Astoria Land & Investment Co. 462... Bond Street... Astoria, Or.

New Astoria...

located at the terminus of the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad, at the mouth of the Columbia River.

It fronts on the deep water of the Columbia River Harbor, and being perfectly protected from wind and seas, affords the very best docks for ships on this bay; therefore, it is the exact spot for the seaport of the great Northwest.

These facts were recognized by the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Co. when

New Astoria Was Selected as the Starting Point for their Railroad and the Location for the Terminals.

New Astoria is platted upon a plane high enough for perfect drainage, and well protected by a high ridge behind it.

Its streets and avenues are wide, and, in fact, it is laid out on modern plans.

Extensive street improvements are now under way.

An office has been opened by the proprietors one door east of the Crosby hardware store. Call to be shown the maps of this property, and invest.

Astoria Creamery, No. 421 Duane street. Mr. E. A. Noyes and son, Allen, are in the city, visiting Dr. Tuttle. Fresh strawberries every morning at lowest market price. C. B. Smith. The Dalgity Iron Works is full of work for the railroad and canneries. The finest separator cream in the city at bedrock prices at C. B. Smith's. Judge McBride will arrive this morning and hold a session of the circuit court. Joseph Pompony, W. W. Wright, and J. N. Hall are registered at the Parker house. J. B. Elliott, Elliott's Landing; Sam Roberts, Olney; were in the city yesterday. It was reported that a car of salmon was shipped east last night by the O. O. and N. President T. H. Curtis, of the Northwest Construction Company, left upriver Sunday night. New 20th Century tan lace shoes for ladies. Columbia Shoe Co., successors to Copeland & Thorsen. The steamship Columbia sailed from San Francisco early yesterday morning with a large passenger list. Mr. W. E. Cole went to Portland Sunday night, and while there will look for an opening in business. Mr. C. C. McDonald, who has been spending several days in the city, returned to Portland last night. Go to the Spa for your candies and ice cream. The only first-class place in town. Crushed fruits always on hand. To be perfectly proportioned it is claimed that a man should weigh twenty-eight pounds for every foot of his height. When the American bark Big Bonanza went to sea, she sailed out without a pilot, saving one-half her pilotage charges. Captain Bendegard, of the Signal, has his wife and daughter with him on this trip. They will leave up for Portland this morning. Dr. H. A. Smith, the well known dentist, returned to Astoria Sunday morning, having recently arrived from his European trip. Ice cream by the bushel at C. B. Smith's. Ice cream soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 483 Commercial street. Andrew Dalgity's head now looks something like the recent camping grounds of the militia. It is a little bare of covering. Mr. George H. Strowbridge and private secretary, Norman Pierce, Jr. of Portland, have been in the city on a brief pleasure tour. Captain Martineau came down Sunday to pilot the steamer Arcata up the Coos bay this morning. John Grant, North Shore; T. B. Almy, Skamokawa; James Mahan and M. L. Spear, Elliott's Landing, were in yesterday purchasing supplies. The workmen on the Flavel Hotel are now engaged in the second story. The contractors expect to finish their work before the 15th of August. It is reported in shipping circles that the vessels containing the railroad iron are probably becalmed far out at sea, and may be delayed in getting in. It is reported that the large amount of fish recently delivered to the Scandinavian Packing Co. was so heavy that it broke through the planking. Captain Sullivan, of the steamer Potter, is taking a few days' vacation, his place being supplied by Captain Joe Allen. Captain Will Pope is acting as pilot. Among the arrivals Sunday morning from Portland were Al Cleveland, John McCus, and C. F. Hobson, who have been attending the state university at Eugene. A carload of steel ranges, which it is understood came from St. Louis, arrived yesterday morning and are being sold and