TODAY'S WEATHER. Forecast—For Washington and Oregon, fair weather.

AROUND TOWN.

Why blowst thou not, thou wintry winds. Now every leaf is brown and red, And lily droops, to thee resigned. The fading chaplet of the year? Yet wears the pure, aerial sky Her summer veil, half drawn on high Of silvery haze, and dark and still The shadows sleep on every slanting hill.

Enjoy yourself—at the firemen's ball Friday night.

Dr. W. I. Howard, Homoeopathist, 586 Commercial street.

If Snodgrass doesn't make your photos you don't get the best.

Remember the Firemen's dance at A. F. C. hall Friday evening.

Gunther's famous Chicago candles in sealed packages at C. H. Smith's.

The crowds increased largely yesterday in attendance upon the regatta.

One of the events of the tournament—the firemen's ball on Friday evening.

Bugers' Chocolate Tablets destroy all kinds of worms in children. Try them.

Regatta Cocktails, cool and refreshing, can be had at The Office, Eleventh street.

Well furnished rooms, with or without board, at the Bartholomew House, Seaside.

Special sale of choice Oregon cantaloupes today, regardless of cost. Ross, Higgins & Co.

County Clerk Dunbar yesterday issued a marriage license to Erick Passo and Anna Anderson.

Mr. J. W. Kelly, of the Evening Tribune, Portland, is in the city with his wife attending the regatta.

At the Hotel Gearhart, Gearhart Park, the cuisine is the best and the rates only $2.00 per day upwards.

Mr. N. J. Judah, of the local department of the Oregon Statesman, Salem, is visiting in the city with his wife.

The Ninth street merry-go-round was the center of attraction last evening. The boys and girls were having lots of fun.

Bills for the Shanahan building were opened yesterday by Architect Ferguson, but no awards have as yet been made.

The weather took a turn for the better yesterday, although the wind was not as strong as might have been desired.

Go to the Spa for your candles and ice cream. The only first-class place in town. Crushed fruits always on hand.

Carbons are the only permanent photos as well as the most artistic, and Snodgrass knows how to make them.

Ice cream by the bushel at C. B. Smith's. Ice cream soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 453 Commercial street.

The police court yesterday did not grind a very large grist. The wheat was so poor and smutty that it did not pay to run the mill.

Contractor Jacobsen yesterday commenced work on the foundation for Foard & Stokes' new warehouse on upper Exchange street.

Mrs. F. N. Byrd, of Ghanna station, near Gearhart Park, Clatsop Beach, will take boarders during the regatta at very reasonable prices.

Mr. D. C. O'Reilly, assistant general freight agent, and Mr. C. F. Overbaugh, traveling freight agent of the C. R. and N., were in the city yesterday.

Stockholders of the Astoria Building and Loan Association are notified that stock in Series No. 1 will be paid Monday, August 24th, at 10 a. m. W. L. Robb, secretary.

The regular weekly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Rescue parlors this afternoon at 2 o'clock. All visiting members in the city are cordially invited to be present.

A Jame man from Portland, selling buttons for a living, said yesterday that last year he sold as many Democratic as Republican. Now he is selling sixteen McKinley buttons to one Bryan button. Speaking of the situation, he remarked that there were just two reasons for not trusting a man. One is you know him, and the other you don't know him.

Judge Nelson yesterday suggested to Andrew Dalgity that he was disgusted with the minstrel show Tuesday night because Andrew's partner on the stage neglected to use a good opportunity to impress an object lesson on the audience by teaching Dalgity how to reduce his rent—he could have sewed up the part in the middle of his coat which was slit from top to bottom in the back.

Mr. J. W. Reith, of the Lewis and Clarke, the contractor for the subscribers to complete the road from Seaside to the west side of Young's river, opposite Williamsport, was in attendance upon the regatta yesterday. He says that he will have the road finished by Saturday, the 22nd, and if the city council of Astoria and the county court do not build the approaches soon the farmers of the Lewis and Clarke will have to give up trying to get into Astoria for another year.

The handsome quarters courteously provided by R. L. Boyle in his office for the use of the press committee in entertaining the Oregon Press Association, are now in readiness for today's work. The rooms and entire office are the most handsomely decorated of any of the buildings on Commercial street.
