GOOD-BYE, BOYS OF THE O. N. G.

Work Well Done This Time, and Will Be Welcomed If Needed Again.

SPLENDID ORDER OBSERVED

No instance of Ungentlemanly Conduct or Infraction of the Camp Regulations.—Made Friends with the People.

With many feelings of regret the hosts of friends made by the boys in blue, will be sorry to learn this morning that the remaining companies left up the river for Portland on the steamer Tompson.

There being now no fear of further uneasiness on account of the strike, it has been decided by the authorities that the militia can be removed, and they will, accordingly, under command of Major Gantenbein, and his staff, leave on the steamer Tompson this morning for Portland. The soldier boys have made many friends here. Their uniform gentlemanly deportment, under peculiar trials at times, has been praised on all sides, and their soldier-like bearing and compliance with the rigid discipline and routine which has been maintained at all times in the camp, has won the respect and aroused the pride of all classes of good citizens for the National Guard. Among all the 400 men crowded in narrow camp quarters, there have been no breaches of discipline, save in one petty case, and no rough conduct. No complaints have been heard, even from the most radical of the strikers and others, who protested against their coming and remaining here. While they fraternized as freely as the discipline of their camp permitted, with the citizens generally, it was plain to be seen that they were prepared at any and all times to perform their full duty without fear or favor.

There is scarcely a business man now who does not commend the call of the troops, and that their presence resulted in the settlement of the strike, hundreds of fishermen are willing to testify. Contrary to the reports which have been circulated as to the expense of calling and maintaining the militia here, the expense to Clatsop county will really be insignificant. Those who are in a position to know, say that the entire cost that will fall on the county, cannot exceed $250.

Word has been received from General Beebe that the troops of his command will be held in readiness to return to Astoria should any occasion arise for their services.

CAMP SHOTS.

A warm baby. H. J. Francis.
A good guard. Thos. Canning.
A good thing. Private Spencer.
A nail factory. Private Tuerck.
A crackerjack. Lieutenant Bird.
Reported Mounted—Private Tafford.
A smooth faced boy. Corporal Anderson.

"Give me a pass"—Corporal Walstrum.
A dead popular guy. Corporal Henneman.
"Say Au revoir but not good bye"—Lorenson.
I'd like to shave, but I dare not. Sergeant Morse.
She says I'm the best looking man in camp. Private Mahaffey.
I'm the greatest lady's man in the regiment. Lieutenant Marquam.
Mrs. Coffee, wife of Captain J. Coffey, of Company I, visited her husband yesterday.

Lieutenant Skinner, of the Washington militia, was among the visitors at headquarters yesterday.

The Washington state militia, under command of Captain Adams, were the guests of Camp Lord yesterday.

Sergeant Major Kemp is trying to grow sideburns. He contemplates shaving only his chin after camp.

The two companies made a very creditable showing at drill yesterday. Lieutenant Dunbar was in charge of Company C.
Captain Eastwick Jr., commanding Company, went out and bathed this morning, and in consequence had to buy butter for the boys.
Sergeant Mercer, of Company, received through the mail from New York yesterday a beautiful rosebud grown in the garden of his old home. It is in perfect bloom and is a beauty.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Pendleton, June 23.—Mrs. Haney, keeper of a section crew boarding car on the O. Rand N., at Rock Springs, Idaho, was shot and killed this morning about 4 o'clock, by an unknown man recently discharged from the section. Mrs. Haney's six-months-old child was also killed. Then the murderer committed suicide.

THE RAILROAD PROGRESSING

Contractors Driving Work With a Vim, and Other Contracts About to Be Let.

TIME TO START OTHER WORK

Dry Dock the First Thing Needed if the Competition of the Sound is to Be Headed Off—Others Will Join.

