ARBITRATION IS PROPOSED

Advisory Committee Said to Be Willing to Accept Proof in the Matter.

WILL CALL THE STRIKE OFF

Provided That Cannerymen Can Establish the Fact That They Cannot Pay Five Cents and Do Business at a Fair Profit.

No little excitement was created throughout the city yesterday when the news was received from Clifton of the attempt made by unknown parties to shoot down fishermen returning in their boats with the results of the day's labor. From that the discussion branched to the general subject of the strike. Many opinions were advanced and each had a different theory of the cause and effect of the present trouble. It was understood among the majority of those who are supposed to be posted in the affairs of the union, that the advisory committee of that body declared yesterday that if the cannerymen could prove to their satisfaction that they could not pay five cents for fish, and do business at a profit, that the advisory committee would then declare the strike off and advise the men to go to work.

Last evening one of the most prominent as well as one of the largest packers on the Columbia river, called at the Astoria office and while there, in discussing the entire subject, he stated to an Astorian reporter that he thought the whole question was susceptible of settlement on a basis fair to all. "There is a way to bring both sides to a fair settlement on this matter which with credit and without any undue backdown on either side. It is to be assumed that when the fishermen's union meets each spring and establishes the price of our fish that they take into consideration each year the ability of the market to stand the price so fixed. Otherwise, the price is not dependent upon the market fluctuations. So it is to be assumed that the fishermen are willing to concede that the condition of the market has changed, and that the demand of the cannerymen for the raw fish.

"It has been stated that the union would be willing to concede that the fishermen's union meets each spring and establishes the price of our fish that they take into consideration each year the ability of the market to stand the price so fixed. Otherwise, the price is not dependent upon the market fluctuations. So it is to be assumed that the fishermen are willing to concede that the condition of the market has changed, and that the demand of the cannerymen for the raw fish.

"There is little doubt that if this plan could have been agreed upon in the beginning, that nothing would have come of the present situation, and it should be adopted without delay. The fishermen, and there might have been saved hundreds of thousands of dollars to the mutual advantage of packers and fishermen, as well as business men generally, of every class and description."

The proposition suggested by the gentleman in question, seems to be an eminently fair one, and worthy of a trial. From the consensus of opinion throughout the city, it can certainly be taken as a fact that ninety-nine per cent of the business men and citizens generally are anxious to see this much-vexed question settled amicably and upon a basis fair to all concerned. There might be common grounds upon which both parties to the disagreement can meet. The question is, to find that ground.

NO IMPROVEMENT IN TRADE.

In Fact, the Demand for Nearly All Classes of Goods Has Decreased.

New York, June 5.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: "Business continues depressed in almost all lines. The demand is smaller than a week ago, and the request for and offerings of commercial paper have decreased. Mercantile collections are continuing complained of, and the tendency of prices, particularly of cereals, sugar, coffee, pork products, cotton and cotton goods, and iron and steel, continues downward. There is a moderate increase in the demand for dry goods at Chicago, but business generally is disappointing. This check in trade at St. Louis is in part the result of delays in the distribution of merchandise on account of the late storm. The unseasonable cold weather and rain have interfered with the retail trade in the territory tributary to Kansas City. Eastern advices are that wool is an fall and weak as ever, with larger stocks of cotton than for years, and a light demand for new clips. In the face of this, Portland, Oregon, wires that about 400 tons of wool will be handled at The Dalles this year; that it has been to more, but that Eastern buyers have not put in an appearance. "The total number of business failures throughout the United States this week is 238, compared with 27 last week, and 226 in the first week in June, 1895. There are 28 business failures in Canada, against 25 last week, 27 in the week a year ago, and 37 two years ago.

WHAT IS THE DECISION?

Portland, June 5.—The executive council, after a long discussion, has prepared a final decision regarding the release of the four reform leaders, Colonel Francis Rhodes, John Hays Hammond, Lionel Phillips and George Parrar.

OREGON ELECTION AND HAYMOND

Railroad Not Affected by the Turn of Political Affairs in the State.

FUNDS PROVIDED LONG AGO

Payrolls Promptly Met and Contractors' Bills Paid—Work and Men Gradually Increasing—Entire Line Will Soon Be Under Way.

An article appearing in yesterday's Oregonian as a telegram from Astoria, which it is stated the many leading Republicans had expressed a fear that, as one of the results of the disastrous election in the state of Oregon, and A. H. Hammond, the promoter of the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad, who had recently gone to the East, presumably for the purpose of securing alignment of the continued willingness of his financial friends to place their money in the project, might find their purse strings closed against him, caused much indignation in railroad circles yesterday, and the officials of the road, as well as Mr. Hammond's most intimate friends, denounced the entire article as an outrage against that gentleman, and the project itself. While the article at its end, assures the reader that the croakers referred to are wholly without foundation, and that the friends of the railroad claimed that all the money necessary for the enterprise is in readiness, yet the general effect of the article throughout the state, will be to throw a doubt upon the ability of Mr. Hammond to carry out his project, as well as to give Astoria at least a black eye for the present.

