The Astorian guarantees to its subscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be had on application to the business manager.

The Weekly Astorian, the second oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has, next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

The father of the young actress who challenged Corbett to fight a fish contest, committed suicide at his home in Batavia, New York, soon after reading the account in the papers.

There is a diamond here a piece of charcoal. Both carbon, yet between them stands the mightiest of magicians—Nature.

We cannot make a diamond; we cannot make flesh, blood and bone.

By means of the Shaker Digestive Cordial we can enable the stomach to digest food which would ferment and poison the system.

LANOLIN is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

It does seem too ridiculous to dress a child of three years in mourning.

The English newspapers seem to be determined to cause the election of McKinley.

There was one statement made by Senator Vilas in his speech at the Wisconsin Democratic convention which deserves republication.

Priests have fallen for some things and for others they have raised, but one thing in respect to which the price has not fallen, the one thing which has gone up steadily since the gold standard has been human labor.

Electric meters is a medicine used for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, advanced feeling prevails.

There is no dress so far as expense is concerned, for not having the dinner table made heavy with floral decorations.

The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Corns, and All Skin Eruptions.

Why is it that country visitors feel it beneath their dignity to show any interest in the unusual city sights.

So the workingman has been a grainer under the gold standard, both as a producer and a consumer.

There's more clothing destroyed by poor soap than by actual wear.

Therefore, why should the workingman vote to abolish the gold standard.

under which he has faced so many and substituted for it a silver standard.

MARVELOUS RESULTS.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gustafson, Minneapolis, Minn., we are permitted to make this extract.

It would be safe to stake a good round sum that a linen duster could not be obtained for love or money these days.

In Medieval Days

When people wanted anything they knifed down and grazed for it. However, that was some time ago.

In This Enlightened Day

There are many newspapers—a matter of fact, and it is in itself an impossibility to get a newspaper to admit it.

Want Columns

That is, a column, or a number of columns, devoted to small advertisements.

It Is Needless

To tell of the Astorian's circulation. The paper has been established for a quarter of a century.

Why, Just Think!

The Astorian goes into every home in Astoria, and in the surrounding sections of Oregon and Washington.

A Bit of Advice

When you want anything—no matter what it is—when you have anything for sale, when you want to get well acquainted with your neighbors.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Parasites are very elegant and luxurious very expensive.

Declaration of Principles OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The Republicans of the United States, assembled by their representatives in National Convention, appealing for the popular and historical justification of their claims to the matchless achievements of thirty years of Republican rule.

The Financial Issue.

The Republican party is unreservedly for sound money. It caused the enactment of the law providing for the resumption of specie payments in 1875.

Pensions for Veterans.

The veterans of the Union armies deserve and should receive fair treatment and generous recognition.

Foreign Relations.

Our foreign policy should be at all times firm, vigorous and dignified, and all our interests in the western hemisphere carefully watched and guarded.

Admission of Territories.

We favor the admission of the remaining territories at the earliest practicable date, having due regard to the interests of the people of the territories.

Alaska Representation.

We believe the citizens of Alaska should have representation in the congress of the United States.

Sumptuary Legislation.

We sympathize with all wise and legitimate efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of temperance and promote morality.

Rights of Women.

The Republican party is mindful of the rights and interests of women. Protection of American industries includes equal opportunities, equal pay for equal work and protection to the home.

Independence of Cuba.

From the hour of achieving their own independence the people of the United States have regarded with sympathy the struggles of other American peoples to free themselves from European domination.

Enlargement of the Navy.

The peace and security of the Republic and the maintenance of its rightful influence among the nations of the earth demand a naval power commensurate with its position and responsibility.