The item published in yesterday's issue announcing that another large dry dock, at a cost of $115,000, is to be constructed at once on Puget Sound, has set many Astorians to thinking. With two dry docks on Puget Sound, which will accommodate large vessels of every description, what will Astoria do to meet such competition? It is well known by shipping men that sailing masters in the merchant marine service, other things being equal, will always seek that port where ample facilities are offered for cleaning and repairing the bottoms of their ships. Even though a vessel's bottom is not in need of extensive repairs, when the means are at hand, almost every ship captain will dock his vessel and clean and polish the bottom. This enables him to make better time on the ocean, and pays good returns to the dock company.

During the recent strike difficulties railroad matters have been somewhat lost sight of. Those who are in touch with the situation, however, know that the contractors are driving the work along the water front most vigorously. A number of pile drivers are engaged, those under Contractor Goerig working west from the can factory, and those under Wakefield & Jacobsen working east from Kinney's cannery, have now crossed Ninth street. The Young's bay bridge is ready for the rails, as is also the grade of the New Astoria branch. New rails will immediately replace the old rails on the Seaside division, where new ties have already been laid, and as soon as the first ship arrives with the heavy steel, it will be laid across the bridge. It is contemplated that if there is any great delay in the arrival of the vessel, some of the iron now on hand will be laid on the bridge temporarily, so as to start the trains from Astoria for the Seaside travel. General Land Agent Goslin, who returned yesterday from Helena, Mont., where he went to meet his wife, says that all matters are progressing as rapidly as possible, and it is thought that Mr. Curtis, who is now in Portland, will complete the Wolfe contract for the main line grading before his return to Astoria.

Architect Delin is getting along well with the plans and specifications for the Scov Bay depot, for which it is anticipated that bids will soon be called. It is probable that the bids for the Warrenton depot will be opened and the contract let in the near future.

With all these affairs under way on the railroad, it would seem that the time had certainly arrived for some activity on the part of Astorians to develop the wonderful resources at their door. First and foremost there must be a dry dock with sufficient capacity to accommodate not only the largest sailing vessels, but the largest war vessels in the white navy. That such an enterprise would be a paying one none have dared to question. That it is needed on the Columbia river was demonstrated many years ago. That Astoria needs it now is a well known fact. That Astoria will have such a dry dock cannot be doubted. Let the ball be started to rolling by the citizens themselves, and foreign capital will soon fall into the procession. Delays in these matters are dangerous. A well known capitalist of Portland when here the other day, said:

"I am thoroughly in sympathy with the movement of affairs in Astoria, and firmly believe in its future prosperity. But you cannot afford to be always waiting on someone else. The moment that the main line contract is let to Goble, a number of us have on the way half a dozen different enterprises which will be commenced at once; but first and foremost you people want to start in for a dry dock. Manufacturers and other improvements will follow."

Mr. Goslin said that while in Montana he met a number of people who owned timber lands in the Nebalem and who proposed to develop them as soon as matters were in proper shape here.

A REGATTA WILL YET BE HELD

The Committee Has Been Requested to Revive the Scheme at Once.

ASTORIA NEEDS THE FETE

Business Men Generally in Favor of It Rather Than a Fourth of July Celebration—Former Event Should Be Maintained.

A well directed effort is now being made to have the annual regatta this fall after all. The management of affairs some time ago was given up by the special committee, and turned back to the Astoria Football Club. The completion of affairs has so changed in the past few days and the sentiment of the business men is so strongly in favor of not letting a season go by without a regatta, that the original committee will in all probability resume its labors and complete the necessary arrangements for the regatta.

The annual boat racing on the river brings together thousands of people in the city, and for a season such as this there can be no more fitting form of public entertainment. The events in the past years have won many laurels for the city, and just on the eve of a larger growth it seems a pity to discontinue these occasions which afford so much amusement to the masses.

The consensus of opinion of a large number of business men consulted yesterday afternoon, was that as between a Fourth of July celebration and the regatta, the latter should by all means be chosen. If the state of general finances is not such as to justify two entertainments, if the regatta is decided upon as the public fair or show day of the year, it is certain that the Fourth will not be forgotten in any event. The firemen's tournament, which will be held at the same time, will furnish sufficient variety to the program on land as will destroy all tediousness. Let there be a regatta by all means, and at any cost. By that time the railroad will have been completed from Seaside into the city, and several important events can be celebrated together.