Mr. S. H. Brown, Jr., of Boston, and Mr. L. B. Seelye, of Portland, who are largely interested in pushing the Plavet Hotel project forward, and who are perhaps acquainted with Mr. Hammond and his plans and resources as any one on the Pacific coast, stated last evening just before returning to Portland, that the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad had been financed eighteen months ago, and that every dollar necessary for its construction, has been at all times available for each of them.

Mr. W. G. Gosselin, land agent of the railroad, and one of Hammond's managers, stated last night to an Astorian reporter that the account published in yesterday's Oregonian concerning any pretense on the part of Hammond's part as to finances necessary for the railroad building, was absolutely false in every particular. There can be no possible question, says Mr. Hammond, while they may be partially contradicted by statements at the bottom of an article, yet the manner in which headlines and introductions are written, causes the damage and attracts the attention of the people at large.

GERMANS LEAVING NANKING.

Alleged Chinese Scheme to Put the Army Under Russian Control.

London, June 5.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says that, in consequence of the indignities to which German officers have been subjected recently by Chinese soldiers, when they were detailed to train, which culminated in the murder of several Germans by the body-guard of the viceroy of Nanking, many of these officers have left Nanking, Germany warships have arrived there and have demanded heavy indemnity for the attacks made by the Chinese upon the German officers. These attacks, according to the special dispatch, are believed to be part of a scheme to drive out the Germans and place the Chinese army under Russian control.

CORNER ON SPUDS.

Kansas City Broker Will Raise the Price of Potatoes.

Kansas City, June 5.—James McKinney, of the commission firm of McKinney Bros., has practically cornered the potato market. McKinney is said to have more of the product to sell than all the other potato brokers in the West. Within the past four days McKinney has raised the price of potatoes 25 cents, and a further increase is anticipated. Twenty days ago McKinney contracted for the only available potatoes in the West, 100 carloads, from Greeley, Col. McKinney is said to have cornered the market five years ago, when he raised the price from 2 cents to $1 per bushel.

COLUMBIA RIVER GIVES UP ITS DEAD

Second Chapter in the Horrible Murder of Ester Gunion and Her Companions.

JACK LAMBERT'S BODY FOUND

The Skull Was Frightfully Crushed and There Was a Bullet Hole in the Neck—Evidence That Four Persons Were Murdered.

That four persons were foully murdered on the night of May 28, in the timbered woods beyond the shadow of a doubt. Yesterday morning Corporal Fox and Sheriff Hare returned from a trip up the river, bringing with them the body of Jack Lambert, which was found near Quinn's point late Thursday evening.

As it is well known, about 8 o'clock on the night of the river and the body of Lambert, which was found near Quinn's point late Thursday evening. As it is well known, about 8 o'clock on the night of the river and the body of Lambert, which was found near Quinn's point late Thursday evening.

SLAUGHTERING DEMOCRATS.

Washington, June 5.—The house today unseated two more Democrats—Lockhart, from the Seventh North Carolina district, and Downing, from the 15th Illinois district. A good deal of republican feeling was aroused among the Democrats by the ruling of Payne, who was in the chair, and on one of two occasions there was a mild reminder of the turbulent scenes of the Fifty-first congress. Several Democrats left the hall in an effort to break a caucus, but Mr. Payne declined to recognize the point of no quorum or to entertain an appeal from that decision. Groves' resolution calling on the president and cabinet officials for a complete list of the removals since March 4, 1882, was laid over. Owing to the pressure of members for the passage of bills of local importance to them, and the refusal of Kem, of Nebraska, to consent to this character of legislation, a special order was adopted making tomorrow individual suspension day.

CUBAN QUESTION.

Washington, June 5.—The discussion in the senate behind closed doors today was entirely to the Cuban question, and the greater part of the time was consumed by Morgan in the continuation of his speech in the open session. Sherman and Lodge made a brief explanation of their visit to the White House and their conference with President Cleveland. They expressed the opinion that the executive was using all due vigilance for the protection of American citizens in Cuba, and said that, while it may be the duty of congress to put forth its opinion in regard to the situation in Cuba in the shape of a joint resolution, there was little probability of getting such a resolution through without prolonging the debate, which, in view of the general desire for early adjournment, could not be had.

WARNED BY THE JUNTA.

Citizens Asked Not to Respond to Unauthorised Appeals for Aid.

New York, June 5.—The Cuban Junta here has sent out a warning to the public, in which they say: "We desire to warn the public against all persons requesting contributions for the cause of Cuban independence, excepting the Cuban Army Sanitary Corps, Rafael Navarro, treasurer, who is duly authorized and appointed by this delegation. Also against persons advertising for parties or individuals to join the Cuban cause. "Certain individuals are advising exclusively for these purposes, and join to their names the names of well known Cubans. There is no enlistment going on, and appeals for aid by individuals are entirely unauthorized by us."

