HIGH SCHOOL BERMON.

Annual Discourse Delivered by the Rev. J. J. Walker Sunday Night.

At the M. E. church Sabbath morning Rev. Mr. Jenkins, of Indiana, preached an excellent sermon on "Love and Its Fruits."

In the evening the pastor, Rev. Walker, preached the annual sermon before the graduating class, from the text, "For ye know in part and prophecy for teach in part."

The leading thought of the discourse was that the highest culture, the broadest and most liberal education, was necessarily incomplete.

Take the plainest scientific truths like the revolution of the earth on its axis, or its annual revolution in its orbit, all we know or can know about is the simple fact.

The fact is beyond our reach. We know it revolves on its axis once in twenty-four hours because we have the alterations of day and night, and the seasons show its annual revolutions.

How it revolves on the axis is motion and keeps it in place, science has never taught us.

The speaker paid a glowing tribute to the Jewish race because of its successful preservation. The history of Rome and Greece is concluded to be true, but no direct descendant of those races or peoples remains on the earth.

Spain will not allow a full report of the discourse. The music by the soloists, Mrs. Danziger, Mrs. Judge Taylor, and Mr. Hefler, were appreciated by all present.

Mrs. Danziger's voice is wonderful in its sweetness and compass, while Mrs. Taylor's was equally beautiful in its purity and range.

Mr. Hefler rendered "Total Eclipse" in his usual masterly way.

HAS BEEN THERE BEFORE.

Miss Ashley, Said a Witness, Tried to Blackmail Colonel Pope.

San Francisco, June 8.—There were several very fancy developments during the trial of the young girl, which was resumed before Judge Stack today, when Detective J. R. Wood was placed on the stand by the defense.

The whole of the morning and part of the forenoon sessions were composed of the examination of witnesses John O'Shara, the Oregon farmer. Attorney Critchfield questioned O'Shara about his letters to the plaintiff and extracted from him a number of statements.

COLORED MEN ARE BARRED

Disgraceful Action of the Hotel Keepers of the Republican National Convention City.

AN EMBARRASSING SITUATION

Strenuous Efforts on the Part of Committees Failed to Engage Even a Steambath to Shelter the Poor Negro.

St. Louis, June 8.—What shall be done with the colored delegation at the Republican national convention? This is the question which is puzzling the members of the national committee, who have arrived, admit negroes, but a League, which secured the convention, as well. Every hotel and boarding house and cafe came out flatfooted today and declared it would not entertain negro guests or customers. Money is no object. Threats of prosecution have had no effect, and from the present outlook it would seem that unless tents are secured for the black men will have to go hungry and unshowered.

"I am thoroughly disgusted and discouraged," said National Committeeman Judge Long, of Florida, tonight, in speaking of the matter. "I have been looking all day long for a hotel, board-house or cafe that would admit negroes, but I have been unable to find them. I even went so far as to try to charter a steambath, but when the owners learned for what purpose I wanted it, they found an excuse for refusing me the rent of it. It is the only time in the history of the Republican party where such an embarrassing predicament has arisen."

When asked what the national committee would do, Long replied:

"I have consulted those who are here and have decided to offer a resolution to the committee, condemning the hotel and inn-keepers and for the laying aside of a fund for renting a hall in which they shall be placed for the night."

This trouble has been brewing for nearly a number of days ago it was learned by the Business Men's League that some of the leading hotels had been cancelling agreements with state delegates who had been invited to the convention.

ADJOURNMENT ON WEDNESDAY

Chairman of Senate and House Appropriation Committees Agree Upon This Point.

ALL BUT FOUR BILLS PASSED

They Are All Supply Measures, and It is Expected Matters Can Be So Arranged That All May Pass Before Adjournment.

Washington, June 8.—Both senator Allison, chairman of the senate appropriations committee, and Cannon, chairman of the house committee, agreed tonight that the adjournment should be postponed until Wednesday. The house agreed to the final conference on the postoffice bill today and the senate passed the general deficiency bill as a compromise from the house. This leaves but four of the great supply bills still in session—the Indian, the Indian, and sundry civil bills.

Although neither house has yet acted on the report, the conferees on the naval bill have agreed upon a report which, it is thought, will prove acceptable to both house and senate. It compromises on the question of the number of battleships by authorizing three instead of four, as the bill passed the house and two as it passed the senate. The question of the maximum cost of armor plate, fixed by the house at $25 per ton and by the senate at $20 per ton, is postponed until the next session of congress.

In the sundry bill bill the public building bills are still the bone of contention, and in the District of Columbia and Indian bills the question of sectarian charities and sectarian schools respectively are the only items in issue. The leaders of both houses expect an adjustment of the controverted questions, in time for adjournment Wednesday. The fact that the Republicans of the house have insisted on taking up the contested bills in the closing hours of congress has irritated the Democrats and they may force the majority to furnish their own quarters to unseat another Democrat. As the Republicans have not a quorum of their own in the city, this furnishes the main cause for alarm, so far as the house is concerned.

CORRETT AND SHARKEY.

Will Fight a Four Round Bout in San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 8.—James J. Corbett and Thomas Sharkey this afternoon signed articles of agreement for a four-round bout, under the auspices of the National Athletic Club, June 24. The contest will be fought under the rules of the National Athletic Club, with five ounce gloves. Corbett is to have fifty per cent of the gross receipts, if Sharkey should gain the decision he will receive thirty-five per cent of the net proceeds, and if it is declared a draw the "Marine" will receive twenty-five per cent of the net proceeds.

ELLIS AND TONGUE.

Are Entitled to Congress by a Very Small Majority.

Portland, June 8.—Tongue's plurality for congress in the First district is 74. Official returns have been received from the counties of Klamath, Crook and Tillamook, and from these complete returns have been received. In the Second district Ellis has a plurality of 52, with all the counties official except Grant, Harney, Malheur, Crook and Multnomah. Virtually complete returns have been received from these, and the result will scarcely be changed by the official count.

MILLITIA IN READINESS.

If We Become Troublesome, the Soldiers Will Descend Upon Us.

Portland, Ore., June 8.—The First Regiment, Oregon National Guard, is in readiness to start for Astoria at a moment's notice in case of any serious outbreak among the striking fishermen. Three companies of infantry and one company of artillery are in the army tonight, with luggage packed ready to take the steamer for Astoria whenever the order is issued. It is reported here tonight that a cannery across the river from Astoria has been burned.

THE WAY TO TREAT THEM.

Washington, June 8.—The Washington correspondent's special train for the Republican national convention left the Pennsylvania station this afternoon for St. Louis, where it will arrive tomorrow afternoon. The train is a handsomely equipped one, tended by the correspondents by Frank Thompson, first vice-president, on behalf of the Pennsylvania Association of Journalists.

BLAZE IN PORTLAND.

Special to the Astorian.

Portland, June 8.—The power house of the Union Power Company burned early this morning. The loss is $75,000, insurance, $60,000. The fire interrupted traffic for several hours on the City and Suburban lines, and Portland Consolidated street cars, which secure power from the Union Power Co.
