New Astoria...

located at the terminus of the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad, at the mouth of the Columbia River. It fronts on the deep water of the Columbia River Harbor, and being perfectly protected from wind and seas, affords the very best docks for ships on this bay; therefore, it is the exact spot for the seaport of the great Northwest. These facts were recognized by the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Co. when

New Astoria Was Selected as the Starting Point for their Railroad and the Location for the Terminals.

New Astoria is platted upon a plane high enough for perfect drainage, and well protected by a high ridge behind it. Its streets and avenues are wide, and, in fact, it is laid out on modern plans. Extensive street improvements are now under way.

An office has been opened by the proprietors one door east of the Crosby hardware store. Call, be shown the merits of this property, and invest.

Precipitation, none. Total precipitation from September 1st, 1895, to date, 77.99 inches. Excess of precipitation from September 1st, 1895, to date, 7.91 inch. Forecast—For Washington and Oregon, fair weather, warmer.

AROUND TOWN.

Do good constantly, patiently and wisely, and you will never have cause to say that life was not worth living.—George W. Childs. Cream, cream, cream—Who knows the value of cream in the kitchen and on the table. Fresh separator cream—a production of our county, for sale in suitable and handy pint jars at Foard & Stokes Co. A darning club is the latest fancy of the fashionable. Sweet cream 10c pint. Astoria Creamery, No. 451 Duane street. Mr. C. T. Clark, the well known hotel man, is visiting in the city. Miss Ethelene Mason, of Wolf Creek, is visiting friends in this city. Fresh strawberries every morning at lowest market price. C. B. Smith. The merchants report business as being very good at the present time. John Ethel, was yesterday fined $5 in the police court for being drunk. Miss McCormack left last evening for a trip east via the Canadian Pacific. The finest separator cream in the city at bedrock prices at C. B. Smith's. The Pacific Commission Co will sell today three boxes of strawberries for 25c. Another large consignment of that good butter for 25c roll. Pacific Commission Co. A fisherman who yesterday made his first drift, turned in salmon to the extent of $180. A large variety of fruit etc. arrive today from California for the Pacific Commission Co. A large number of travelling men yesterday, having heard that better times had come to the city, paid the city a visit. If you cannot get fish at 5c lb., you can get fresh Oregon peas at 3c lb. Pacific Commission Co. Contractor Goerlis's men are getting along rapidly with their portion of the work at Smith's point. New 20th Century tan lace shoes for ladies. Columbia Shoe Co., successors to Copeland & Thorsen. "Billy" Wright returned from Portland yesterday, and he did not come with the soldiers, either. Superintendent Wattis is at the front, and the Electric took another lot of men to the camps yesterday. Dr. Baker left for McMinnville, Oregon, last evening, in response to a call from his mother who is dangerously ill. Go to the Spa for your candies and ice cream. The only first-class place in town. Crushed fruits always on hand. Ice cream by the bushel at C. B. Smith's. Ice cream soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 483 Commercial street. Yesterday Foard & Stokes made the first sales of the season of fish boat supplies and outfits. They did a thriving business all day. Observer Grover has very kindly consented to order a continuation of the good weather for the benefit of Gen. Beebe and his men. Kinney's cannery is a busy place just now. It is difficult to say from its appearance whether it is a packing house or a can factory. The frame work for the first story of the Flavel Hotel is now up, and the contractors expect to put the shingles on the roof next week. A raft of three hundred piles for the Flavel railroad dock is expected to arrive today. The scarcity of piles has somewhat delayed this work. The happiest man in town yesterday was Mr. Drennan, when he heard of McKinley's nomination and the strong gold platform that was adopted. The three pile drivers are being worked to their full capacity sixteen hours a day. Before people know it there will be a railroad in town. The railroad engineers are busily engaged in clearing the ground south of Alder Creek, and just west of Flavel for the railroad machine shops. Mr. J. H. Spadons, who was the successful bidder for the largest portion of the new house purchased by the city, left last evening for his home in Portland. The big pile driver is now at work at the foot of Ninth street, and soon the right of way for the railroad will be in good shape for laying ties and rails.

