This law has been on the basis of the financial honor of the country in regard to its outstanding notes, and as the only means of keeping at par with gold the legal tender silver which has found in the gold reserve thus created and maintained the additional value lacking in itself. Only with the aid of this law is it possible to maintain the gold reserve. and only in maintaining the gold reserve at at least $160,000,000 can the parity of the currency be preserved as required by the act of 1890, which declares it to be "the established policy of the United States to maintain the two metals (gold and silver) on a parity with each other upon the present ratio." The senate of the United States, by a vote of 29 to 27, indicated Friday last a purpose to repeal the resumption act. Of course the house will refuse to concur, and if by any chance it should be misled into concurrence the presidential veto would be interposed to protect the honor of the country and safeguard its currency.

The fact that Populism and the silver monopoly are able to place the senate of the United States on record as ready to coerce the government into bankruptcy is sufficiently startling of itself to force all honest and intelligent men into serious reflection on the actual crisis in which we are placed by the silver mono- Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your
