The work of repairing Bond street between 12th and 14th, is rapidly nearing completion, and the street cars will soon be able to resume their regular route.

F. J. Schofield is an expert at flower and general landscape gardening, and offers his services for such work at a reasonable rate. Leave word at Astorian office.

The change in the weather last night was something of a surprise and not a very agreeable one, either to those who have not yet put in their wood, or to the street corner politician.

John Bunke and wife, Wallusk; J. C. Hobson, Nehalem; S. G. Williams, editor of the Skamokawa Eagle; L. Mackin, Ocean Park, and J. Leahy and wife, Olney, were in the city yesterday.

Notice is given that the Astoria Sail Loft will be closed from and after today, October 2, for a period of about three months, on account of the absence of the proprietor from the city.

The Hotel Flavel will probably be opened for business the latter part of this month. A bargeload of furniture is reported on the way down the river, which will be at once placed in the hotel.

There are still a number of dangerous holes in Commercial and Bond streets in the main portion of the city. Attention was called to one or two yesterday which nearly caused a serious accident.

Don't forget that Joe Hays, the comedian, with the Woodmen's Dramatic Union, of Portland, and who has been drawing crowded houses in Salem, The Dalles, Oregon City and Portland, will be in Astoria on the 10th.

The tariff orators, both in the halls and on the streets seem to have the best of the political argument. According to their ideas as expressed by an interested gathering on Bond street yesterday afternoon, the money matter will take care of itself.

A number of the members of the A. F. C. contemplate organizing an intercollegiate football team, and a meeting for this purpose will be held at the club rooms this evening at 8 o'clock. All interested in this branch of athletics are invited to attend.

Politics, politics, politics, nothing but politics everywhere. The interest of the people in this campaign is a general one and both men, women and children are arguing for sound money or free silver, even though many of them have to go without their dinner for the sake of talking.

agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad, with headquarters at St. Paul, arrived in the city yesterday, and took the early morning boat to Ilwaco, to spend a day or two with his family, who have been summering there. Mr. Fee came west with a party of officials of his line, including President E. W. Winter, General Manager J. W. Kendrick, Chief Engineer E. H. McHenry, Chairman Adams, of the reorganization committee, and others. The object of the trip was merely that of the business inspection of the property of the company, and has no particular significance.

A well known merchant yesterday called attention to the fact that never before in a series of twenty years, has there been such wide-spread interest in a national election as is now exhibited on ever hand. Every street corner has become a rostrum from which some interested voter or crank, as the case may be, expounds his ideas to the crowds always ready to gather upon such an occasion. One of the enthusiasts yesterday, after listening for a while to arguments pro and con on the money question, said he thought the masses of the people were more extensively informing themselves upon the paramount issues of this campaign than upon any previous campaign within his memory.

At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon Architect Schacht tested the new machinery in the Kopp brewery by getting up steam with a donkey engine. A number of guests were present including many well known business men of Portland. The test proved entirely satisfactory, not a flaw being found in any of the complicated machinery, and not a change will have to be made in any part of it. Mr. Schacht says this is an exceptionally fine record, and highly complimented the machinery men. Mr. Henry Olsen, representing the firm of Olsen & Tegner, contractors who placed the machinery in the house, was present at the time the test was made. Mr. Olsen has been in Astoria some time superintending the erection of the machinery, and was much gratified at the successful experiment yesterday afternoon. In talking with an Astorian representative, that gentleman said that in Chicago business matters, proportionately, were in much worse condition than in Astoria. Factories have been closed, and in others the number of employes greatly reduced. He said they anticipated, however, after the election of McKinley there will be a general revival of business and activity in all lines.

Da Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is an antiseptic, soothing and healing application for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises, etc., and cures piles like magic. It instantly stops pain. Charles Rogers.

RAILROAD MEN. Visit Astoria and Spend the Day in Viewing the Sights of the Great Harbor.