Owing to an unexpected disagreement with the committee, Mr. Belcher finds himself unable to take part in the concert this evening as heretofore announced. Officers of the visiting militia were yesterday driven in a carriage about the city to view the improvements going on here, and to take observations for their own use. The I. R. and N. Company is erecting a new warehouse on the dock to replace the old one which happened to be in the track of the railroad and met with a fatal accident. Wakefield & Jacobson's large water-driver was moved east to Ninth street about 4 o'clock last evening and commenced driving piles, working west. Three bents were driven before dark. A boy, a horse, and a basket of groceries, became frightened in front of Ross, Higgins & Co.'s store yesterday, or rather, the horse did, and the boy very nearly found a seat on the ground. Among the Portlanders registered at the Occident yesterday were W. H. Brown, Frank King, M. M. Harris, C. M. Hodson, Emil Schacht, Graham Glass and wife, Bob May, S. Schmidt, John Tait. The medals for the successful participants in the recent bicycle races given under the auspices of the Astoria Athletic club, will be presented this evening at the concert given by Miss Kelly. McKinley's nomination seemed to meet with favor on all sides as soon as the news became known yesterday. Large crowds stood in front of the Astorian bulletin boards all day and late in the evening. Charles McDonald and Mr. Prael, while riding their wheels yesterday, ran into each other, which resulted in Mr. McDonald receiving a severe cut. Dr. Jansen took the necessary stitches in the wound. The filling made on Grand avenue at the back of the McClue school grounds, was thrown onto the yard by the giving way of the bulkhead, which made a large amount of extra work for the contractors. Every canning company in the city, with the exception of the Scandinavian has one or more plants in operation, and it was understood last night that the Scandinavian people would commence work today. It is requested that all those holding tickets to sell for the firemen's concert tonight, will make report of same by 6 o'clock this evening to the foremen of the different companies, from whom the tickets were received. Among the country visitors yesterday were John Leahy and wife, James Leahy and son, Oliver; Allen Olmstead, Blind Slough; L. Vinson, Skamokawa; J. C. Adams, Clatsop; Max Lange, Deep River, and Harry Brandt, Lewis and Clark. Recorder Gundersen received the following deeds for record yesterday: Charles E. Young to Edward McCoy, five acres, $425; Lucy C. Young to Chas. E. Young, twenty acres, $1; Rufus Malloy to T. Olsen, trustee, Block 5, Upper Astoria, $19,000. It was reported yesterday evening that a detachment of militia arrested two or three men at one of the Uniontown canneries, who were forcibly preventing a fisherman from putting his net into the boat. The disturbers, it is said, are now in the county jail. The concert to be given this evening by Miss Eugene Kelly, in aid of the firemen's tournament, promises to be one of the most enjoyable musical affairs of the season. A large number of tickets have already been sold. The program, published yesterday, speaks for itself. A small child was nearly run over by a team in front of the old Union house last evening. By great presence of mind the teamster stopped the horses just before the hind wheels of the wagon passed over the child's body. A by-stander pulled the little one out of danger. J. F. Wyman, J. A. Maitland, and W. H. Roden, San Francisco; B. A. Seaburg, Ilwaco; H. S. McGowan, Chinook, and E. A. Herman and Dr. W. Chapman, of the Seattle water commission, who are taking notes of Astoria's new system, were guests of the Occident yesterday. For the next ten days we will have the best chemical compound for washing powder in "Soap Foam," as it will not "yellow the clothes," nor burn the hands. It's the finest thing in the world for the bath. One trial will convince you.

a special sale of velvet, silk, and cloth wraps at wholesale prices, the handsomest and best fitting shirt waists, and a large line of duck suits, and wrappers at way down prices. 1, Cohen, Low Price Store, 401 Bond street, corner Eleventh. The launch Uncle Sam and a large fishing boat, both loaded to their utmost capacity, delivered fish at the Cutting cannery yesterday. It was reported that a party of seventy-five or one hundred fishermen endeavored to run out on the dock as the boats approached, but were withheld by the detail of militia on guard. It was stated yesterday that early in the morning a couple of fishermen, who were delivering fish at one of the canneries, were intimidated and threatened by a crowd of strikers. Later in the day the matter was said to have grown out of trouble experienced by one of Kinney's men when returning from fishing. The names of the aggressors were taken by the watchman, and complaint was made, but as no damage was done, the authorities took no action in the matter. A gentleman who came down from Portland yesterday reported that the up-river canneries were literally blocked with salmon, and that a large surplus is being shipped to Astoria every day. It was reported that Kinney received 2000 fish yesterday, and that he shipped the first car of the season east. It is thought that whether an definite understanding is arrived at or not with the men, there will at least be enough fishing here to put a large amount of money in circulation this fall. Yesterday morning word was conveyed to the authorities that a net had been stolen from one of the lower canneries. A boat was seen sailing down the river with the net on board, which Sheriff Hare pursued, overtaking it near Tanay Point, when the property was recovered, and the occupants of the boat placed under arrest and taken to the county jail. The men claimed that there must be some misunderstanding, as they were requested to remove their property and had accordingly done so with the intention of fishing. As there did not appear to be sufficient evidence to hold the men they were released, the net being retained in possession of the cannery. The parlor meeting given by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. at the residence of Mrs. Holmes in Uppertown yesterday, proved to be a grand success. About twenty-five ladies were present. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises conducted by the evangelistic superintendent, Mrs. Bollinger. A question box proved to be a source of much amusement, as well as enlightenment on a number of points. The state president, Mrs. Kinney, was present, and helped greatly to solve numerous questions of much weight. Music and social chit-chat interspersed the exercises pleasantly. Refreshments were served by the hostess, after which the ladies took their departure, expressing themselves as having spent a most delightful afternoon. The ladies of the Union desire to return their most hearty thanks to Mrs. Holmes and her charming daughters for their very hospitable entertainment in their beautiful home.