delivered about town by agents. The steamer Electric yesterday made a trip to the railroad camps well loaded down with all kinds of supplies, and carrying a number of new men for the works. Tomorrow (Wednesday) being the festival of the nativity of St. John the Baptist, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion in Grace church at 10 o'clock a. m. McClure's Magazine for July will contain a fine series of portraits of Longfellow, most of them from rare originals furnished by Miss Alice Longfellow, the poet's daughter. R. W. Wilbur, O. M. Risser, W. H. Braden, L. P. Gilliam, Portland, and W. A. Wilcox, and H. M. Smith, United States fish commissioners, Washington, D. C., are guests at the Occident. One of Kopp's beer wagons yesterday ran away from the Telephone dock down Bond street towards Uniontown. They were stopped on the hill, and no damage was done to the wagon or team. The Lewis and Clarke baseball club Sunday played the Skippons at Skipanon. The score was 23 to 9. The only features of the game were the home runs, hits and bunts of the winning club. The eastern mail which arrived late yesterday afternoon, covered a period of two days, and the delay was occasioned by the burning of a bridge on the Northern Pacific somewhere in Montana. The Knights care for their sick as is evidenced by the attention shown to the brother who was injured Friday last. Day and night he is cared for by some members of the lodge in this city. The barge Wiatcha arrived down from Portland Sunday morning with the rails to be used for the Flavel extension, and the Seaside branch. The unloading will commence today at Warrenton. Every fisherman on the river knows he could have had four and one-half cents for fish two months ago, and he knows well enough, too, if he is a person of ordinary intelligence, why he didn't get it. Next Sunday, June 23rd, 1896, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. C. Buechler, of Portland, Or., will hold religious services in the German language in the Baptist church on Exchange street. All are cordially invited to attend. Fern Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, gave a social last evening, in honor of Mrs. Helm, of Corvallis, who is grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon. Mrs. Helm will go from here to Portland tonight. Viking Lodge, No. 14, L. O. G. T., will give an entertainment on Saturday evening, June 27, at Rescue hall, for the benefit of the lodge. Admission 25 cents; children 15 cents. A good program has been arranged. Masters Charles R. Wright and Geo. Prescott Wright left Saturday evening on their annual vacation trip. Prescott, after getting his uncle, Alex. Megier, to supply him with a fishing outfit, promised to furnish the Occident with trout. The fourth quarterly meeting of the Methodist church was held on Saturday evening, and on Sunday, the Rev. Dr. Gue, of Portland, presiding elder of the district, was present. The services were very interesting, but lack of space prevents a detailed account. For the next ten days we will have a special sale of velvet, silk, and cloth wraps at wholesale prices, the handsomest and best fitting shirt waists, and a large line of duck suits, and wrappers at way down prices. I. Cohen, Low Price Store, 491 Bond street, corner Eleventh. At the opening entertainment Saturday night at Erickson's, it is estimated that 6,000 people were present. Fifteen barrels of beer, fifteen hams, 150 pounds of turkey, three cases corn beef, three cases boiled eggs, one case of butter, 400 loaves of bread, and cigars and cigarettes without limit, were consumed. When the news reached the Portland militia that they were called to Astoria, they became very patriotic. The company aroused the manager of the east side railway from his sleep and threatened annihilation of his rolling stock if he failed to put the Milwaukee and Portland cars into operation at that dead hour of night, and Corporal Henneman advanced ocular science several degrees by utilizing for the first time a storage sunbeam to discover the best chemical compound for washing powder is "Soap Foam," as it will not "yellow the clothes," nor burn the hands. It's the finest thing in the world for the bath. One trial will convince you.

