The advent of free-silver coinage would be instantly attended by a withdrawal of the gold stock from circulation. This withdrawal is inevitable on the ground of the recognized Gresham law that in the event of free coinage the coin of least bullion value will supplant the coin of greater bullion value. The operation of this law has been invariable in the monetary experience of the world. Such a withdrawal would cause a contraction of our currency unexampled in American history. Instead of having more money in circulation there would be a money famine from Maine to Arizona. The pinching of credit would be inevitable, and fearfully disastrous to every business interest. The only good thing under this black cloud would be the utter collapse of the free-silver coinage hum-

THE SUBSTITUTION OF HANNA.

It is evident that the Democratic cumpaign will be largely devoted to the substitution of M. A. Hanna for William McKinley. It has already been proclaimed by the Democrats that the election of McKinley will practically mean the election of Hanna, who will the alleged Warwick who made him.

This is really quite an artful scheme of assault. Thus far the campaign dragnet has failed to bring even a tinge Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly of scum to the surface discreditable to McKinley's private life and personal integrity, but there is still some hope of besmearing him in raking over the record of his substitute-Hanna. In fact, it is announced by one of the newspapers, which are carrying on the and $1.00. campaign work most ardently, that it has scraped up a pile of scandal touch- thetic. If a man says "I am unhaping Hanna's relations with his work- py," their pity is in peril of becom ingmen, which it proposes to expose from time to time in the most damaging way possible to the McKinley cam- Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

He has had an honorable. and successful business life, and his character has never been seriously threatened or assailed until he exposed himself to wanton calumny by his entrance into the campaign for his friend, McKinley. Probably he would face the mud-throwing with silent contempt, if he alone was the object of the pelting. But he will be justly indignant, as every honest man should be, at the attempt to cover McKinley with the mud ostensibly cast at his leading backer. The design will probably fail of its end in detracting votes from Mc-Kinley to any considerable extent, for its palpable injustice cannot be disguised, and before the end of the campaign McKinley will have marked his own individuality so unmistakably on the stump that he cannot be compared with Hanna or any other prominent

Mark Hanna is not the Republican candidate for president in any sense, and he will not be president when Mc-Kinley is elected. William McKinley has a mind of his own, a will of his own, and a conscience of his own, as nobody will deny if he lives to be the president of the United States for a term of four years.

The silver bug should not delude himself with the idea that the only enemy he has to combat is the gold bug. There are others, says the Times-Herald. The copper bug is abroad in the land. His headquarters are not in the Auditorium. He is not backed by and senatorial syndicate. The owners of the big copper mines in the Lake Superior region have not guaranteed a big corruption fund for the campaign in case a copper bug is nominated for president. But the copper bug is making good headway just the same. His arguments are finding fixed lodgment in the minds of many who have rejected the gold bug and the silver bug. His theories are not constructed with special reference to the copper business. They are built on the same lines of architecture adopted by the silver bugs. For the first time since the Civil War the American people have witnessed the calamitous consequences of full and unrestrained Democratic control of the Government. It has been a record of unparalled incapacity, disoner and disaster. In administrative management it has ruthlessly sacrificed indispensible revenue, entailed an inceasing deficit, eked out ordinary urrent expenses with borrowed money, oiled up the public debt by $262,000,000 in time of peace, forced an adverse balance of trade, to a perpetual menace hanging over the redemption fund, pawned American credit to alien syndicates and reversed all the measures and results of successful Republican rule. In the broad effect of its policy it has precipitated panic, blighted industry and trade with prolonged depression, closed factories, reduced work and wages, halted enterprise and crippled American production while stimulating foreign production for the American market. Every consideration of public safety and individual interest demands that the government shall be rescued from the hands of those who have shown themselves incapable of conducting it without disaster at home and dishonor abroad, and shall be restored to the party which for thirty years administered it with unequaled mocess and prosperity.
