only one of the many ways of raising revenue. We have to pay a heavy duty on everything we send from Mexico, as well as on everything we import. On the coffee I export I am force ed to pay 1% cents per pound. All gold or silver exported is taxed 2 per cent

Mr. Mordaunt showed the government report for the past year, in which the export duties received on the products were enumerated. Among the fist were deer and goat skins, $41,625; hides, $22,500; grass, $19,200; flax, $21,500; chewing gum, $15,000; dye, weed, $2009,

"I show you this list," said Mr. Mordaunt, "to show you that the government of Mexico taxes everything raised within its borders for export or imported from any other country. In addision to the regular export and import duties innumerable special taxes are levled.
