SEWALL THE FOE OF LABOR

Watson Pleads With the People of Texas That They Let Him Alone.

LABOR AGAINST MONOPOLIES

McKinley and Hobart Represent the Enemies of Labor, and Sewall Represents the Same Thing—A Railroad King.

Dallas, Sept. 7.—Thomas Watson, of Georgia, vice-presidential nominee of the Populist party, addressed a labor day audience of 5,000 people at the fair grounds today. He speaks at Benham, Texas, tomorrow, and from there goes to Kansas.

Watson pleaded with the people to stand to the contract made between the laborers and farmers in St. Louis in 1889, and the people's party, which represents that contract.

McKinley and Hobart represent the enemies of labor and Sewall represents the same thing," he said. "Sewall is just the opposite of Bryan in every thing."

He said the present fight was the South and West against the East; labor against monopolies. Sewall was a national banker, railroad king and a tool in the hands of capital.

DOCTOR NANSEN THE EXPLORER

Fisher and Jackson Had a Meeting With the Adventurous Norwegian.

IN FAR FRANZ JOSEF LAND

Landed at Vardoe Island—The Map of Franz Josef Land Entirely Changed—A Great Sea Where Payer's Map Shows Land.

(Copyrighted, '96, by Associated Press) London, Sept. 7.—Henry Fisher, botanical curator to the College Museum University, Nottingham, and botanist of the Jackson and Harnsworth Arctic expedition, now entering on its second winter on Franz Josef Land, reached Gravesend on Saturday with four companions by the expedition supply steamer Windward.

The vessel landed Dr. Nansen, the Norwegian explorer, at Vardoe Island, in an interview Fisher furnished further details of the meeting of the two parties on the ice, and a letter from F. G. Jackson, just received, throws additional light upon an interesting chapter in northern exploration history.

Jackson's letter is addressed to A. C. Harnsworth and continues the story. He wrote: "Hearing that some one had been on the ice, I started to meet him. I saw a man on the pack ice southeast of Cape Flora, and a second person further off."

"I fired several shots to attract their attention and after an hour's walk met a man in skin and imagined he was a walrus hunter who had come to grief somewhere. Approaching nearer we noticed that he was as black as a stoker, and that from head to foot his clothes were covered with grease. We shook hands. In spite of his long black hair and smoke black skin, I thought he was Dr. Nansen, whom I had known in London, so I exclaimed: 'Are you not Dr. Nansen?'"

"Yes, I am Nansen," was his reply. Jackson also sent by the Windward a resume of his diary kept during the past year and maps of his own making which entirely alter the geography of Franz Josef Land. He has discovered a great sea where the map of Payer, the Austrian explorer, shows land. This sea, which Jackson has named Queen Victoria Sea, he thinks extends without a break from about 70 miles north of his winter quarters to within three degrees of the pole, and is considered by far the most important body of water yet discovered in these parts.
