FOR FAIR PLAY.

The Boston Standard says: McKinley's success has made him the target of a myriad of darts of detraction and calumny. He is "Major Mum," he is "Hanna's puppet," he is the "effigy of a man in Canton flannel," he is the "child of chance," the "wooden figurehead" of the tariff that bears his name. Fortunately, no true man has ever been overcome by mud-slinging. As Dr. Sam Johnson pithily remarked, Teller as Colorado's favorite son, there by anyone but himself." The silly attempt being made to croate the impression that the citizens of Astoria are unpatriotic if they hold the regatta in preference to celebrating July 4th is scarcely worthy of notice. While the Astorian believes America's great day should always be fittingly observed, the fact remains nevertheless The Weekly Astorian, the second oldest | that it is rather late to begin collecting money for such a purpose. Then, again, everybody celebrates the Fourth, anyway. If Astorians wish to contribute funds to observe the Fourth, as well as along with seven-eighths of the people of this city, that the great annual car nival should not be allowed to lapse for a single year. The great battleship Oregon can be secured for this occasion and this, with the attraction of the firemen's tournament, will assure thousands of visitors. A canvass of the city shows that nearly everyone favors holding the regatts; and it will be held.
