THE ASTORIA RAILROAD.

As a sample of the opinions express ed by the editors who visited Astoria during regatta week, the following from Editor Noltner, of the Portland Dis-

"The work of construting the Astoria ratiroad is progressing rapidly. Last Bunday the first train went out of Astoria to Seaside, and while traffic has not been opened, the city is now virtually connected with the scashore There is noticeable activity at Playel where the iron for the road is being discharged and the erection of an elegant hotel building is being pushed to completion as fast as possible. This structure is a model of architecture and beautiful in design, and has all the modern improvements. It is the purpone of the company to open the hotel as soon as completed, and it is to be on the first-class order. The company also proposes to erect at this place an elevator, warehouses, turn tables, and Jan machine shops. It is to be the terminus of the road, and as the company has large landed interest at this point there can be no doubt but what there will be quite a city in the near future at Flavel. There is a good harbor in The Sutherlandshire did not get out front of this place with deep water, to sea last evening, but will probably and there is no reason why the expectations of the promoters of this enterprise should not be realized. Flavel is The steamer Columbia arrived in situated on a fine tract of land, being from San Francisco early yesterday perfectly level and surrounded by beautiful parks. It is the intention of the company to improve and beautify these Mar grounds. The distance between Astoria and Flavel by rail is so short that they are virtually one, and no doubt they will both reap a mutual benefit by May this enterprise. It is evident that the money and energy necessary to success is behind this enterprise.