Yesterday morning Mr. Charles S. Fee, general passenger agent, St. Paul; Mr. A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent, Portland, of the Northern Pacific Railroad; Mr. H. C. Bowers, manager of the Portland Hotel, and Judge C. H. Carey, of Portland, arrived on the steamer Thompson. Mr. Fee immediately took the boat to Ilwaco for a few days' outing, and the rest of the party remained in the city as the guests of Mr. L. B. Seeley and Mr. W. C. Smith.

After visiting some of the canneries and calling on the various business men in the morning, the party, accompanied by Mr. E. A. Seeley, W. G. Gosselin, J. M. Turney and others, took the Dwyer ferry for Flavel. The sail down the harbor was a fine one, and as each of the dozen ocean sailing vessels lying at anchor in the stream was passed, the visitors began to realize that Astoria is something of a seaport. As Smith's Point was reached, the view up Young's River, with Saddle Mountain standing out clearly in the distance, was a magnificent one. At Flavel a landing was made and for an hour the gentlemen were shown about Fulwood Park and through the new hotel. All of the visitors expressed themselves as much surprised at the results which have been accomplished in so short a time, and were much pleased with the beautiful situation of the building and grounds.

Mr. Bowers, who is a practical hotel man, was unqualified in his praise of the various arrangements, and predicted great things for the new house. Judge Carey said that he had been led to believe the whole affair was second class; but was glad to see that every detail was above the average.

Speaking of his trip, Mr. Charlton said that it had no special significance, and was only an offshoot of the inspection trip by the head officials of his line, and that he himself and friends had only come down for a day's outing and to accompany Mr. Fee, who wanted to visit his family at North Beach. The Astoria trip, he said, was one purely of pleasure.

Several members of the party left for Portland on last night's boat, and the rest of them will go up this morning.

CHEAP MONEY IN SWEDEN.

In spite of the stamp of the government upon each of them declaring it to be worth one silver thaler. One ore was the bullion value of the coin. At last Sweden had enough and more than enough of 'cheap money.' The fluctuation in the value of copper had enriched a few speculators at the expense of tens of thousands of their compatriots.

The Swedish farmer suffered as much as any other citizen, and possibly more; for during the hard times he was compelled to sell his farm; he had received for it in payment this 'calamity copper coin,' and now he had nothing left except the bits of depreciated copper known in Swedish parlance as kopperslantar pennies. The farm laborer, who had doted himself every comfort in life and put away his hard and scanty earnings in the hope of being able some day to purchase and own a farm, was practically swindled out of the results of his frugality and self-denial.

A Swedish poet, Carl Snoilsky, in a poem entitled 'Vernamo Marknad' (the Vernamo Fair) has depicted in a pathetic manner the grief of a Swedish farm laborer and his sweetheart who found themselves in this predicament; and a Swedish author, who wrote in an article from which may be the good Lord evermore preserve our land and nation.

OCTOBER WEATHER.

The forecast for wind and weather states that the trade wind limits will be found somewhat further south than in September, but not so clearly marked. In the zone between 35 degrees north and 20 degrees north, and extending from longitude 125 degrees west to longitude 145 degrees east, frequent squalls and gales, accompanied by rain may be expected.

In passing through the region of the doldrums, after crossing the line, vessels bound north for the west coast of America may expect heavy rain squalls, thunder storms and frequent wind squalls.

Fog will be found along the American coast, though not so frequently as last month; and in Behring Sea fog may be expected.

Occasional spiral circulations, viz., the cyclonic (against the sun) with low barometer, and anticyclonic (with the sun) with high barometer, will be found in the southwestern portion of this ocean generally. In front of the cyclonic area, or the low, the weather is damp with thermometer rising and barometer falling, while in front of the anticyclonic circulation, or the high, it is dry, cooler, and the barometer rises.

Information regarding the system of lights and buoys on the west coast of Mexico is published for the benefit of those vessels trading in that territory. A table prepared from the reports of vessels that sailed from the west coast of America in October, 1895, will be found useful to those vessels about to make the passage around Cape Horn.