The right-of-way for the new road from Arch Cape to Nehalem has been practically finished for several days. Grading will probably commence at once, so that the road can be completed within a few weeks' time. Those who have ever travelled over the narrow trail around the face of Necanic Mountain, can appreciate the advantages of a roadway of sufficient width to allow a wagon to go over with perfect safety. That part of the road around the mountain will be a much travelled thoroughfare during the summer time, it being in several places over 600 feet directly above the ocean, and commanding a vista unequalled elsewhere on the coast. The opening of the Nehalem road will undoubtedly lead to an early development of the coal beds in that neighborhood, as well as a large area of government land heretofore inaccessible to take provisions and products in and out. The merchants of this city who aided the enterprise financially will surely reap a rich reward in the near future. Mr. Frank Stokes, who returned yesterday from Puget Sound, told an Astorian reporter that all he heard in that country was mines, mines and mines. Washington has gone wild over the recent rich discoveries made near Spokane, and that city as well as Seattle, is booming like old times. The whole matter is a surprise, even to some of the old Washington settlers. The hotels in Spokane are crowded to their full capacity, men are seen in the streets, drawing maps of their claims in the dust. Mr. Stokes says that the wonderful increase in trade made by the Seattle merchants in Alaska is sure to make a large city out of Seattle in the near future. He thinks that Astoria should have a slice of this business, and that if she had been in touch with affairs, steamers would have been put on between the Columbia river and Alaska which would have brought rich returns to the investors. Mr. Stokes yesterday wrote to the Chamber of Commerce, Portland, to see what arrangements, if any, could be made for the establishment of a line of steamers to run between Portland, Astoria and Alaska.

Sherman & Thing have opened a riding school next door to Pacific Express office. Competent instructors constantly in attendance. Cleveland and Crescent bicycles for sale and rent. PIANO RECITAL. The piano recital given last evening by Miss Barron's pupils, proved to be a treat to all who had the good fortune to hear it. Each and every one of the performers did most excellent work. Little Miss Alice Wright won the most hearty applause in her rendition of the "Slumber Song," by Gurilt. Master Tod Carruthers played Lanyon's "Joyous Momen's" in a way that showed he knew something about music. Annie Hansen's rendition of selections from "Martha," and Master David Morgan's playing of "The Hunter's Horn," won deserved applause. In the second part of the program Miss Gertrude Kearney gave a fine rendition of Leybach's "Fifth Nocturne," and the Misses Lulu and Pearl Estes won over on the beautiful interpretations of "La Campanella," by Egghard, and Heller's "Cradle Song." The gem of the evening was perhaps Mendelssohn's "Tondo Capriccioso," by Miss May Morgan. Miss Morgan is one of the most promising young musicians of the city, and plays with a feeling and grace of execution seldom equalled by one of her age. Others who took part in the entertainment were Miss Frankie Estes, Master Earl Fisher, Miss Lillie Carlson, Miss Grace Stokes, Miss Mary Gramma, Eva Goodman. Space would not permit giving the program in full, and it is sufficient to say that every number was good, and showed most careful and painstaking training. CAMP NOTES. (Continued from First Page.) el's staff, is the man who can say, "Napoleon, he looks like me." Private Burke, of the engineer corps, yesterday sustained a sprain of his foot when descending one of Astoria's precipitous sidewalks. Private McKinley, of Company C, has a severe cold, and was permitted to return home last night. If you chance to be conversing with a soldier who wears epaulettes, every girl who comes along will give you a sweet smile, and pronounce your name in full, when otherwise she probably wouldn't notice you. Wonder why it is?

up of the patient was carried to St. Mary's Hospital, where an examination was made to determine the extent of the injury. Dr. Fulton was seen later in the day, and reported that the man's back had been broken by the wheel, and that he could hardly recover. The name of the injured man was ascertained to be Stinecomb, who recently came here from Hillsboro, Oregon, to work under Contractor Normie, and has been living at the camp on 14th street.
