This is a fact within recorded experience which of itself

Ex-Governor Anthony, of Kansas, who died last summer, left behind him a forcible illustration of the difference between intrinsically honest and dishonest money. "Suppose," he said, "that a person had a $10 bill issued by the Roman government at the time of its greatest power and glory. How much would that bill be worth today, and who would redeem it? But if the same person had a Roman eagle coined at that time it would be as good as it was when Caesar rode at the head of the Roman legions,"

Some time ago the Astorian called attention to the mischievous consequences likely to result from a certain press report sent from here regarding the experience of some ships in passing out of the river. The dispatch referred to has already had a wide circulation, and is doubtless yet continuing its evil mission. Symptoms of what would certainly happen are already being manifested, though the election is a good six weeks distant, and a majority of those who are most influential in commercial and financial affairs are yet confident that the intelligence and integrity of the American people will defeat the scheme of repudiation and national dishonor.
