Rio Loge, and at Rubiana two Frenchmen and one American, whose names could not be ascertained, were stabber and beheaded. On the Manning Stratts islands the atrocities have been particularly cruel. This group is inhabited by cannibals. It is related of them that late in March they attracked a small trading schooner sailed by a Frenchman named Gardemaux and an assistant named Meyer. Both men and eight Gilbert islanders who were serving as the vessels' crew were beaten to death with stones. The bodies of the murdered island a feast beld. The remains of the white men were not caten, but were lett on the beach. The trading station, which beleaned to Gardemaux, was broken open and tooted. The situation has become so serious that small steamers have been sent to the ladands by the traders in order to take away the people connected with the missions. The Rev. John A. Hoyd, of the English mission as Southwest bay, near where Gardecording to the stories told by some of connected with the missions. The Rev. John A. CHOLERA IN EGYPT. Cairo Sanitary Authorities and Medical

Now York, May 16 -A special cable to the Herald from Cairo, Egypt, says: The sanitary authorities and medical specialists here regard the increase in cholera, after the unsuccessful efforts made last whiter to stamp out the dis-case, as indicating an approaching epidemic. The chance of an outbreak is increased by the present heat and the falling of the Nile. An official bulletin reports nineteen new cases in Alexandria, and grave fears are entertained respecting many others. Of twenty deaths reported inday, thirteen were discovered by officials when inspecting dwelling houses, as the natives superstitiously conceal the cases that occur and thus render the suppression of contactor inconstitute.

They Lack Life

There are twines sold to fishermen on the Columbia river that stand in the same relationship to Marshall's Twine as a wooden image does to the human being-they lack strength-life -evenness and lasting qualities. Don't fool yourself into the belief that other twines besides Marshall's will do "just as well." They won't. They cannot.