er the numbers on the houses of militiamen, in the most intense darkness. Mr. A. W. Vosburg, who is a cousin of Mr. J. W. Dubois, of Dubois, Pa., with Mr. J. R. N. Sellwood, of Portland, is in the city, visiting Mr. W. H. Smith. It will be remembered that Mr. Dubois visited Astoria in the spring, looking over the grounds for an investment in a sawmill. Both gentlemen have just returned from Seattle. Mr. Dubois going east from Seattle direct. Mr. Vosburg owns large timber claims in the Nehalem, and says he has the utmost confidence in the lumber business of Astoria, and that they propose soon to take an active part in it. "See here, Mayor Taylor," said a resident of Duane street the other day, "this thing must be stopped. What's the use of a license law if you don't enforce it?" "Well, what's the matter now? What in thunder are you kicking about?" retorted the mayor. "Why sir, the town is full of peddlers, literally overrun with them—and not a move made to stop 'em. It's a bowling shame!" "H'm! I'll have to attend to this. What are they peddling?" "They're peddling bicycles, of course," was the reply; and then the indignant citizen dodged down the alley and made his escape. "Do you know, I rather like the Japanese formalities at the launching of a ship," said a gentleman just returned from a trip abroad. "When we Americans do anything of that kind we break a bottle of champagne on the bows. Of course the custom has significance, whether any one knows what it is or not. The Japanese let loose a lot of pigeons, who fly toward the four quarters of the earth. Exactly what that means I cannot say, but of the two customs I think the prettier one is the product of Japan. Besides, it seems too bad to waste champagne in that way." In discussing the question of expenses of the visit of the militia, a well known lawyer yesterday said that the expense to the county of having the militia here consisted principally in luxuries that might be voluntarily incurred or offered to the troops, and in the rental of grounds for camping purposes, which in this instance, were furnished free. Under the laws of Oregon, the expense now incurred by counties or cities is different from what it formerly was when the militia were entirely enrolled under state laws. Nowadays the militia in nearly every state are enrolled under national guard laws and a large portion of their expenses are borne by the nation. If the Examiners meet with the success while playing over the state that they have in playing in the county, Astoria may have the proud distinction of carrying off the Monarch of the Dalles' coast baseball pennant. The Examiners played at Olney Sunday and another scalp is dangling at their belt. The farmers were batted all over the field. The score was 44 to 11, and in the fourth inning every Examiner fanned out; not that they couldn't hit the sphere, but because such action shortened the game. The boys had a delightful time, excepting perhaps, Bert Ross, who showed a disposition to throw up his situation on the way home. The Examiners have won every game so far played, and their hearts are gradually swelling. Some time this week the Examiners and the A. F. C. nine will come together. As the former team is composed of men, a victory for the latter will be a tall feather in their hats. TO OUR READERS. We wish to call the attention of our readers, and to those who are out of employment, to an advertisement in another part of our paper, of the N. G. Hamilton Pub. Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, asking for men and women to aid the Life of McKinley, one of the best selling books now before the American public, and is the only authentic life, being endorsed by McKinley himself and his most intimate friends. The "Life of Wm. McKinley," Republican candidate for president, by Robert P. Porter, is a story full of inspiration; the life history of a great American who has won success at the bar and in the field of politics. The work contains a full life of Wm. McKinley and of Garrett A. Hobart, together with extracts from many speeches delivered in the house of representatives and in campaigns. It ought to be in every American home. JULY 4TH. To the Public.—The Fourth of July celebration that Frederic Olney and I advertised to occur at Astoria will take place at Alder grove near Grangers' Hall, under the management of the Young's river people. The program will consist of speaking, singing, baseball playing, jumping, foot races, horse races, probably a bicycle race, etc. The dance at Grangers' Hall near the grove will begin at 8:30 p. m. Exercises will commence at 10:30 a. m. The steamer Mayflower will leave Astoria for Grangers' Hall on the morning of July 4. C. J. STUPP. A RICH MAN. They had just arrived in Brooklyn from the Island. They walked across the great bridge. As they approached the New York side they stretched their necks and viewed the massive buildings. "Oh, he must be rich," she ventured. "Who?" "The man who owns all those buildings." "One man doesn't own them all." "Oh, yes he does," she assured him. "How do you know?" he asked. "Because," she said, "his name is on them." "I guess that's so," he agreed, as he looked up at a sky-scraper. "Mr. Quastoria must be pretty rich."—Printers' Ink. BICYCLE ACADEMY. Sherman & Thing have opened a riding school next door to Pacific Express office. Competent instructors constantly in attendance. Cleveland and Crescent bicycles for sale and rent. DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP. Notice is hereby given that the firm of Parker & Hanson, is this day mutually dissolved. Gelo F.