FOR ELECTIONS BY DIRECT VOTE

Bill Introduced by Senator Mitchell Laid Over Till Second Monday in December.

ADJOURNMENT NEXT MONDAY

Resolution Introduced for Such Action—Two Democrats Unseated by the House—Senate Still Considering Cuban Question.

Washington, June 5.—In the senate today, Mitchell, of Oregon, called up his bill for the election of senators by direct vote of the people. Mitchell argued that the reform would do away with the pool-room debauchery of primaries, eliminate the influence of local bosses, minimize the influence of wealth, create closer relations between the people and the senate and overcome the element of monarchy and aristocracy in the present system. The measure was supported by Perkins, Chandler declared the elections of senators by the people to be a concession to Populistic tendencies.

Palmer, in responding to the suggestions of Chandler that he (Palmer) might not be returned to the senate, retorted that new issues had arisen since his former elections of a popular canvass. "On these issues I have the misfortune to differ from the machine of my state," declared Palmer. "The machine has control of Illinois. The machine has control of other states; the machine is against me. I defy the machine, and whether the machine is stronger than the people remains to be seen."

BRITISH IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Cape Town, June 5.—The house of assembly today, by a vote of 60 to 11, rejecting the motion of Mr. Merriman, declaring that the exercise of sovereignty rights by a trading and financial company is not consistent with the peace and prosperity of South Africa, and urging that an additional bill be sent to Victoria, requesting her to take the matter into her consideration with a view to the revocation or alteration of the terms of the charter of the British South Africa Company, and to make such provision for the government of the territories under the control of that company as may be advisable.

DR. EDSON TO SUE.

He Discovers Alleged Spurious Preparations of His Cure.
 New York, June 5.—Dr. Cyrus Edson announced last fall that he had discovered a preparation which, if used in season, would cure consumption, prove a cure for consumption. He has recently discovered that the country has been fairly flooded with spurious preparations, not only worthless, but full of danger. As a result of this discovery, Dr. Edson has brought suit against two prominent drug concerns, alleging his damages will be brought as soon as the necessary evidence is obtained.

FARMER OSBORN HAD MUCH FUN

The Man From Oregon Tells of His Escapes in Boston Town With Miss Ashley.

THEY VISITED CEMETERIES

And the Naughty Fellow Kissed Fair Lillian Several Times—Testimony in the Ashley-Baldwin Suit in San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 5.—The cross-examination of the farmer, John Osborn, the man from Oregon, who came all the way from Portland to tell what he knew about Miss Lillian Ashley, occupied the whole session of Judge Stock's court in the Ashley-Baldwin case today. No new material was brought out. The only relief in the monotony was when the witness told a new incident of how he and Miss Ashley had gone driving in Boston. They had an exciting time, visiting cemeteries, and he kissed his companion repeatedly on the way home. Miss Ashley smiled broadly at these recollections. When the witness had finished repeating the story he had told the day before, the court for the plaintiff said: "Now, you have come all the way here from Portland to tell this thing about this lady?"

"No, sir."

"You never told her you would get even with her for refusing to marry you?"

"I never did."

"You never wrote her a letter making this threat?"

"No."

The session ended with a rehearsal of the correspondence which had passed between Osborn and Miss Ashley after his return to Oregon. An endeavor was made to draw him into the admission that he had proposed to Miss Ashley, but in two letters presented upon the previous day, in which she had referred to her abuse of his love and made pleas for forgiveness, Osborn could not recollect that he had ever told her either in word or writing that he loved her. He admitted that he had bought her some rings, but could not remember what sort, how many, or what he had paid for them.

ATTEMPTED MURDER OF SEVERAL PERSONS NEAR CLIFTON YESTERDAY.

Special to the Astorian.
 Clifton, Ore., June 5.—This morning about 7 o'clock one of the boats engaged in fishing for Cook's cannery was returning from a drift about a mile west from the cannery. The boat was fired upon by unknown parties in ambush on shore. The fishermen and boat puller at once pulled away as fast as possible and succeeded in escaping. It is claimed that about forty shots were fired. A similar assault was made from the same place, supposed to be by the same parties, on another boat about 11 o'clock today, but in this instance the fishermen returned the fire, shooting at the smoke from the guns of the assaulting parties, and the assaults ceased. The attack is not definitely known who the cowardly assailants are. The first boat was in charge of a man by the name of Sergio and the latter boat in charge of Mario Sverdrup.

LOOKS LIKE ELLIS.

The Republican Candidate Still in the Lead for Congress.
 Portland, June 5.—Up to 8 o'clock tonight the returns show that Vandenberg, Populist, for congress in the First district, has a plurality of 34 over Tongue, Republican. Complete returns have been received from every county in the district except Curry, the vote of which has only been partially reported. As far as reported Curry gives Tongue 10 plurality. The full vote will wipe out Vandenberg's plurality.
 In the second district Ellis leads Quinn by 27, with the returns from four counties still incomplete.