WASHINGTON POPULISTS.

Adopt a Money Plank and Elect Delegates to St. Louis.

Tacoma, June 23.—"Colonel" Mary E. Hobart, of Whatcom, was today defeated in her candidacy for delegate to the Populist convention at St. Louis, receiving 72 votes while 78 were required.

Eleven out of the fourteen counties in western Washington were represented at the Populist convention held today to elect nine delegates to the national convention, Wahkiakum, Skamania and Island were the counties unrepresented. A total of 154 delegates were present.

A spirited fight was waged for two hours over the adoption of the plank reading:

"As the question of financial legislation is the overshadowing question at issue, we hereby reaffirm our demands for a currency safe, sound and flexible, issued by the general government without the intervention of national banks or other private corporations, and that said currency shall consist of gold, silver or paper and that all money so issued shall be full legal tender and be based upon the government's promise to receive and not upon its promise to redeem in coin."

The minority, which characterized this plank as a movement toward fusion on the silver issue, was finally fought down and the plank adopted by a large majority.

The balance of the platform declares for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1; reaffirms devotion to the cardinal principles of the Omaha platform touching the questions of finance and transportation.

A resolution congratulating Senator Teller and his associates was supported by many speakers, but voted down after a lively debate. Sixteen nominations for delegates to St. Louis were made, and nine elected.

THE ILLINOIS DEMOCRATS

Altgeld, the "Terror," Once Again Made Their Standard Bearer.

NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION

Convention in Session Only a Little More Than Five Hours—All in Favor of Free Silver and So Instructed Delegates.

Peoria, Ill., June 23.—For governor, John P. Altgeld, of Chicago.

Lieut.-Governor, Monroe C. Crawford, of Union county.

Secretary of State, Finis F. Downing, of Cass county.

Auditor, Edward C. Pace, of Washington county.

Attorney General, Geo. A. Trude, of Chicago.

University Trustees, Julia Holmes Smith, R. N. Morgan, M. W. Graham.

Delegates at large, John P. Altgeld, S. P. McConnell, W. H. Hinrichsen, George W. Fithian.

National committeeman, Thomas G. Hahn, of Chicago.

John P. Altgeld is the nominee of the Democratic party for governor of Illinois. He was unanimously placed at the head of the ticket. He had no opponent and a few moments before the honor was thrust upon him, declared he did not want it. He said so at the conclusion of one of the most impressive speeches ever made before a Democratic convention. He said he was physically unable to lead the fight and his financial affairs were in bad shape and needed his attention. No sooner had he mentioned his desire to retire from public life than there came an impassioned shout of disapproval, not only from the delegates, but from the thousands of people who were crowded in the hall.

It was a strange convention, and will not soon be forgotten. It was in session only a little over five hours. Nearly all of the candidates were nominated by acclamation. There was no strife. There were no acrimonious speeches, save those directed against the enemy.

The convention, as had been predicted, came out strongly for free silver and so instructed its delegates at large to the national convention. The platform was almost diametrically opposed in all its parts to that of the Republican party and the 1965 delegates voted unanimously for its adoption.

IN WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, June 23.—Free silver developed unexpected strength in the Democratic state convention today. Until within three weeks the gold standard adherents were supposed to be overwhelmingly in the majority in the Wisconsin Democracy, but when the test vote came this afternoon on the adoption of the minority and majority reports from the committee on resolutions, the silver men were found to have 123 of the 340 delegates in the convention. The delegates at large to the national convention are all gold standard advocates and are headed by Senator Vilas and General Edward Bragg. District delegates chosen today by the district delegation include several silver men, but will be governed by the unit rule. They have no preference for presidential candidate.

WESTERN WASHINGTON.

Populists Have an Interesting Session in Tacoma.

