STATE RETURNS.

Portland, June 1 .- At 2 a. m. the resuit of the election in this state may be summed up us follows: R. S. Bean, Republican, is elected supreme judge by a plurality approaching 19,000: Thos. H. Tongue, Republican, is elected to congress in the First district, by a small plurality. In the Second district the content is between Ellis, Republican, and Only a Parallity, with belief them. Quinn, Populist, with indications favor-ing Quinn. Northup polled a good vote in Multnomah and Clatsop countles but fell behind in Eastedn Oregon. The leg-islature is Republican in both branches sithough by a reduced majority. The Populists have made gains in nearly every county in the state. Ex-Governor Pennoyer is elected mayor of Fortland by over 2,000 pluralitys. Wm. Frazier (Mitchell Republican), is elected sheriff of this county and at this time it looks as though the entire Mitch-ell Republican ticket was elected. Portland, Or., June 1.—The indications are that Pennoyer is elected mayor and that the Mitchell Republican ticket is successful. The counting of the votes proceeds very the closest buyers.

The countries of the voices proceeds very the closest buyers.

AT OREGON CITY. Oregon City, June L-The returns of Oregon City, June 1.—The returns of seven precincts give the following vote: Supreme judge—Bean 28; Burnett 126; Gaston 612; congressman—Tongue 409; Myers 87; Vanderburg, 622; representatives—Republican, 288, 459 and 361; Democrats, 75, 160 and 56; Populist, 427, 479 and 528. It is thought Tongue has curried the country and that perhaps Bean has. The country officers are probably all Populist.

AT ROSEBURG.

Roseburg, June 1.—The returns from ix precincts give the following vote; upreme Judge, Hean til; Burnett, E4; Gaston 211: congressman—Tongue, 415; Myers, 26; Vanderburg, 24; state sens-tors—Reed, Republican, 53; Gasely, Pop-ulist, 55; district attorney—Upton, 441; Yates, 451; legislative ticket period.

MARSHFIELD.

Marshfield, Oregon, June I.—The raturns from three precincts indicate a great falling off in the Populists' vote. Tengue carries a large vote than Hermann in his own home, Norway, J. W. Bennett leads so far in the contest for representative, C. E. Harmon is ruinning way tive. C. E. Harmon is running way lead and if he makes any showing in sephine he will surely be elected. #### AT UNION.

Union, Or., June 1.-The election today from Union and Umatilla counties, are running nearly even. In the joint senator, and stores in the custom house belonging to citizens of Nicaragua, and to foreigners are for Union and Wallowa counties, McAllister, Democrat, leads, with McCully, Republican, closely following. There is little question that Stanley and Wright, Republican candidates for representatives, are elected. Alken is undoubtedly elected district judge.

M. Partial returns from other portions of the county indicate about the same ortionate vote, although the returns assufficient to base an estimate. It is generally conceded Biyou is elected, but the Republicans claim two members of the lower house. In the race for senator it is doubtful between Driver and Skip-Two precincts in Cottage Grove give Baker St. Driver III: Skipworth, 127. All other offices strong Republican.

AT ALBANY.

Albany, Or., June 1.—Incomplete returns from seven precincts give the following votes: Supreme judge—Bean, 308; Burnett, 222; Baston, 51; congressmantongue, 230; Myers, 48; Vanderburg, 310; representatives—Republican, 236; Democrat, 210; Populist, 128.

AT HILLSBORO.

Hillsboro, Or., June 1.—Hillsboro cast 427 votest and 367 have been counted. Tongue, Republican, receives of these 125; Vanderburg. Populist, 136; and Myers, Democrat, 25; for state senator—Hughes, Republican, 125: Huston, Democrat, 134; Archibald, Populist, 108. The Republican representative tickot receives more votes than Hughes. All concede that the whole Republican ticket in this county is elect-ed, unless perhaps superintendent of schools.

AT SALEM.

Salem, Or., June 1.-The Republicans will no doubt elect the legislative ticket. The county offices are mixed. The Popullat vote shows a great gain over two years ago. The Democrats may elect years ago. The Democrats may elect the sheriff, and possibly one representa-tive. Meyers and Tongue lose to Van-derburg's great gain.