On the back of the chart is published a treatise on the geographical solution of spherical triangles, for the use of navigators.

MOODY'S DAY OF FASTING AND PRAYER.

Agreeable to the request of D. L. Moody, the evangelist, that Thursday, October 8th, be observed as a day of fasting and prayer by the churches of the country, and that special prayers should be offered for divine guidance in these distressed conditions of our nation, the Ministerial Association of Astoria would call the attention of the members of the various churches to this request. It is hoped that this day will be observed by all who believe in the efficacy of prayer. A Union meeting will be held in the Baptist church, at 7:30 p. m. on Thursday to engage in a season of prayer. Rev. J. J. Walter, of the M. E. church, will conduct the services.

A POPULAR LECTURE.

Those who are privileged to listen to the lecture on "Oregon," given by Mrs. Lucia Addison, at the New Church vestry on Wednesday evening, came away with the feeling that they were sorry for those unable to live in the great Northwest. Mrs. Addison having been a resident of and traveled over the immense state for nearly fifteen years, proved herself not only able to give an instructive, but an entertaining lecture as well. Her subject was remarkably well handled, and in a clear and concise manner she gave her hearers a better idea of that wonderful country than any other than a real born Oregonian could give. Even the public school scholars, who came there for a part of their education, pronounced the lecture fine.—Abington (Mass.) Advertiser.

RALLY AT KNAPPA.

Republicans Have a Rousing Meeting and Organize a Club.

Owing to the unfortunate stranding of the steamer, carrying the Hon. T. J. Cleeton and the delegation from this city, the Republican meeting at Knappa was not called to order till some time after the hour named in the poster, although the hall was well filled at an early hour, quite a number of ladies being present. Owing to the lateness of the hour Mr. Cleeton's speech was short, but as usual it was to the point, and very effective, so much so that when the McKinley and Hobart Club of Knappa was organized, every man but two signed the roll, among them being several old 'dyed in the wool' Democrats who had voted the Democratic ticket for years.

The following officers of the club were elected: President, W. H. Twilight; Vice President, J. D. McFarlane; Secretary, W. E. Bender; Treasurer, Jas. Darling.

In a few well chosen words the chairman thanked the members for the honor conferred upon him and on behalf of Knappa promised a larger Republican majority than ever before.

It is much to be regretted that the delegation from Astoria could not have had a longer stay, so as to have won over the two Popocrats remaining in that section of the country, but they expressed great satisfaction that Knappa was in line for protection, sound money and good government.

After the meeting was over Mr. J. D. McFarlane, the vice president of the McKinley Club of Knappa, threw open his store and entertained the visitors at supper in thorough western style. "What ever you see is yours, boys, help yourselves."

GOLD NUGGETS FROM MCKINLEY'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

The Republican party is not opposed to the use of silver money, and has done all it could for it consistent with safety.

The mere declaration that the Democrats propose to inaugurate the free and unlimited coinage of silver is a menace to our financial and industrial institutions.

We must not be misled by phrases nor deluded by false theories. Free silver would not mean that silver dollars were to be freely had without cost or labor.

The owner of the silver bullion would get the silver dollar; the people would get it only by their labor.

What would keep the new silver dollars at par with gold? There would be no obligation on the government to do it; the simple truth is, we would be driven to a silver basis—to silver monometallism.

Bimetallism cannot be secured by independent action on our part, nor by opening our mints to free silver, until international agreement is had. It is the duty of the United States to maintain the gold standard.

We now have more silver than gold. Eighty-four per cent of our foreign trade is with gold standard countries. We have more silver in use than any country in the world except China or India.

Free coinage would defer, if not defeat, international bimetallism. Free silver would contract our currency and drive 500,000,000 gold dollars out of circulation.

The money of a country should never be the subject of partisan contention. In addition to free silver we are asked to enter on an era of irredeemable paper currency. We are not a nation of classes, and appeals to prejudice should be rebuked.
