W. Bell, J. W. Bunn, Portland; E. C. Colton, Victoria; P. J. Moore, Vancouver, L. T. Jefferson, New York, registered at the Parker House yesterday.

Chief Engineer Lord, of the Columbine was hardly recognized by his friends when he arrived in port yesterday—he had shaved off his mustache.

Look out for the Taylor sisters, the celebrated song and dance artists, with the Woodmen's Dramatic Union, of Portland, who will soon be in Astoria.

F. J. Schofield is an expert at flower and general landscape gardening, and offers his services for such work at a reasonable rate. Leave word at Astorian office.

The merchants report that business this week is not so brisk as it was last week, although the large number of ships in the harbor keep the grocery stores busy.

It was reported by one of the gentlemen present at the Uniontown Bryan meeting Tuesday night that there were about thirty-three present in the hall, eleven of whom were Republicans.

Mr. J. T. Ross returned yesterday from Portland and reports matters in the metropolis as being quite lively. An immense crowd of Woodmen attended the Exposition on Wednesday.

It was reported yesterday that the beach from Tongue Point to Smith's Point was covered with thousands of sardines, and many fishing parties were engaged in fishing for this fine fish above Tongue point.

Don't forget that Joe Hays, the comedian, with the Woodmen's Dramatic Union, of Portland, and who has been drawing crowded houses in Salem, The Dalles, Oregon City and Portland, will be in Astoria on the 10th.

Miss Ivy Barker, daughter of Capt. Barker, chief clerk of Capt. Merrill's office, Portland, and who made the voyage to Puget Sound with Capt. and Mrs. Richardson on the Columbine, returned to Portland last evening.

Postmaster J. H. Johannsen, who was in from Seaside yesterday, reports that Mrs. Austin's team, while rounding Silver Point Cliff, coming from Cannon Beach to Seaside on Wednesday, was struck by a big breaker which broke the tongue of the wagon and nearly drowned the driver, Alex. Meikle.

In the county court yesterday Jas. M. Thompson, a native of Great Britain, Thos. Spencer, a native of Great Britain, and Albert Nilson, a native of Sweden, were admitted to citizenship.

The Woodmen's Dramatic Union, of Portland, will give an entertainment at Fisher's Opera House on the evening of October 10, under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World.

It should be remembered that the entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World, at the Opera House, on Saturday evening is not the ordinary dramatic show usually put up by amateur performers.

The union prayer meeting held last night at the Baptist church, pursuant to the call issued by Evangelist Moody, was an impressive service.

H. S. Woodson, Jewell, D. J. Ingrassi, Melville, John H. Wright, St. Louis; F. M. Cox, E. A. Palmer, U. S. A.; F. Worthington, Chas. H. Fisher, E. A. Reece, Portland; J. K. LaRue, K. Buron, San Francisco; J. K. LaRue, Louisville, Ky.; James A. Haght, Olympia; J. K. Porter and wife, Dickinson, N. D.; John H. C. Coffin, U. S. N.; Mrs. W. H. Coffin, Fort Canby, were guests of the Occident yesterday.

The steamer Queen will leave from the Fisher dock at 6 o'clock tonight with the McKinley and Young Men's McKinley and Hobart Republican Clubs for Chadwell, where there will be a Republican rally, torch light procession and an address by Mr. Cleaton.

Writing from San Francisco to his brother, Chas. Finch, of this city, Mr. Victor Finch, who is in the postoffice in the Bay City where he comes in contact with thousands of people daily, says that everything is politics now.

Complaint was recently made to city authorities in regard to the re-shingling of several wooden buildings within the fire limits.

The Rev. M. Driver in his address in McKinley Hall on Wednesday night, said: "To begin with, there is something radically wrong with the nation. What is it?"

Tickets for Hickory Farm can be had of any of the members of the local camp, Woodmen of the World, or can be reserved at Strauss' store.

who will be at Rescue Hall Saturday evening, at 7:30 and speak on "The Money Question the Supreme Issue." Then again at the M. E. Church Sunday at 3 p. m. Subject at that time, "The Human Problem According to Law."

Judging from the appearance of Herman Wise's show windows Xmas is not far off. There are any number of pretty presents, and Mr. Wise says that those now displayed are but a small portion of the presents he will give his customers.

Ah Sing, the Chinaman who some time since was arrested for disorderly conduct, in roaming the residence portion of the city and peering into windows, was arrested yesterday morning early by Officer Oberg and before the police court was charged with disorderly conduct. A similar charge was also made against him in the justice court, and pending action in that court Judge Nelson suspended trial.

There is something higher in this campaign than the mere cheating of your creditors; it is the question of the honor of the country, which is of more consequence than a few dollars which you may make by cheating a bondholder. Can you afford, for the sake of paltry gains, even if you could make them (which I deny) to disgrace your country?

KID GLOVES AND NO SOCKS.

The above phrase is certainly more expressive than elegant, but is employed because its force is sufficient to overcome its lack of elegance. It has not the prestige of a well worn saying, that has come down from generation to generation and has been accepted and approved by the wise of all ages.

The following is the docket for the day: Chas. Anderson vs. Astoria Packing Co. and M. J. Kinney; verdict rendered for plaintiff in the sum of $346.12.
