The Stars and Stripes are no longer the mere rallying flag of the separated North, they are the one flag of the one North and South, the one East and West, the one united and indissoluble American nation.

As never before, the Stars and Stripes have a place in many houses of worship, a part of their furnishing, even as are Bibles and pulpk desks. And, further, elergymen are coming to feel that their year's work is hardly complete except on Decoration day Sabbath they recognize the terrible crisis and the gladsome results of a generation ago. Most of all, the feeling now is that God must have real and unbroken place in all national affairs. It will not be sufe to in anywise ignore Him, if the American republic is to increase in strength and beauty and honor, or to retain what of excellence now belongs to it. Therefore, let Decoration day sermons and services continue. Let the old soldier have increased warmth of welcome; let the people of the entire hand find at the altar of public worship the place of united hymns of praise, and niso the place where former asimosities are forgotten and where is sworn allegiance to the one flag of a one nation.

. THE NEW REBELLION.

Every politician in Colorado for some rime past has been trying to get ahead of all his fellows in the extravagance of his arguments in favor of free silver, but a fellow named Belford has outstripped them all. He delivered a speech before the Young Men's Silver Club, of Denver, a few evenings ago, and he boldly proclaimed that the country must choose between the free coinage of silver with 50 cents or so stamped as a dollar, or there must be secession of the Western states from the Union. He declares that the time has come when the West must have something to say about the affairs of the flovernment, and that "there is danger now that a division may come in this government when the Mississippi river may become the eastern boundary line of the new Western re-

So far from condemning the brilliant free silver secessionist of Colorado we think that he is entirely logical and entitled to commendation. A man who is silly enough to believe that a great government leading all the civilizations of the world in enlightened progress must reduce its money system to that of the and remittances must be addressed to pagan, with the additional crime of declaring a half a dollar to be a dollar, deesn't advance a hairbreadth in tom molery when he declares that if cheap money can't rule, the cheap money pro ple should secode from the government