Tacoma, June 23.—The Populists of Western Washington held a district convention here today to elect nine delegates to the national convention to be held at St. Louis, July 22. To save travelling expenses six district conventions were held in Eastern Washington to elect a total of eight delegates, the entire state being entitled to seventeen delegates. The conventions there were held at North Yakima, Colville, Spokane, Sprague, Dayton and Colfax. In opening the Western Washington convention this morning, Chairman Bulger, of the state committee, pleaded earnestly with the delegates to stand by the people's party and keep in the middle of the road. He nearly broke down crying during the course of his passionate plea. The convention was against him, the platform adopted paving the way for fusion, at least in Western Washington.

Andrew Dalgity was the holder of the lucky number which drew the bicycle at Crosby's raffle last night. He treated the boys afterwards.

NAVARRE IS AGAIN HIMSELF

Winner of the New York Suburban Remarkably Fast Time.

SECOND CHOICE IN BETTING

Another Victory Added to August Belmont's String—Twenty Thousand People Shout Themselves Hoarse at the Finish.

New York, June 23.—Henry of Navarre is surely himself again, for in the fast time of 1:07 he won the suburban today from some of the best horses in training, and did it with consummate ease.

For some unknown reason he was second choice to Clifford in the betting, and from the time they left the post until they had finished there was little doubt as to the result. It was a grand victory in a true run race, and August Belmont has another victory added to his already long string. To win the suburban is one of the aims of every horse-owner.

It was a beautiful start, all well placed, with no possibility for complaint, the top weights being kept standing until they were tired. The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good speed, with Belmar a shade in advance of the others. Passing the judges' stand for the first time, the furlong being covered in 0:12 1/2, the half mile was reached in 0:50. At the five furlong pole Griffin gave Navarre a bit of the bridle, and he stepped up to the two leaders. Around the turn into the stretch they flew, and as they passed the mile pole at 1:41 Griffin gave Navarre a little more rein. Commoner was only a head in front, while Clifford had got into third place, a length behind. As they struck the out for the home, Taral began as none but Taral can. Only a few Tom Boms and Navarre had not a tenth the best of it. Griffin looked on one side of him at Commoner and saw him laboring, and then on the other side at Clifford, with Taral working like a beaver, and smiled. The race was his beyond question, for he could feel his horse going easily under him, while his most dangerous rival, Clifford, was blowing like a grampus. The timers' watches stopped at 2:37 as Navarre passed the post, as easily as if he were out for an exercise gallop. Navarre cantered back to the post amid the wild hurrahs of 20,000 people, with scarcely a hair turned, one of the best specimens of a race horse seen in many a day.

ELECTIONS IN CANADA.

Toronto, June 23.—While the returns of the Dominion elections are not all in, they are sufficiently near complete to show a decided defeat for the government. The Catholic vote, upon which the ministry relied, has utterly failed to go conservative. Quebec, which in the last election gave the liberals a majority of only five votes, and which, on the strength of the remedial legislation to which the government is pledged, was expected to go strongly conservative, has wheeled around and given the liberals from twenty to twenty-five majority.

By provinces, the returns at midnight show the following:

Ontario—Conservative, 25; Liberal, 37.
Quebec—Conservative, 11; Liberal, 32; Independent, 1.
Nova Scotia—Conservative, 8; Liberal, 10.
New Brunswick—Conservative, 8; Liberal, 5.
Prince Edward's Island—Conservative, 2; Liberal, 3.

The general result shows most disastrously for the government: Conservatives, 65; Liberals, 98; Patrons, 2.

LIBERALS LEAD.

Toronto, June 23.—The Dominion government has been defeated. Up to 10 p. m., 156 constituencies out of 215 have been heard from, giving the liberal party a large majority.

CONSERVATIVES WIN.

Victoria, B. C., June 23.—Prior and Parle, conservatives, were elected over Milne and Templeton, liberals, the vote being 1653, 1564; 1351 and 1461 respectively.

The Republican party not only wants American workmen to have the highest wages in the world, but it also wants these wages paid in the best money in the world.
